BRITISH CAPTURE BELLEEK

Irish Irregulars Driven Out Of Belleek After Battle With Big British Force

BELFAST, June 8.—(By the Associated Press).—Belleek was occupied today by British troops which advanced this morning to take the salient from the Irish irregular forces holding it.

The fort overlooking Belleek was first captured by the British troops and the town was then taken possession of by the military.

An engagement between the Irish irregular forces in the Belleek district and the British troops which advanced this morning in the area began at 1 o'clock this afternoon. At that hour signals were sent up indicating that the British troops were being fired on, while there were bursts of rifle fire from the north.

The British artillery then opened up, landing two shots near the Belleek fort, in Free State territory.

No Loss of Life

At the Newtonards military headquarters it was stated that Belleek was retaken without loss of life. No prisoners were captured.

BELFAST, June 8.—(By the Associated Press).—A British military column comprising artillery, infantry and engineers advanced into the Belleek district this afternoon.

Effort to Present Measure to Senate Blocked by Sen. Williams

Chairman McCumber to Make Another Attempt to Get Bill to Senate Calendar

WASHINGTON, June 8.—An effort to present the soldiers' bonus bill to the senate today was blocked by Senator Williams, democrat, Mississippi.

Chairman McCumber, of the finance committee, gave notice that he would make another effort later in the day to get the measure to the senate calendar.

Chairman McCumber's Report

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The soldiers' bonus bill was formally presented today in the senate by Chairman McCumber of the finance committee, with an accompanying report placing the probable cost of the federal government at $3,345,669,481, spread over a period of 43 years from next Jan. 1. This is approximately $250,000,000 less than the estimate under the House bill, which was $4,098,719,350, payable over 20 years.

The Senate bill estimate was prepared by treasury experts and is based on the theory that 75 per cent of the 4,153,195 veterans who would be

TIME FOR ACTION SAYS LETTER TO R. R. MEN

CINCINNATI, June 8.—Some union leaders today expressed the belief that although there were grounds for a strike in the railroad industry, it would not be sanctioned unless the 16 brotherhoods and organizations presented a united front.

Doubt was expressed that the four transportation brotherhoods would join in such a movement, in view of the fact that their members' wages had not been cut by the railroad labor board.

Significance, however, was accorded a letter sent to all locals following release of the ballots by the executive council of the Federated Shop Crafters, in which it was declared:

"This is a time for action, and not for talk and unnecessary delay."

ANOTHER CLUE IN PETERS MURDER

Tends to Substantiate Story That Peters Met Death in Ward's Home

Unsealed and Unstamped Letter Found in Auto Turned Over to Authorities

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 8.—Another clue tending to substantiate the story of James J. Cunningham, race track "detective," that Walter S. Ward shot and killed Clarence Peters, former sailor, at the Ward home in New Rochelle, on the night of May 15, bobbed up today.

The new clue was in the form of a letter, unsealed and unstamped, which Benjamin Kendall, a White Plains garage employe, turned over to the authorities with the explanation that he found it in the coupe of J. Franklin Burke of Scarsdale, left with him Monday night to be washed. The letter, addressed to Mrs. Charles Dubois of Atlantic Highlands, N. J., read in part, according to Kendall:

"Fran was there when it happened and left at 10.30. The glass that they found in the driveway was not from Ward's car at all. It came from mine. Wait didn't arrive until 9.30. Ward has maintained that the killing occurred near Kensico reservoir, where Peters' body was found. He also told of a pistol battle there with 'Charley Rose' and a man known to him only as 'Jack,' who, he said, attacked him after he had slain Peters when the latter menaced him with a pistol in an effort to extort blackmail."

CAVE-IN ON CENTRAL BRIDGE

What is Called "First Failure" of Reconstructed Bridge Occurred Last Night

Piece of Roadway Gives Way Under Weight of Heavy Load

Prof. Moore, Consulting Engineer, Views Wreck But Makes No Comment

What is termed the "first failure" of the reconstructed Central bridge occurred some time last night when a piece of the roadway about two feet square caved in under the weight of some heavy load, presumably a motor truck.

The break is between the two sets of street railway tracks about 150 feet from the down town end of the bridge. The concrete roadway at that location is five inches in thickness, although in most other parts of the bridge it is six inches. While the hole is not dangerous, it is viewed with no little concern, for it may prognosticate future breaks.

Professor Louis Moore, consulting engineer, was in Lowell early today and with Engineer Arthur Bartlett viewed the break. He did not wish to make any comment upon it at that time.

"It might be faulty workmanship or a poor mixture in that spot," said the engineer. "I am not prepared to say."

Undoubtedly the matter will come up this afternoon before the board of public service at its meeting at 4 o'clock. It is believed that sooner or later the city will be obliged to put a tar coating over the entire roadway such as was laid over the Moody street bridge. This would tend to do away with a great deal of vibration.

HEARING TONIGHT OF VITAL IMPORTANCE

Tonight at city hall there will be a hearing on proposed changes in automobile parking regulations in Central, Merrimack and Prescott streets. The hearing is of vital importance to drivers of cars and merchants as well.

One proposed change would allow parking on the westerly side of Central street, now restricted territory.

For the past several months, in accordance with the no-parking signs placed in the area that extends from Merrimack street to Hurd street, Traffic Supervisor Edward Connors has worked unceasingly in an effort to keep both sides of Central street open at all times. Today the aspect of the street shows the result of his most excellent work.

Unfortunately Lowell is not blessed with wide streets and unless narrow streets are carefully restricted as to parking, a danger to the public safety immediately exists. To allow parking on the westerly side of Central street not only would undo all the fine work that has been accomplished, but cars parked there would constitute an absolute menace.

When would fire apparatus go after turning from Market street into Central if the west side were jammed with parked machines, several electric cars were outward bound and the east side of the street was filled with incoming electric and automobiles moving toward Merrimack square? That is a most probable condition and one that should be instantly appreciated and thoroughly discussed before any such proposed change is sanctioned.

It is to be hoped that someone in authority will request Traffic Supervisor Connors to attend to night's meeting, as he, more than any other man, is thoroughly conversant with the city's traffic problems downtown.

SAYS HE WILL STAMP OUT VICE

Girls Too Willing to Visit Secluded Places With Strange Men

Four Young People Before the Court Today Were Found at Mountain Rock

Judge Enright Says Defendants in Immoral Cases Will Get Maximum Sentence

Declaring that short skirts, negligence of parents and the willingness of young girls to visit dark and secluded spots with young men they had never seen before was in a great measure responsible for many of the cases dealing with morals brought before his court, Judge Thomas J. Enright today told The Sun that he was going to stamp out vice in his district or know the reason why.

"I am going to give these offenders the limit," said the judge. "There are all together too many of these kind of cases coming before my court. Something has got to be done to save the youth of this generation."

"There is a great deal of blame placed on the man in the case. It seems that he is always declared at fault. Of course he is generally the one who becomes the aggressor, but then, too, our young girls, by their actions and dress, have a great deal to be blamed for. I honestly think that half of these cases are the result of the short skirts being worn by the girls nowadays. They expose themselves indecently and, in a measure, lead on young men."

Then, too, parents are not as strict as they should be. A great many of them do not know where their children are half of the time or how they seek their pleasure. If parents would insist that their daughters dress more modestly,

GALLAGHER FOR INSPECTOR OF WIRES

The nomination of Charles L. Gallagher as inspector of wires will be the only nomination sent to the city council tonight, Mayor Brown said today.

The council probably will not take any action upon the nomination of Mrs. Sarah L. Other nominations before the council are those of Messrs. Mulry, Aohin and Tuttle for the board of assessors.

Mayor Approves of Lieutenant Duncan's Transfer From Law Office to Police Department

Mayor George H. Brown today approved the transfer of Lieut. Alexander Duncan from the position of investigator of claims in the office of the city solicitor to regular duty in the police department.

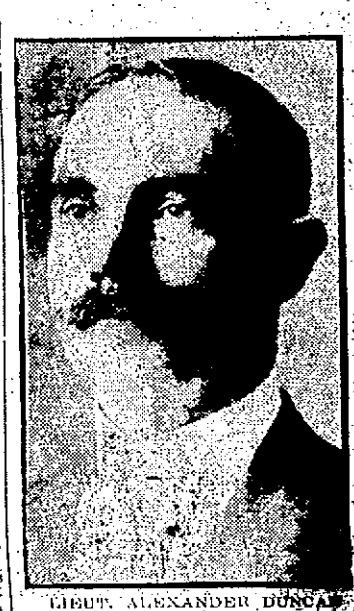

Lieut. Duncan has made verbal request upon Superintendent Thomas R. Atkinson for such a transfer and the latter submitted the request in writing to the mayor. The approval is embodied in a letter addressed to the superintendent today.

Just how soon the transfer will become effective is not definitely known, but it is not thought that it will occur until after July 1. The vacancy to be created in the solicitor's office will be filled on appointment of Solicitor Edward J. Tierney, subject to the mayor's approval.

Mr. Tierney said today that he has not given the matter any great amount of thought, but will make an appointment when the time comes. He expressed a desire to obtain a man who has had some experience in the matter of settling claims and prefers an insurance adjuster if it is possible to obtain one.

Asked as to whether or not he would appoint Edward Mulry to the position, he replied that Mr. Mulry's name has not been suggested to him.

Although no definite word has come from the head of the police department, it is believed that Lieutenant Duncan will be promoted to a captain and take over the duties of the night duty. Capt. David M. Atkinson at the time of his election to the superintendency.

MILTON OFFICER SLAIN BY AUTO THIEVES

MILTON, June 8.—The killing of Patrolman Emory Farrington, apparently by automobile thieves, early today, became known with the finding of his body near the Green street entrance to the Blue Hill Reservation. He had been shot, probably some distance away, and the body dragged to a place beside the road. An abandoned automobile found in the vicinity was thought to be connected with the crime.

BANKERS REFUSE GERMAN LOAN

All Idea of Granting International Loan Given up by Committee at Paris

Abandoned Because Unanimity Does Not Exist Among Prospective Lenders

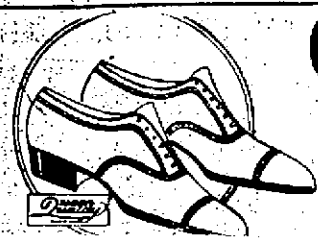

PARIS, June 8.—(By the Associated Press). All idea of an international loan to Germany, has been given up by the committee on bankers, and they are meeting today to agree upon the form of their report to this effect which will be submitted to the reparations commission.

The prevailing conviction among bankers is that two things are fundamental to a loan: First that there must be unanimity among the lenders, which were to include all the countries represented on the reparations commission; second, that the credit basis of Germany must be outlined clearly.

The bankers look upon the reparations commission's reply to their recent note as an official declaration that unanimity does not exist among the prospective lenders, and therefore feel that plans for a loan cannot be advised.

CARPENTER EXPLODED

NEW YORK, June 8.—The explosion of a carpenter's shop in the city of New York today was the latest in a series of accidents which have been occurring in the city since the beginning of the month. The explosion occurred in the shop of a carpenter named John J. O'Connell, who was working on a building at the corner of Broadway and 14th street. The explosion was caused by a gas leak and resulted in the death of the carpenter and the destruction of the shop.

GRADUATION EXERCISES AT TEXTILE SCHOOL

Commencement exercises, a report of which was given in The Sun yesterday, including names of graduates, prizes, awards, etc., were held at the Lowell Textile school yesterday afternoon, with Payson Smith, LL.D., state commissioner of education, as orator of the day. Dr. Smith spoke on the general purpose of education and its worth to the individual and the nation. The exercises marked the 15th anniversary of the school. The exercises did not start until 2:30 o'clock and as the addresses by President Eames and Payson Smith, LL.D., commissioner of education, came late, they were not included in yesterday's report and are given here in part.

The program began with an orchestral selection, after which President Charles E. Eames, before introducing the principal speaker, spoke at some length on the history of the school and the men to whom all credit for its success is due.

"He stated that the school was opened on Jan. 31, 1897, in the Parker block in Middle street, by Governor Roger Wolcott. He then traced the growth of the school, with buildings and land constantly added to the new location on Wood street, up to the present time when the class of '22, with 24 degree men and 18 others receiving diplomas in cotton and wool manufacture, was about to be graduated. This was the largest class in the history of the school.

"Next came a special tribute to James T. Smith, a former member of trustees, now 85 years of age, who was unable to be present at the exercises. Mr. Smith, said President Eames, commenced working out the problem of building the present Textile school at the age of 60. When his history is written, it will be the history of the Lowell Textile school," said Mr. Eames.

Next of the old trustees to receive tribute was the late A. C. Gurnock, who from the inception of the school until his death was connected with the board. Mr. Eames said that he was another example of an old man who is always young. Among those in the public eye who were also mentioned by the president as having been interested in the school's progress were Hon. Robert E. Luce, Senator David I. Walsh and Vice President Calvin Coolidge. He read an extract from the vice president's letter of regret, which stated that he was unable to be present and conveying a message of congratulation and best wishes to the graduates.

Commending the staff of instructors at the school, the president mentioned the fact that Prof. Louis A. Olney was celebrating his 35th anniversary with the school. The alumni also include many men of prominence and seven of them are at present among the 18 members of the board of trustees.

Commissioner of Education

President Eames then introduced the principal speaker, Payson Smith, LL.D., commissioner of education.

After expressing his appreciation of the invitation to address the students who were about to leave the halls of learning for the broad world of practical occupation, congratulating them upon their successful completion of their various courses, Dr. Smith began to speak upon the broad, general values of education, applied in the right direction. He spoke of the general misapprehension in regard to industrial training of a Lowell boy who said the principal industry of this city was the manufacture of textiles and the corresponding answer of a Lynn boy to the same question, the latter saying boots and shoes. Dr. Smith felt it was his duty to set right all who considered these industries greatest. In his mind, the principal industry of our state is not the manufacture of either textiles or boots and shoes, or even agriculture, but education as represented by the Textile school. That is why the industry in which the people of Massachusetts have had them to make enormous investments. He said that growth or development is the primary aim of education, that we may do all we can to assist the boy and girl to grow to their own stature. He took issue with Mr. Edison in the latter's contention that man with masses of information were necessary. Although this possession is a valuable one, Dr. Smith thought what we needed much more were men and women of integrity, who will exemplify in their own lives those things, in

DEBILITY FROM SHOCK

A nervous breakdown may be caused by grief or a shock to the system. In the case of Mrs. Mary M. Church, of 12 Snowhill street, Froydenberg, R. I., both of these causes contributed. Before she had recovered from the shock of a sudden death in the family, fire destroyed her home and she suffered for several years from nervous debility as a result of the strain.

"I was nervous all the time," she says, "and my stomach was weak. I would have no attacks that would scare me, they would take my breath away. My heart would fairly jump. I had crying spells and I fairly got a good night's sleep. My appetite was poor and my strength left me. Nothing helped me until I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills which I read about in a newspaper. First I noticed that I was not so nervous, then my appetite came back. As I continued to take the pills my strength returned and I was able to sleep soundly. I have great faith in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and can truly say that they have been wonderful in building up my health. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Price 60 cents.—Adv.

unity, which we must have in the mass. Good citizens, said the speaker, was the only way in which he knew of getting better citizenship, and insisted that we will not get the right type of citizenship except by the proper education of every individual unit. He expressed a wish to say this to each of the young men about to graduate, and make them realize that it is still possible for a man to stand up and say "I will be counted as one, if need be, upon the side which I believe to be the right side."

Another aspect of education seemed very important, according to the speaker. That is the education result which aims to carry over into each generation all that we have been able to get out of the experience and the study of generations that have gone before. That is the education found in such a technical school as the Lowell Textile.

Although this technical education is somewhat recent, said the speaker, its importance cannot be over-emphasized, for the good of the commonwealth. He spoke of the poverty of this state regarding precious ore, gold and other metals, vast tracts of timber or other valuable assets. But for years the policy of Massachusetts has been to invest in what it considers most valuable of all possessions; the human resources; developed in its boys and girls. The industries of the state can go on vigorously only through a program for the development of education. When he pleads for money for schools, Dr. Smith said he was pleading for a continuing and stable policy, which is the investment of our dollars where they will do the greatest good in men and women.

In closing, the commissioner said that if he were Briggs, the cartoonist, he would like to make a cartoon of what the boy of 13 thinks about when his father says, "My boy, when I was young." He expressed confidence that the day was better than any that has gone before, and the day that is brightening in the east is going to be a better one than that. He also believes that "the young people of today are just as fine and clean and noble as any young men and women have been all that they need is the opportunity, and that is what we are trying to give them."

To the graduates he added a final word: "You are charged today with a high responsibility for service. We wish for your success and Godspeed in every worthy endeavor.

After the presentation of awards, the graduates by President Eames. At this time the president seized upon the opportunity to speak to Francis Pampong Parian, a student from the Philippines, on the future relations between this nation and his own people, believing that he, the sole representative of that island in the 1922 class, would fulfill his obligation to both countries and faithfully represent the spirit of America.

STRIKERS POLICING OWN LINES IN MANCHESTER

MANCHESTER, N. H., June 8.—A crowd of 100 people gathered about the Colliery mill last night when Lydia Polkow, 50, of 11 Bath st., was arrested for first striking a woman worker who had just left the mill and then showering her with the contents of a box of snuff.

Struck Full in the Face

The arrest of the Polkow woman, the only detention by the police for the day in connection with the strike, came at a dramatic moment. Two young women, garbed in black, had just left the main gate of the mill at closing time and were proceeding towards the centre of the French section while the great crowd jeered and yelled.

Just then the woman dashed through the picket lines and struck one of the workers full in the face. The next moment she threw a box of snuff at her. In a moment she was surrounded by police and was hurriedly placed in a passing automobile, in which she was conveyed to the police station and booked on the charge of assault on a citizen.

Crowds About the Mill

The crowd last night about the mill was by far the largest that has yet assembled. It was made up of people of all races and ages, gaily dressed flappers mingling with somberly-clad women and men, whose faces plainly told the story of bitterness that has lasted for nearly 18 weeks.

In the windows of nearby tenements, on the roofs of houses, massed on the sidewalks in slowly moving lines were the pickets, fully 1000 people. The police regulations allowed the picket line to move about a block, so that it was possible for the mill to be much under observation. Long before it was time for the gates to be thrown open for the nightly exit of the workers the crowd was impressive in size.

Picket Line Mailed Grew

The yelling and booing commenced just as soon as the first of the workers appeared from the mill doors and continued until they had disappeared from sight.

Acting by permission of Chief of Police Healy the crowd was handled in a large measure by the pickets and leaders of the strike. The tall figure of Vice-President James Starr was much in evidence, and when the time came that the woman was arrested he stood with arms upraised in a appeal to the people, "this people," to cease the noisy demonstration they were making.

Police Own Lines

Yesterday, following the riotous scenes of Tuesday night, the board of strategy of the strikers, the four members of which were freed in 1000 bail each after having been placed under arrest as they entered the police station Tuesday evening, determined to co-operate with the police in every manner possible.

They were granted permission to police their own lines yesterday and the strikers were also allowed to move about in regard to the mill than they have hitherto had.

UMPIRE MAHONEY
ATTACKED BY FANS

THREE RIVERS, Que. June 8.—Umpire Mahoney of the Eastern Canada Baseball league was reported in a critical condition today as the result of a beating said to have been administered yesterday by a crowd of fans. The fans enraged at one of Mahoney's decisions, left the ball park, awaited him at his hotel and assaulted him.

RECKLESS AUTO DRIVERS

Campaign for Greater Safety
on Highways — Lowell
Operators Lose Licenses

(Special to The Sun)

BOSTON, June 8.—Following up his campaign to put an end to the record previous months of June have made of being the most dangerous in the year on the highways, Frank A. Goodwin, registrar of motor vehicles, today addressed a letter to each police chief in the commonwealth, seeking their co-operation in eliminating reckless automobile operators.

"Only a small proportion of motorists are reckless," he writes, "and if they are made to know that they will be taken from the road if they operate in a manner dangerous to the public, we will soon have safe highways. Operating at a reckless speed, cutting in in heavy traffic, and passing in dangerous streets without slowing down, are the principal causes of bad accidents. Operators of this type should be taken from the road, and I shall be pleased to accept any recommendation from you."

A short suspension of a license works wonders. If, for local reasons, you do not want the responsibility, get in touch with one of our inspectors. If you have any suggestions to make I shall be pleased to accept them."

With the pleasant weather and the resulting increase in motor vehicle traffic, there has come increasing activity in Mr. Goodwin's office with respect to revocation and suspension of licenses. In his latest list are included the names of the following residents of Lowell and vicinity:

Herbert N. Flanders, 407 Princeton street, Lowell, operator's license revoked; conviction in Lowell court May 25 on charge of operating while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, and was fined $50.

William B. Wiggin, 140 Belmont street, Lowell, chauffeur's license suspended for twenty days; operated in an improper manner in Lowell, April 25.

Harry Ellsworth, 450 Market street, Lowell, chauffeur's license and automobile registration certificate revoked; conviction in Lowell court May 15 on charge of operating while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, and was fined $75.

Carl Finberg, 164 Howard street, Lowell, operator's license suspended; operated in an improper manner in Lawrence May 1.

John J. Finnegan, 500 Gingham street, Lowell, chauffeur's license revoked; conviction in Lawrence court May 3 on charge of operating while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, and paid a fine of $25.

Allan B. Lalline, 75 Andrew street, Lowell, operator's license suspended for 15 days; operated in an improper manner in Littleton May 14.

Alvin Rogers, 7 Little street, Lowell, truck registration certificate revoked; the machine is improperly equipped, as to number plates.

Manuel C. Picasso, 214 West London street, Lowell, operator's license revoked; conviction in court at Methuen May 7 on charge of operating in such a manner that the lives and safety of the public might be endangered, and was fined $20.

Alfred Paterno, 35 Adams street, Lowell, unlicensed, right to operate suspended; conviction in New Bedford court May 1 on charge of operating while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, and sentenced to three months in the house of correction and fined $10; he appealed.

Joseph O. Drapeau, 36 Fourth street, Lowell, operator's license revoked; conviction in Lowell court May 16 on charge of operating while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, and was fined $10.

Napoleon Chahana, 31 Smith st., Lowell, operator's license suspended; conviction in court at Nashua, N. H., May 8, on charge of operating while under the influence of liquor, and was fined $100 and sentenced to sixty days' imprisonment (suspended).

Anastase Boudry, 240 Alton ave., Lowell, chauffeur's license suspended; conviction in court at Nashua, N. H.,

SAW HARDING PLAY

Long Shots and Short Remarks by President

CHICAGO, June 8.—(By the Associated Press) Long shots and short remarks are the characteristics of President Harding on the golf course, according to a report brought from Florida by Charles A. White, who watched the president play while returning from a tour of the golf links in the Panama Canal zone.

Near the end of the round, during which the president had put some long but erratic shots in places that were not intended for perfect shots, Mr. Harding hit a fine long drive, straight down the course. The rest of the foursome voiced their commendation of the shot in chorus. The president without a smile and with resigned acquiescence said: "A blind sow will find an acorn once in a while."

WANT CITY TO BUY FIRST STREET LAND

Residents of the Centralville section of the city have circulated a petition asking the city government and park commission to interest themselves in a proposal to purchase the land and buildings on the southern side of First street for an extension of Varnum park from Bridge street to the McKenna garage.

At the present time bids are being called for to have the buildings on that side of the street moved back to allow for the necessary widening in connection with the new boulevard, but the residents of the neighborhood feel that now is the proper time to agitate a parkway there and say that it would not cost any more to take the buildings outright and to raise them than it will to move them back.

GIRL DROWNS AFTER RESCUING COMPANION

WATERVILLE, Me., June 8.—Rachel Lowe, 15-year-old junior at Lawrence high school in Fairfield, drowned yesterday afternoon in the rescue of her companion, Arlie McKinnon, a schoolmate, as the two were swimming in the Kennebec river at Fairfield. Another girl warned them of the strong current, and seeing their determination to swim, went to get a boat, telling them to wait until she returned. Miss McKinnon, a weak swimmer, did not wait. She got into the full current, which overpowered her. Miss Lowe came to her aid and helped her to the boat. While Miss McKinnon was getting into it, Miss Lowe was swept away and sank some 12 feet from the craft. The two girls had played "hockey" from school.

CHELSEA CREEK FIGHT

More Important Than Bunker Hill or Lexington and Concord, Says Judge Cutler

REVERE, June 8.—Judge Samuel R. Cutler of the Chelsea district court, speaking at the banquet of Co. D, 15th Regiment, M.N.G., at city hall, last evening, asserted that the Battle of Chelsea Creek was of more importance, because of its consequences, than either the Battle of Bunker Hill or the Battles of Lexington and Concord.

"It was the Battle of Chelsea Creek that destroyed the seacoast base of supplies for the British army besieging Boston, and it was their failure to secure food that caused them to evacuate Boston and sail away to Halifax the following year on March 17, 1776," asserted the judge.

Judge Cutler, who is a close student of history and who says he has read everything that has ever been written relative to the Battle of Chelsea Creek, asserted that the importance of this engagement, which he terms the first defeat of the British naval forces in Revolutionary war, has been lost sight of because it occurred on May 27, 1776, and was sandwiched in between the more spectacular battles of Lexington and Concord and Bunker Hill.

Judge Cutler recalled the incidents of the Battle of Chelsea Creek as follows: "The British livestock and supplies for their army were on Noddie Island and Hog Island. These supplies were ferried across to the mainland. The only other source of supply was through Roxbury Neck, which was watched by the Continental Troops."

"The Colonials attacked the depots on Noddie and Hog Islands, burned barns and drove off cattle and sheep. Admiral Graves was sent with a schooner and a sloop and several smaller ships and drove off the raiders. Later Gen. Stark, then Colonel Starbuck, and Gen. Putnam, with 800 troops from Cambridge, marched through what is now Revere and, with some small cannon, bombarded the ships in Chelsea Creek. The schooner stuck in the mud and the Colonials captured several of the guns."

"The Continental Troops then fortified the hill where the U. S. Naval hospital now stands and the other hills in Chelsea and Revere and kept possession of Hog Island and Noddie Island, making the section useless as a base of supplies; it was this that caused the British to ultimately abandon the siege of Boston, because they were without food."

"The great importance of this battle is lost sight of by historians in general, because it was only a skirmish compared with Bunker Hill, and because of its chronological position, but in my opinion it was a most important engagement because of its results."

SAYS WELDONA STOPPED PAIN OF RHEUMATISM

Knee Joints Were Sore and Stiff

Among the hundreds who have recommended Weldon's none is more enthusiastic over their recovery than Mrs. E. Gerard, who resides at 101 Elm st., Charlestown, Mass. Mrs. Gerard said:

"I suffered from rheumatism of the knee joints so that it was impossible for me to go up or down stairs in the usual way. I would have to go up sideways. The stiffness of my knees was very marked when I would sit for any time and attempt to get up. The pain would often shoot from my hip to my knees and I would have to be very careful because the pain would catch me like a knife stab. I had tried many remedies for rheumatism, but nothing seemed to help me until I secured Weldon's. After taking Weldon's the pain and stiffness gradually left me and now I can go up or down stairs without any trouble whatever. I am only too glad to recommend Weldon's to others who may suffer as I did."

Weldon's is a scientific preparation for rheumatic conditions and is full of results. One trial proves it. Send to Weldon's Co., 132 Boylston st., Boston, Mass., for free book, "Germs of Rheumatism." Get Weldon's from A. W. Dow and all reliable druggists.—Adv.

TO HOLD GRADUATION EXERCISES SUNDAY

The graduation exercises for St. Joseph's college will be held in the school hall in Merrimack street Sunday evening, June 18 and in connection with the exercises the pupils of the school will present a delightful operetta entitled "The Chat Bottle."

early And use a little more common sense in the company they keep there would be less of these scandalous cases coming into court.

"Take the case of young girls who accept the invitation of men to go to lonely and secluded parts of the city. These girls may not have a wrong thought in the world but they are putting themselves in danger by their very acts. If young girls would flatly and emphatically refuse invitations of this sort we would have less trouble here."

"I have been making an effort in the past to stamp out these cases and correct the morals of certain of our youth. I am going to push these offenders to the limit of my powers from this time out. They need not expect any leniency in my court in the future. This thing has reached a point where something drastic must be done."

In connection with these cases it might be said that local officers, connected with the vice squad, are working in co-operation with police of surrounding towns to stamp out vice. Officer Cooney and other members have been on duty at several of the summer resorts which have dance halls, and have been making much headway in cleaning up this evil. The officers report that they have come across cases in several instances of late which have been brought into court and that there are a number of suspicious people under observation at the present time. Some of these people, both girls and men, are suspected of violating moral laws and the officers are just waiting their opportunity to bring them into court. They have been assured by Judge Enright that severe sentences will be meted out.

Four young people were brought before the court this morning, two of them charged with immoral offenses. A third was charged with assault and battery upon a young girl, and the fourth was the result of a party given in a lonely spot near Mountain Road. The two women were picked up by Officers Cooney and Conway of the local police, who worked in conjunction with an officer from the Tyngsboro force. Leo F. Allen was charged with carnal abuse of a female child, while Hector Vivier, another member of the party, was charged with assault and battery. Allen was held in $500 until June 15, and Vivier, who pleaded guilty to the charge, had his case continued to tomorrow for investigation. He was also held in $500.

CAPITAL'S BIGGEST WEDDING

MISS CATHERINE HUGHES

(By N.E.A. Service)

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The first official wedding of the Harding administration will take place in the Bethlehem chapel of Washington cathedral on the afternoon of June 10, when Miss Catherine Hughes, daughter of Secretary of State and Mrs. Charles Evans Hughes, will become the bride of Clarence Lockhart Wadell of New York.

CELEBRATE RETURN BY MAKING LIQUOR RAID

Federal Prohibition Enforcement Agents Harry Sheldon and J. Walter Bowers have returned to this city after an absence of several weeks, doing duty in other sections of the district, and will be stationed here for some time.

The officers celebrated their return here last night by raiding two unoccupied tenements in Worthen street and seizing a 50-gallon still, 11 mash barrels, six of which were full, five gallons of rhine and much moonshine-making apparatus, including two gas stoves, a condenser and a number of fags and bottles.

The raid was made in the second and third stories. The second story contained the apparatus, while the third was located in the third story tenement. It is the belief that the plant has been in operation for about two months as the officers were tipped off and of a plan to make a general raid on the city.

Because of the small size of the chapel in the uncompleted cathedral, and the necessity of inviting to the wedding the chief officials and diplomatic dignitaries, hosts of the bride's closest friends could not be asked to the ceremony proper. Hence the function, immediately following at the Pan-American.

Educated at an Episcopal school, Miss Hughes herself is an avowed Episcopalian. Secretary and Mrs. Hughes, however, are old-line Baptists. As a consequence, Bishop Harding will be assisted in the ceremony by Rev. William Abernathy, pastor of Calvary Baptist church.

As to its location some time ago, but until last night were unable to locate it. The whereabouts of the mash indicated that the still had been in operation only recently.

No arrest has been made in connection with the case as yet, but one is expected to take place within a few days, as the owner of the place is known by the police. In addition to Sheldon and Bowers, Sgt. Winn and Officer Moore of the liquor squad and William Murphy, who patrols the beat, made up the raiding party.

Under the name of "Character," Dr. Bright, a London physician, published a system of shorthand in 1888.

AFTER PHILIPPINE INDEPENDENCE

Senator Pedro Guevarra of the upper house of the Philippine island congress is acting chairman of the mission now in this country to ask President Harding and the congress of the United States for immediate and complete Philippine independence.

"We are grateful," says Senator Guevarra, "for what this country has done for us, and we come as friends, and in perfect good will, to remind you that when the organic act of the

PEDRO GUEVARRA

Philippines was passed, almost unanimously, six years ago, we were promised independence as soon as we had demonstrated our ability to maintain a stable government.

"We think we have done so, and we are here to ask that this pledge be fulfilled."

The mission includes six Philippine senators and nine representatives, among them President Quizon of the senate and Speaker Osmena of the house, and the secretary of the interior, and an advisory group consisting of three members of the Philippine university faculty, an ex-mayor of Manila, the insular collector of internal revenue, the director of public lands and several officials of the Philippine National bank.

Easy For Thin People to Put On Flesh and Gain Weight

In one month's time EVANS' TRIPLE PHOSPHATES puts on several pounds of solid red blooded flesh and changes your weak run-down, nervous tired body into a strong, vigorous, robust one or money back.

Of course medical men are surprised and many are still unbelievers, but the fact is evident in every up-to-date pharmacist that Evans' Triple Phosphates will produce flesh without violent methods, fast cures, daily massages or heavy torture.

In order to assimilate the nourishing food thin people daily take into the body and turn it into healthy red blood corpuscles, the nerves that control the process of digestion and assimilation must be put in first-class shape, and until that is done you might as well as well quit trying to put on flesh. Your system is starving for something that will turn the food you eat into healthy, stay-there flesh, and it can only be done in one way—by correcting faulty, nervous digestion. One month's treatment is guaranteed to increase your weight at least several pounds and in ten days make you feel like a new being, full of ambition, vigor and a desire to accomplish things. Fred Howard and all good druggists have agreed to supply Evans' Triple Phosphates and guarantee it to do just what is claimed for it, or money refunded. Even though Evans' Triple Phosphates works wonders in all cases of nervous digestive and blood troubles, don't take it unless you really desire to put on flesh and gain weight—Ady.

Delays Soldiers' Bonus Bill

Eligible for compensation, would elect the adjusted service certificate option; 2 1/2 per cent farm, home and land settlement aid, and 1 1/2 per cent vocational training aid. Should all of the veterans select the certificate plan the total cost would be $4,486,845,975.

Financing the Legislation
With reference to financing the legislation, Chairman McCumber's report said it was hoped that the reduction in governmental expenditures plus the payment of interest on the refunded foreign obligations would be sufficient to obviate the imposition of additional taxation.

"If it does become necessary to impose additional taxes," the report continued, "it is believed we can better determine such burdens for the future at a later date when the future condition of the treasury will be more accurately established."

As to the refunded foreign obligations, the hope was expressed that these soon would be obtained and that it will be possible for the foreign governments to provide for the immediate payment of interest thereon, so that such interest can be used toward defraying the expenses authorized under this act.

To Reduce Cash Payments
Senator McCumber explained that an attempt had been made to reduce to a minimum actual cash payments under the bill during the next three years, while the treasury is engaged in refunding the nearly seven billions of dollars of maturing government obligations. The estimated cost of the bonus for those three years was $242,000,000.

After its presentation to the senate, the bonus bill went to the calendar, where it will remain until there is an agreement to call it up. Senator McCumber and some other proponents desire early action but several republican leaders are opposed to side-tracking the tariff bill as they expect the fight over the bonus to consume at least a month and perhaps six weeks.

Five Plans to Select From
The most important change from the original senate measure is the elimination of the cash bonus and reclamation features. As now drafted the legislation would give each veteran the right to select any one of the following plans:

Adjusted service pay, but only if his adjusted service credit did not exceed $50.

Adjusted service certificate with bank and government loan provisions.

Vocational training aid.

Farm and home aid.

Land settlement aid.

The estimated cost for each of these plans is $16,000,000 for the cash payments; $3,364,909,431 for the adjusted service certificates; $412,425,000 for farm, home and land settlement aid, and $52,325,000 for vocational training. The expenses under vocational training and the cash bonus would end in 1925, under this estimate, and those for farm, home and land settlement aid in 1923. Expenses under the certificate plan would continue to 1965, with a total of $855,991,670 to 1943, when the certificates would begin to fall due.

$1.25 a Day For Foreign Service

Explaining the bill, Chairman McCumber said in his report that the amount of the adjusted service credit would be at the rate of $1 a day for domestic service and $1.25 for foreign service, less than $60 bonus paid when the veterans were discharged. In no event, however, could the total exceed $500 for domestic service and $525 for both domestic and foreign service.

The adjusted service certificates, payable after 20 years from the date of issue or sooner, upon death would have a face value of 3.05 times the total amount of the adjusted service credit. Until Jan. 1, 1926, banks would be authorized to loan an amount equal to 50 per cent of the adjusted service credit plus interest at 4 1/2 per cent compounded annually from the date of certificate. After Jan. 1, 1926, the government would make loans on the certificates in varying amounts according to the time negotiated.

Land Settlement Provision

As a land settlement provision in place of the reclamation, veterans would be given preference in making entry on any public or Indian lands opened to entry. To pay for these lands, they would be entitled to a sum equal to the adjusted credit increased by 25 per cent.

Joy in Kidland When Sells-Floto Circus Comes to Lowell

Sells-Floto circus now combined with Buffalo Bill's Wild West show, is coming to Lowell for matinee and evening shows on Saturday, June 10, not only bigger, but better than last season. Many new acts have been added and the entire Chicago Coliseum performance will be given in every city that the show plays.

Sells-Floto never cut one act out of the show at any time. Many people wonder if the smaller places do really get the city show. That can be answered with one word.

Positively. Three stages will be filled with feature acts from the moment the show starts to the time when the Congress of Rough Riders dash madly around the great hippodrome track in thrilling and exciting races.

The five herds of elephants, some of them imported from India for the Chicago engagement, the 50-cage zoo, the clowns, fifty-seven of them, the spangled folk, the stately ladies, the hooting, tooting callioles, the white dappled horses and the many wonders that are only Sells-Floto's, will all be here in plenty of time for the street parade.

And there will be "Poodles" Hanneford, the greatest clown rider of all time and the highest paid circus performer in the world, and the Hanneford family, the Hodgkins, the Hobsons, the Nelsons, the Hamids, Madri Arabs, the Japanese thunderbolts, and scores of other equally famous revolvers.

And everywhere Sells-Floto go this season, four great troupes of Chinese circus stars will perform the most brilliant aerial and acrobatic feats ever attempted. These brilliant performers were brought direct from Peking to the Chicago Coliseum and positively "topped" the show.

Old timers and performers alike gazed with wonder and awe, at the weird and wonderful exploits, these marvelous Chinamen did.

Many of these feats are performed for the first time outside of China.

TEACHER IS DISMISSED

Permitted Dance Which She Attended, to Be Held in Schoolhouse

EMINENCE, Kan., June 8. (By the Associated Press.)—Because she permitted a dance to be held in the schoolhouse and herself attended it, Mrs. Clara White, the "school marm" of this village of 32 inhabitants has had her teaching certificate revoked.

Miss Lorraine Wooster, state superintendent of education held that she had broken Kansas laws. Mrs. White wrote her that the dance was without any objectionable features, and that, in a community 30 miles from a railroad she felt it was a proper use for the schoolhouse after teaching hours.

Miss Wooster, an inveterate foe of tobacco, took a different view, asserting that dancing was particularly objectionable in a school teacher.

King Arrested in Cleveland Accused of Swindling N. E. Farmers Out of $35,000

BOSTON, June 8.—Harry King, alias J. Kregel, who had been arrested in Cleveland at the request of the Boston police, is alleged to have swindled New England farmers out of $35,000 through soliciting orders for newly-hatched chickens offered at low prices.

From his office here, King conducted a mail order campaign, but officers said he "chicken farm" was his office.

HER AILMENTS ALL GONE NOW

Mrs. Sherman Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lake, Michigan.—"About one year ago I suffered with irregularities and a weak, nervous system and at times was obliged to stay off my feet. I doctored with our family physician and he finally said he could not understand my case, so I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After I had taken the first bottle I could see that I was getting better. I took several bottles of the Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and I am entirely cured of my ailments. You may publish this letter if you wish."—Mrs. MARY SHERMAN, Route 2, Lake, Mich.

There is one fact women should consider and that is this. Women suffer from irregularities and various forms of weakness. They try this and that doctor, as well as different medicines. Finally they take Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound, and Mrs. Sherman's experience is simply another case showing the merit of this well-known medicine.

If your family physician fails to help you and the same old troubles persist, why isn't it reasonable to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

Fagged Out?

That Tired Feeling Overcome In One Week

If your nerves are all unstrung and your vitality is low, and you are "always tired," it is more than likely that your system lacks vitamins, that life giving element in food which science has recently shown to be so important to robust health and throbbing vigor.

Busy men and busy women require special nerve strength, as the nerves and then the glands are the first to suffer when our foods are low in vitamin content.

Eat the right food; and (because most of our food today, in our artificial living, is low in vitamin content), it is highly advisable to add the vitamin extract from VEGEX.

Have VEGEX for dinner. A vitamin food one pound of which is made from 12 pounds of yeast.

VEGEX is that extract, highly palatable, delicious and aromatic, tasting like an exceptionally excellent, nutty, although pure vegetable. Besides being served as a drink, VEGEX can be used with gravies, also with butter as a spread on bread.

Buy a jar of VEGEX at 30c, 50c or $1.00 and if the family does not thoroughly like it as a food, and if you do not find that it has all the effects of toning up the system, take the partly used jar back to your dealer and he will refund in full all the money you paid for it. But, be sure to try it. If you mean a great deal to you in health, longer life for you and better growth for your children, call on your grocer or your drug store today and ask for VEGEX. If he has not yet received his stock, ask him to order and we will send you a generous sample free and prepaid. Vitamin Food Co., Gotham National Bank Bldg., New York City.

Kidney and Bladder Troubles HAVE TO GO

Clogged Up Kidney Deposits Are Dissolved and the Toxins (Poisons) Completely Driven Out. Druggists Told to Guarantee It in Every Instance

"Your very life," says Dr. Carey, "depends upon the perfect functioning and health of your kidneys, so whatever you do, don't neglect them." Dr. Carey's famous Prescription, No. 77, known as Marshroot, is not recommended for everything, but we cannot too strongly urge its use if you suffer from annoying bladder troubles, frequent passing of water, night and day, with smarting or irritation, brick dust sediment or highly colored urine, bloating, irritability with loss of flesh, backache, rheumatism or any other tendency to Bright's disease, Diabetes or Gravel, for Kidney disease in its worst form may be stealing upon you.

Don't wait until tomorrow to begin the use of this wonderful prescription now obtainable in both liquid and tablet form. Hurry and get any of the above symptoms. Kidney and bladder troubles don't "wear away." They will grow upon you slowly, stealthily and with unflinching certainty.

Never mind the failures of the past if you even suspect that you are subject to Kidney disease, don't lose a single day. For Fred Howard, 117 Central St., A. W. Dove's drug store and every good druggist have been authorized to return your money on the first two bottles to all who state they have received no benefit.—Adv.

G. O. P. CONVENTION AT BOSTON, SEPT 23

BOSTON, June 8.—The republicans of Massachusetts will hold their state convention in Boston on Saturday, Sept. 23. The total number of delegates will be 2576, about 475 more than were entitled to seats two years ago.

The delegates to the convention will be chosen according to the following plan: Each city or town will be entitled to one delegate for the first 125 votes cast for the republican candidate for governor in 1920 and another delegate for every additional block of 250 votes. Two years ago the corresponding figures were 75 and 150.

other than gardening or farming or for the maintenance of lodging houses shall be known as a business district. All other districts shall be known as residence districts.

Recently City Solicitor Edward J. Tierney addressed an opinion to the city council, stating that the council has a right to confer with the building inspector upon the issuance of permits and stating further that the inspector is legally entitled to hold up the granting of any permit that does not meet with his approval.

The ordinance to divide the city into building districts as follows:

All lands located upon each section of each accepted street between the boundary lines of each two adjacent intersecting streets, or between the end of said street and the first adjacent intersecting street, shall comprise a building district.

A permit may be issued for a building in a residence district for business

Cherokee Indian Ace, Officially Credited With 14 German Planes, in Poverty

Returns Home After 15-Mile Hike on Foot to Find Wife and Babies Gone

OKMULGEE, Okla., June 8 (By the Associated Press).—Broken in health, Captain William Sunset, Cherokee Indian ace of the Lafayette escadrille and globe-trotting adventurer, started east today on a quest for his wife and his two babies, wrested from him by poverty.

Captain Sunset came back to the land of his youth at the end of the world war, showered with high military decorations. He lived here with his bride, an Alsatian, whose life he saved overseas.

Last Sunday, after trudging 15 miles seeking a job, the war hero returned to his home to find his wife and babies gone. Sunset learned from friends that his wife had purchased a ticket for Pittsburgh, Pa. So he sold his little store of goods and with a purse made up by friends, set out on his quest.

Sunset says he has 14 German planes credited to him officially while in French service. In addition to that, he claims 17 unofficially. He has been wounded dozens of times and shot down five times. Sunset saw service in three units, the Foreign Legion, the Lafayette Escadrille and the United States army. He entered the army after a daring escape from Germany in a borrowed German plane.

Pimples, blackheads and boils—fresh yeast rids you of them

It is well known that pimples and blackheads (acne) and boils are often caused by errors of diet.

Fleischmann's Yeast is now being recommended for these embarrassing and painful skin troubles because fresh yeast corrects the errors of diet which cause them.

The surgeon of one important New York hospital states: "I have used yeast extensively and found it invaluable in curing boils." When 17 cases of pimples were treated with Fleischmann's Yeast at hospitals in New York and Philadelphia the results were remarkable. A typical case was a young man who had suffered from pimples for three years. He ate three cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast daily. In five weeks the eruption had cleared completely.

If you are troubled with pimples or boils, begin at once to correct them by eating 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's fresh yeast daily before or between meals. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tinful package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer for Fleischmann's Yeast.

Summer Fur Mystery Is Solved! They Wear 'Em to Hide Lines in Neck

By MARIAN HALE

Furs are worn in midsummer purely for personal adornment. This is unnatural, wrong and should be stopped," says Dr. Henry Fairchild, Osborn of the Museum of Natural History, New York.

"The fad is causing the best mammalian life to disappear. Legitimate use of furs for protection from cold has passed. Furs are a fashion now, just as feathers 30 years ago."

One of the most enthusiastic supporters of Dr. Osborn's beliefs is Minnie Maddern Fiske.

Mrs. Fiske never wears furs, on the stage or off.

"They are not necessary," she contends. "In the coldest parts of Canada I have always been able to keep warm with sweaters, cloth and jersey garments."

The summer fur is one of the feminine inconsistencies that always baffles when we analyze mind and body. And modern women know. She knows she has to be more beautifully built than most of us if she can permit her neck to emerge boldly and fearlessly from her coat collar or the low-cut line of her frock.

She needs something to soften the line and make a frame for her face. The fur does that.

Then, too, the shoulders have a way of being uneven or poorly matched, or too broad of the narrow. A well manipulated fur conceals this.

Even in winter, women do not wear furs for warmth, but for beauty. That is why a woman may be bundled in thousands of dollars worth of pelts, and wear the thinnest of silk hosiery and satin slippers.

More than anything else, a woman can invest in furs look their value.

If a woman is wearing a chinchilla or sable cloak, every other woman who sees her knows several thousand dollars were expended on her. For a sable neckpiece, composed of two skins, sometimes a woman pays more than $2000.

A good natural blue fox fur costs from $150 to $200.

But the money shows. It shows more than it possibly could in diamonds, pearls or lace. A woman's fur is a better indication of her husband's financial rating than his bank statement.

And they do conceal that line every woman fears!

district on the Fermanagh-Donegal border this morning with the reported intention of occupying Belleek by nightfall.

The republican forces are said to be falling back before the British advance which was linked from a point on the south shore of Lough Erne, six miles from Belleek. The British column was accompanied by armored cars.

Before the British troops moved off, heliograph communication was established across Lough Erne, presumably with the forces holding the Pettigo salient. There appeared to be a simultaneous movement in progress on both sides of the lake, in the nature of an encirclement maneuver.

As the British forward march continued, special constables acting as observers, occupied the hilltop. They had been on guard throughout the night, watching against the possibility of an attack from the Free State side. The hills afford a commanding view of Belleek and Magheramara castle. Advance parties of republicans held the roads and other strategic points.

The troops engaged in the march are details from three British regiments. Their artillery comprises 4.2 inch howitzers.

Negotiations Continue

LONDON, June 8.—(By the Associated Press) The Irish negotiations are proceeding satisfactorily, it is officially stated, and a full conference of the treaty signatories probably will be held tomorrow, when Prime Minister Lloyd George is expected to return from his holiday trip to Wales.

It is understood that the experts dealing with the question of the Irish constitution will have a further meeting today.

It is understood that the communications brought from Dublin by Arthur Griffith, the Irish president, while being in the main reassuring to the cabinet members, do not fully settle the difficulty over the constitution for the Irish Free State, as drafted.

It is stated in some quarters that the Irish still are insistent upon concessions outside the terms of the treaty.

There is a rumor in certain quarters that Michael Collins is veering continually toward the views of Eamon de Valera, and it is hinted he may even abandon the treaty, of which he was one of the signers, but the story comes from a biased source.

Embargo Lifted

LONDON, June 8.—The northern government has ordered the withdrawal of the embargo on the transportation of food and merchandise to County Donegal which lasted only one day. The Irish republican army as a measure of retaliation forbade the sending of goods from Donegal into County Londonderry, which is consequently suffering from a lack of agricultural supplies. The republicans also threatened to prevent any trading with Londonderry merchants.

Liverpool Regiment Arrives

LONDON, June 8.—(By the Associated Press) Six hundred men of the Liverpool regiment arrived here last night, taking up quarters on the Donegal side of the river Foyle. The Londonderry military barracks are on the county Londonderry side of the Foyle, so that there are now large concentrations on both banks.

An Exchange Telegram states that the Londonderry military barracks are reported to be concentrated in County Donegal, armed with the best American rifles. Londonderry forces in the northern side of the Foyle are reported to be concentrating in County Donegal, armed with the best American rifles. Londonderry forces in the northern side of the Foyle are reported to be concentrating in County Donegal, armed with the best American rifles.

Tire Competition Good, Bad and Indifferent

THE average American was raised on the idea that the more people who competed for his trade the better off he was.

Like many good ideas, it has several sides.

They all show themselves clearly in the tire business.

There are tires which prefer to compete largely on a price basis. Believing that the public is more interested in the dollars and cents they pay than in the worth of what they get.

On the other hand, U. S. Royal Cords believe differently.

And car-owners who use Royal Cords have a plus feeling which they get both from actual experience, and because they realize the integrity of the manufacturer.

People don't think of Royal Cords as high-priced tires. They think of them as better tires.

Prices on United States Passenger Car Tires and Tubes, effective May 8th, are not subject to war-tax, the war-tax having been included.

DOUBLE SHOOTING

Girl Dying After Being Shot in Atlantic City Hotel—Assailant Shot Himself

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 8.—Miss Lola Gibson is dying in the city hospital after being shot today in a hotel room by Benjamin Ball, who then turned the pistol on himself. He is also in the hospital but will recover.

No motive for the shooting has been learned. The girl, who was semi-conscious when found, declared that Ball shot her without warning. They had not quarreled, she said, according to the police.

Cotton Exchange Fined $5000

NEW YORK, June 8.—Justice Marcus of the supreme court imposed a $5000 fine on the American Cotton exchange, convicted yesterday of permitting its members to bucket the orders of customers. This was the maximum penalty. Judge Marcus reserved decision on a motion for a certificate of reasonable doubt. Later Justice Marcus denied the application for a certificate of reasonable doubt. He also denied a motion for a stay of the payment of the fine, ruling that it must be paid at once.

Third Floor of State House Hall of Fame

BOSTON, June 8.—A Hall of Fame to occupy the entire corridor of the third floor of the state house is proposed by the special commission appointed to provide for a suitable memorial to Massachusetts chaplains who died in the World War. The commission which reported today, says the plan has been agreed to by the legislative committee on state house, the art commission, and various representatives of organizations of World War veterans. It was announced that a commission for a tablet in bronze, to be placed in the state house, had been awarded to Bashka Paef, a Boston sculptress.

Lawyer Promoting Merger, in Contempt

NEW YORK, June 8.—Thomas L. Chadbourne, the lawyer who promoted the Republic-Midvale-Inland Steel merger, today was adjudged in contempt by the Lockwood legislative committee, when he refused to turn over experts' reports on the seven companies originally intended to be brought into the consolidation. Chadbourne expressed a willingness to give the committee the valuations of three companies now in the proposed merger, but positively refused to give up reports on the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., the Brinr Hill Steel Co., the Lackawanna Steel Co., and the Steel & Tube Co. of America, which were included in the seven companies when the consolidation first was undertaken.

TO RESTORE HARMONY IN BUILDING TRADES

CINCINNATI, June 8.—(By the Associated Press)—Decision whether harmony shall be restored to the Building Trades department of the American Federation of Labor by the reaffirmation of the carpenters' union hinged today on conferences of federation officials with leaders of the carpenters' union.

It was not expected that a final settlement would be ready until tomorrow. Only a brief session was planned for today. The carpenters withdrew from the department last year because of a dispute with sheet metal workers as to who was entitled to install metal doors and room trimmings.

TELEPHONE ALARM

A telephone alarm was sent in at 2.10 o'clock this afternoon for a dump fire in Manufacturer street.

FIGHT FOREST FIRES FROM AIRPLANES

QUEBEC, June 8.—Three hundred men, directed by airplanes, today fought three large forest fires at St. Michael des Saints, Bether county, in the vicinity of Lac Chas, Lac Chas, and the headwaters of the Vermillion river.

The provisional government yesterday passed an emergency order closing the forests to everyone without a permit.

Do You Think It Hot?

course, it was much hotter than that in many parts of the city, but these figures are based on the readings taken several times each day to arrive at the minimum, maximum and mean temperature for each month.

Beginning on June 1, 1918, and continuing for seven days, the city was under the spell of a heat wave that perhaps has been forgotten in the present, when one is prone to think that it is "the hottest ever." For those seven days in June, 1918, just three years ago, and embracing dates corresponding to the present, the maximum temperatures secured by the Locks and Canals were as follows: 85, 97, 83, 95, 91, 86, 86. On the day following, which would be the ninth, the temperature dropped like a rocket to 65, due to showers, and climbed back the next day into the seventies.

Aside from June, 1918, however, one may pour over the records for many years back before finding another early June that had weather as hot as this city is experiencing at present. In 1913, on June 7, the thermometer touched 82, while on June 7 and 8 in 1914, it registered just 80. This noon, the Locks and Canals readings were 86, but rose two or three degrees two hours later. Yesterday the maximum reading taken was 88. Last year on corresponding dates the temperature reached 75 and 78, while two years ago, the maximum was 64 on both days.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Heavy selling of Mexican government bonds based on rumors of a disagreement between the international bankers and representatives of the Mexican republic now in conference here, was the outstanding feature of today's trading on the stock exchange. Before noon, Mexican 4 per cent. lost 3 1/2 points and the two issues of five per cent. were lower by 3 1/2 and 4 1/2 points.

ROYAL WEDDING TODAY

Elaborate Precautions to Guard King Alexander and Princess Marie at Belgrade

BELGRADE, June 8.—Elaborate precautions were taken to guard King Alexander and Princess Marie of Rumania during their wedding festivities today. The entire route of the bridal party from the palace to the cathedral was lined with double rows of soldiers and gendarmes with loaded rifles and fixed bayonets. Their orders were to shoot immediately if it is understood, if they noticed any suspicious movement among the spectators.

The royal wedding has caused all Jugoslavians to go marriage-mad. All the eligible peasant country seem to want to get married this week, and the churches are flooded with applications for marriage licenses.

DISTINGUISHED COLLEGES

Sec. Weeks Designates Norwich University and University of Vermont

BOSTON, June 8.—A telegram from the secretary of war to Major General Clarence R. Edwards, commander of the First Corps Area, received today names Norwich University at Northfield, Vt., and the University of Vermont at Burlington as distinguished colleges.

The classification is based on the war department's annual inspection of educational institutions offering courses in military training.

TO FLY FROM MUNICH TO CHICAGO IN 24 HOURS

GENEVA, June 8.—America will be able to read all the principal European newspapers within three days of their publication and letters will take six days for transit between Argentina and Europe, instead of 29, when the allies raise their ban on the manufacture of aircraft in Germany. This is the promise attributed to Herr Bore, director of the Zeppelin works at Friedrichshafen, Germany.

Zeppelins to launch an airship with a capacity of 100,000 cubic meters, equipped with engines developing 3000 horsepower and capable of flying from Munich to Chicago in 24 hours.

ORDER STUDENTS TO R. O. T. CAMPS

BOSTON, June 8.—Orders were prepared today at the headquarters of the First Corps Area at the Army Base, South Boston, directing 800 students in the military departments of 11 New England universities to proceed on June 15 to the summer camps of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. The camps which will be open from June 15 to July 27, will be situated as follows:

Ordnance, Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland; Field Artillery, Edgewood, Maryland; Signal Corps, Camp Alfred Hall, New Jersey; Air Service, Mitchell field, Long Island; Infantry, Fort Casey, Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass.; Coast Artillery, Fortress Monroe, Virginia.

Clue in Peters Murder

One shot went through the window of this house, he said.

"Cunningham," he said, "a material witness, maintained the shooting took place at Ward's home, and the authorities have inclined to this belief. Kendall declared today that when Mrs. Burke called for the corpse last Tuesday, she inquired anxiously after the letter."

Mrs. Burke who is connected with a New York woolen company, said the letter had no bearing on the Ward case, and that neither he nor his wife had attended a card party at the Ward home on the night of the killing.

Referring to the statement concerning the broken glass in the letter, he admitted the glass in his car had been broken accidentally in starting the machine.

Mrs. Alfred R. Hook, who lives across the street from the Wards, and whose Christian name, Frances, is abbreviated to "Fran" by her close friends, admitted to newspapermen today that she was at the Ward card party on the night of the Peters shooting. She said Mrs. Burke was there also.

"Was there any shooting in the Ward house?" she was asked.

"Positively none, there was no disturbance of any kind," she said.

"Why was she in the Ward house?" she was asked.

"I was the last to see her," she said. "Mrs. Burke's car had been broken not made public when the subject of broken glass played such an important part in the Ward case?" was asked.

Mrs. Hook said she could not remember how many persons attended the card party at the Ward home. She declared emphatically she had not seen Peters about the place, and that there had been no disturbance there.

It seems that at about 12.30 o'clock while bathing in that part of the brook known as the "mill pond," Small was suddenly seized with cramps. He struggled in the water a few minutes, but was unable to make any progress in his attempt to reach shore. Suddenly he was seen to disappear and it was at that time that Roche, without divesting himself of his clothes, dived into the brook and, after swimming a distance of about 250 yards, made a series of dives and finally located and recovered the unconscious form of Small.

Roche then swam to shore and with the assistance of others succeeded in bringing Small back to consciousness. In the meantime Dr. Jewett of Duxbury had been summoned, but when he arrived he found that there was nothing for him to do as Roche had applied first aid in a very effective manner. Small was later taken to his home.

Witnesses of the accident were loud in their praise of Roche and they were unanimous in saying that were it not for his prompt action, Small would have perished.

decency and self-respect, was submitted to the board of directors of the Lowell Social Service League yesterday afternoon, by the general secretary. The budget was worked out according to present day prices in Lowell, by a home economist engaged for this purpose, and will be used as a basis of treatment in family work.
The budget item for June contains the following amounts: Food, $9.50;
shelter—four rooms with toilet, $2.00;
clothing, $2.00; fuel, heat and light,
$1.50; sundries, $2.00; total $19.00.
The report states that families known to the league find it difficult to pay for the winter's fuel supply in a lump sum. In order to encourage thrift and make it possible for more families to meet this program during the coming winter, the league has made special arrangements with local coal dealers. Families wishing to place an order with the league may make weekly small payments during the summer months.
Immediately the league went on record as favoring and approving the plan of Dr. F. A. Finnegan for the health camp for children which he is undertaking to establish, and pledged its co-operation should the camp materialize.

Emphasis is placed on the fact that the mode of living as outlined in the budget is not presented by the league
as the scale on which a family should live, but a scale on which, if need be,
a family can live.

A food allowance for one week at the given sum of $9.50 gives the quantities of various foods which may be bought, and a week's menu follows. All are based on a man and wife and three children under 14.
The food requirements of each member of the family in calories, and the cost of calories per 100 is given.

At the close of the report it is clearly stated that no allowance has been made for amusements, no consideration given to the matter of having and that the sundries amounting to $2.00 include medical care, transportation, higher life and necessities.

CASES IN THE
DISTRICT COURT

George Brown, who keeps a store
at the corner of Cabot and Merrimack streets, was fined $10 in district court today for violating the Sunday laws
by selling potato chips and other edibles. Brown's license expired a short time ago and its renewal was held up by the license commission pending an investigation of conditions at his store. He was finally allowed a license and possession one at the present time.
When questioned by the officer on the beat at the time of the alleged violation, Brown is reported to have talked back to the officer in a brawny manner.
After Brown had paid his fine, the court called him to the bench and told him to obey the law. "You are no better or nor worse than anyone else and you treat the officers with the respect that they are entitled to, for no friends or anyone else, will save you if you are brought in here again," said the court.

A number of cases listed for trial
were continued. Joseph A. Maynard, charged with concealing mortgaged
property had his case continued again.
This time to June 15. Louis Joseph and Frank Grenow, charged with illegal keeping had their cases continued to June 20 and June 15, respectively.

Frank P. Brown pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness and was sentenced to two months to the house or correction. Sentence was suspended for one year. Officers testified that Brown had been in the habit of carrying quite a bit of booze with him and that yesterday he was found on a bench in the South common offering a drink to a man and woman. He denied the charges, and said that he carried the liquor for his own consumption
only.

Bernard J. Haney, pleaded guilty to drunkenness and was sentenced to the state farm at Bridgewater. Sentence was suspended for one year.

Lawyer Joseph Donahue, counsel for the plaintiff in the case of George Mil-well vs. Joseph Albert, which was tried before Justice Hammond at the jurywaived session of the superior court
in this city a couple of weeks ago,
was notified this morning that an award of $100 had been made to his client. The case was an action of tort by which the plaintiff sought to recover damages for personal injuries as a result of being struck by an automobile owned by the defendant, while riding his bicycle in Central street.

JUSTICE OF PEACE

BOSTON, June 8.—Miss Clara Louise
Power, assistant registrar of probate,
Suffolk county probate court, yesterday became the first woman to be appointed a justice of the peace in Massachusetts. Until the full operation of the law giving women equal rights
with men in holding public office no woman had been allowed to act as a justice of the peace, although a large number have been made notaries public. Miss Power was administered the oath in the executive chamber at the state house yesterday noon.

Miss Power is one of the pioneer women lawyers of the state. She was the first Massachusetts woman admitted to practice before the United States supreme court and the first Massachusetts woman to be appointed a notary public.

Miss Power has many other "firsts" to her credit. She was the first woman to be admitted to the bar of the United States circuit court; the first Boston woman to receive an LL.B. from Boston university; the first Massachusetts woman to be admitted to the Suffolk county bar; the first woman to become a member of the Bar association of the city of Boston; the first woman to hold the position of assistant registrar of probate in Suffolk county, and the first woman lawyer to become a clerk in the probate office.
Miss Power received her early education in the public schools of Boston, was graduated from the girls' high school, and then attended Boston university law school. Her graduation with the degree of LL.B. created a mild sensation in legal circles.

She is past president of the Massachusetts Association of Women Lawyers, a member of the Boston University Women Graduates' club, Women's City club, Professional Women's club, and many other organizations.

FUNDS FOR THE TEXTILE STRIKERS

The committee in charge of the "Dollar" day drive for the benefit of the local textile strikers are getting along fine with their work and it is expected they will bring the fund raising campaign to an end tomorrow.
Donations are coming in steadily and the committee feels very much elated
over the reception given its members
by the business men of the city.
There is no further development in the strike. Pickets are on duty at the Hamilton gates morning, noon and night and they report that the number of operatives employed in the plant is decreasing gradually. This was pay day for the members of the Weavers' union, who are on strike and during the forenoon hours the treasurer of the strikers committee, Mrs.
Annie Reagan was kept busy distributing checks.

The Knights of Columbus Twilight League team will make a determined effort to break into the win column tonight when it lines up against the Highland Daylights of the South common.

The Knights got away to a bad start this season, but on last Tuesday night put up a regular big league exhibition only to be outlived by the league-leading Centralvilles. Manager Daily turned in one of the best pitched games of the season, holding the opposing team to two hits. His team played errorless ball and outlived the Centralvilles more than two to one, yet the "breaks" of the game went the other way.

It is expected that Twines will be on the mound for the "Cats" tonight, while Manager Daily has a wide list to select from for his twirler.

After tonight's game a boxing card, headed by "Sammy Smith" will be staged at the Crescent rink by the Moody A. C. It is one of the best-looking cards of the season and undoubtedly will draw a large crowd to the scene of hostilities.

Phinney Boyce of the Acra and Young George Gardner of the upper North street district are the principals in the main event of ten rounds. It will mark the second engagement of the pair and if it is anywhere near as good as their first encounter, it will be well worth going a long ways to see.

As Gardner won the other tilt his supporters feel very confident he will repeat. Boyce's friends, however, some of whom all claim he has had the edge on his rival three weeks ago, predict a triumph for the Acra favorite.

Gardner has done his training in Boston, under the watchful eye of his manager, Jackie Williams. He has boxed with many high class boxers, both in the gymnasium and reports state he is in great condition. He took on several pounds since the last bout and will enter the ring a little heavier than before.

Boyce worked out at the Y.M.C.A. and also engaged in considerable road work. He has boxed with Jimmy Demas and Billy Murphy and his manager avers he is in fine fettle and at his best fighting weight.

At 7:40 last evening, with the Broadway and Highland-Daylight ball tatters on a 1 to 1 basis after seven innings of a terrific battle, the umpire, at least 20 minutes of good light left, Umpire Charlie Bird suddenly arrived at the conclusion that darkness was impending and called the game much to the dislike of the many hundreds of Twilight League fans who filled the bleachers, will alone and outfielders on the South common played. The game therefore will have to be re-played at some future date.

Both teams were in fine fettle, and the pitchers showed about the same support from the batters that could be imagined, and although a few hits filtered through, along with a scant allowance of bases or walks, the base-runners were held so close to their positions that base-stealing was impossible, and after a few tries was abandoned altogether.

In the first inning, with the Highland-Daylight winning the toss for position, Gath stepped to the plate for the Broadways. The first he could do was a fly to right, but the second man, hit to the same territory and perched on first. He did not stick closely enough to the base, however, for he was picked off by Mulno's quick throw to Greenblade. Mulno struck out.

In the Highland-Daylight section, Freeman landed on a plate-cutter for a lousy triple to left. Williams hit to right field and Freeman scored when Keyes fouled off a bludgeoning. Freeman reached first and advanced Williams on a bunt which the third baseman could not grab off in time to throw him out. At a moment later, when Greenblade drove a lacerating double, Freeman was caught off second, the second victim of a quickly and neatly executed double play with Gath as party of the second part.

With the score 1 to 0 in the Daylights' favor the Broadways fought hard until the fourth when they evened it up. Gath took a walk, Gaveo hit a ball, Gleanon sent him along with a neat bunt a short distance in front of the plate and Keyes walked the ball into Gath's left hand. Freeman scoring. Keyes reached first when Pop Williams misjudged an easy grounder, letting it hop over his head, and when Keyes walked for the second time the bases were full and it looked dark for Mulno. Tommie Green stepped into the breach, however, the old reliable making a ball line off Matthews' bat and tagging third, which Keyes had left for home on division, celebrated its debut by defeating the Lions last night by the score of 7 to 4.

Tonight's program are as follows: Libbons vs. Highland at Washington park; Tyler A.C. vs. Belmonts on the South common; Highland vs. Lincoln A.C. on the South common north; Buck horns vs. Wille Stars on the North common.

The Tigers will play the Pawtucket Blues in a first division game tonight. The Ramblers continue to lead this division, having won six consecutive games, defeating the Unity last night by the score of 12 to 1. The latter team will play the strong North End aggregation tonight at Washington park.

BOXER SAYS WIFE BEAT, BOUND AND ABUSED HIM

OSIAHA, Neb., June 8.—Earl Puryear, bantamweight boxer, formerly of Denver, today has a divorce from Mrs. Grace Puryear, the divorce contingent, however, upon an investigation by the juvenile court.

Puryear testified in domestic court yesterday that his wife, Grace, had "beaten, bound and abused" him, and that he "would rather face a champion" than his wife. Mrs. Puryear was not in court and Puryear said he did not know where she was.

"STRANGLER" LEWIS DEFEATS CADDOK

BOSTON, June 8.—Strangler, Ed Lewis, world's champion catch-can catch-can wrestler, defeated his little successfully against Earl Caddock last night, two out of three falls at the arena.

Lewis took the first fall in 22 minutes, 2 seconds with his famous headlock. Caddock won the second fall in 7 minutes 5 seconds with a head scissor and wristlock.

The third and final fall was secured by Lewis by another headlock in 10 minutes 37 seconds.

John Peak of Nebraska defeated Dick DeWitt of New York in a double arm wrestling in 28 minutes 51 seconds. In the preliminary bout Tommy Record defeated Nick Karawala with a body lift in 15 minutes 52 seconds.

THE JUNIOR TWILIGHT LEAGUE

The Lincoln A.C. recently admitted to the Junior Twilight League, second

"Fighting" George Parker of the C.M.A.C. who is scheduled to meet Jimmy Demas of the Ramblers club in the semi-final put in a very strenuous week in Lakeview training for the bout. He is a member of the Lafayette camp and made this place his headquarters during his training. He is in good condition and confident of victory.

Martin Flaherty, Jr., and Tommy Lane of Lawrence are to meet in one preliminary with Benney O'Neill and Johnny Herbert appearing in the other.

"Deak" Dodge, president of the Moody club, called The Sun just before press time today and announced that the report of his boxing card arranged for tonight being called off, is absolutely without foundation. He also said that while Jimmy Demas, having his hand in training yesterday, the mishap is not serious and that he will be on hand this evening.

The Edison school team, coached by Jack Condon, has captured the honor in Division of the grammar school league, while the Green and Pawtucket are battling for the lead in Division B. The winners in the latter division will enter play the Edison for the school championship. The Edison have won all of their five games. The team lost recently to the Mokeys, but in the regular exhibition contest, in the last league game with the Mokey team, the Edison won 15 to 2.

The Twilight League scheduled for next week was announced today. On Monday night the Broadways and the Centralvilles will play of their game scheduled for Tuesday night. The game called at the request of the managers. It was first announced that the Daylights and Centralvilles would open up next week's activities, but as post-poned games take precedence over regularly scheduled contests, when Monday night is open, the Broadway-Centralville contest will have been played. On Tuesday night the South Ends and Knights of Columbus will meet for the first time this season. Wednesday night the Y.M.C.A. and Centralvilles will have their first encounter. Thursday night the Broadways and the Knights of Columbus will play, while on Friday evening the Highland Daylights and the Y.M.C.A. will meet. The league president stated that in this time all teams will play an equal number of games with the other teams.

But he didn't weaken. He kept on trying. During the last two years he

Nine Home Runs Made in Yesterday's Major League Games

NEW YORK, June 8.—Home run bats that have been in temporary retirement in the major league races appeared today to be ready for another slugging skirmish. Nine circuit clubs played a prominent part in six of the eight games yesterday, although the principal sledge runs—Williams, Hornsby, Miller and Ruth—failed to figure.

Highlanders, Tierney and Gooch of Pittsburgh put enough wallop out of the park to beat the Phillies with Morison hurling shutout ball, and keep the Pirates on the heels of the Giants. The Braves took the National League pennant and then mauled four Club players for 18 hits and victory, 9 to 4. Frank Snyder's homer helped decide the battle.

The other leading National League contenders fell by the wayside. Inso fielding and Vance's ineffectiveness. Boston's Doherty a 6-2 victory over the Peppers Reds, while Miller's twirling and Gowdy's hitting helped the Braves take their sixth consecutive victory and third in as many days from St. Louis.

The Yankees bunched their hits to better advantage and made it two in a row, 9 to 7, from the White Sox. Joe Bush chalked up his seventh straight win and Babe Ruth collected two hits and walked. Talk made his seventh home run.

St. Louis lost some ground in the 9-8 victory over Cleveland in 11 innings and while Blumke scattered the Athletics nine hits the Tigers bunched their half dozen and won, 6 to 2.

CENTRALVILLES TO PLAY CRACK K. OF C. TEAM

The second of the series of Sunday games at sparkling park arranged by the champion Centralvilles of the Twilight League will take place next Sunday afternoon, when a strong aggregation representing Mt. Pleasant council, K. of C. of Boston will appear as opponents in the local stars.

A feature in connection with the game will be the appearance at first base for the visitors of Pat McCarthy, New England light heavyweight champion, who has succeeded in disposing of all his opponents in this section. McCarthy was defeated some time ago by Tom Fitzhugh of St. Paul, Minn., champion of the world's light heavyweight championship, but this is the only defeat on his record, so far as is known. Ray Foy's contingent look for a big crowd at the game, since the Boston team is an undisputed contender for the honors in that city, as the Centralvilles are in Lowell.

Socialistic tendencies are increasing rapidly in the country districts in Germany.

Buying a $125,000 Baseball Star

BY GENE COHN
SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—He bought $100,000 plus two players, an approximate figure of $125,000 and the largest sum to be paid since Babe Ruth was sold.

And yet it was but four years ago that Billy Kamm left the Golden Gate Recreation park "and lots" to go into the minor leagues.

The phenomenal rise of this 22-year-old "third-base wonder" whose purchase by the White Sox from the San Francisco Seals has just been completed, is without a parallel in baseball history.

In 1913 a lean, gangling youngster signed with frigid restraint, a contract to play with the Sacramento Coast League team. He had been reported as having "recruited" possibilities and was being closely watched. Three weeks later he had been released only to join, in 1919, the Seals team. In three short years he has developed into a $125,000 beauty.

He's still bashful and blushed at the drop of a bat, but he is declared by experts to be the coming third baseman of the majors.

Danny Long, former manager of the Seals, who put through the deal, declares he cannot remember having seen a player who so many qualified. He'll make the biggest record of any man that ever batted from the west side of the Rockies, Long predicts.

His first season with the Seals did not indicate big league possibilities. He hit .236 and stole 11 bases.

But he didn't weaken. He kept on trying. During the last two years he was wallowed out more runs than any other player with the Seals.

Then he commenced to get the attention of the "higher ups."

When Jim O'Connell, his "pal" was purchased by McGraw for $75,000, it was predicted that Billy would be next. But Kamm had hoped it would be by McGraw, so that he could play with Jimmy. However, he's quite elated just the same.

He'll join the Sox next season.

LOWELL HIGH DEFEATED NASHUA, HIGH

Nashua, High Defeated Lowell High Players at Nashua, Yesterday

The Lowell high school baseball team was beaten by Nashua High at Nashua yesterday, 2 to 1. It was a battle of pitchers between Phil Payton of Lowell and Moran of Nashua. Each twirler allowed only three hits each. For six frames Payton held Nashua hitless, but a home run smash by Moran in the seventh gave the up-river team the edge.

Long tripled in the eighth for Lowell and tied up the battle when he scored on a double by Moran. Nashua won in its half of the same inning. Mulvanity singled over second base and went around to third when Oranien, catching in place of the disabled Liston, failed to keep the runner in check. Cassista then drove him home with a hit that bounced off Payton's glove.

LODGE ADDRESSES JEWS ULSTER SPECIALS HOLD UP CARDINAL LOGUE

Says National Home in Palestine Means Extension of Religious Freedom

BOSTON, June 8.—An extension of the religious freedom "so vital to the peace of the world," will result from the establishment of a national home for the Jews in Palestine, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge said last night in an address at a reception tendered him by Jewish residents of Boston. The reception was in recognition of the senator's introduction of the resolution unanimously passed by the senate to the effect that this country favored such a national home.

"The days of religious intolerance," said Senator Lodge, "have gone by among all the most highly civilized nations of the western world. Religious freedom is one of the cornerstones of the constitutional government of the United States. Complete religious tolerance is an American doctrine, and I think all Americans would deplore any attempt to bring race or religion in any manner into our political life."

"The United States has no direct interest in Palestine of a material kind, but its people have as Christians the profoundest feeling of veneration for the country, which enshrines the holy places. This resolution of sympathy with the desires of the Jewish people neither threatens nor invades any rights of other people."

He said that the rule of the Turk had been "a curse to every land it touched," and that the possession of Palestine by the Turks had been "one of the great blotches on the face of civilization."

"The rescue of Palestine by Great Britain and the allies," he continued, "removed this stigma from the western nations. This result, I am sure, has been not only a joy to all those who think of the Holy Land with devout reverence, but will be a service to all mankind."

"If its government be properly administered, it must carry with it an extension of the principles of religious freedom so vital to the peace of the world in teaching men to hate oppression and persecution born of religious differences."

TRAIN DERAILED, FIREMAN KILLED

YORK, Pa., June 8.—The north-bound express on the Pennsylvania railroad from Baltimore due here at 8:10 o'clock, left the rails at Brillharts, three miles south of here, about 9 o'clock last night. The fireman was killed; another of the crew was probably fatally hurt and a number of other persons were injured.

"ADAM AND EVE" TO BE ARRESTED

AUGUSTA, Me., June 8.—Game Commissioner Parsons will proceed against Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sutter, who are doing the "Adam and Eve" stunt around Howe Brook in Arrostook county.

Various complaints have come to the departments that Mr. and Mrs. Sutter are violating the law. And pictures were shown of them in the act of carving deer and partridge killed out of season in their possession.

The wardens sent to bring Mr. and Mrs. Sutter out of the woods and have them arraigned before a trial justice are Howard Wood of Watton, chief game warden for northern Penobscot and southern Arrostook counties, and E. E. Jorgensen of Ashland, chief warden for central Arrostook county.

"The men and game laws were placed on the statute books to be enforced," says Commissioner Parsons. "I see no reason why these people, who call themselves 'Adam and Eve,' should be permitted to go into the woods and break our laws, any more than other persons."

The Value of your food—

There is only one test by which economy in food may be measured

To be economical, an article of food must have high food value, nourishment, be readily assimilated and still remain reasonable in price. For a cheap food which fails to nourish or causes indigestion, you exchange your health and personal comfort—too high a price to pay for any food.

Bread-and-Milk is the perfect, balanced food providing every particle of nourishment and food-value that the body needs for satisfaction and health.

A pound loaf of Bread contains the same food value as one and a half pounds of round steak, one and three-quarter pounds of chicken, one and a half pounds of mutton, three quarts of oysters or a dozen and a half of eggs.

Milk supplies all the nutrients to the diet—fats, carbohydrates and protein—and is capable alone of sustaining life for a comparatively long period.

This is Bread-and-Milk week! Don't let it pass without proving the value of more Bread-and-Milk on your table.

QUESTION LEGALITY OF SEIZING THE "SYNAGOG"

BOSTON, June 8.—An order asking the supreme judicial court of Massachusetts to pass upon the constitutionality of a bill now before the state senate for removal of John Slinger Sargent's painting, "The Synagogue," from the Boston public library for educational purposes, was introduced in the senate yesterday and referred to the committee on rules.

On Monday the house passed the bill, which would authorize the state to take the painting by eminent domain and remove it to an educational institution for study as a work of art. Demands for the removal of the picture have been based on the charge that it constitutes a reflection on the Jewish religion.

"By the order brought in yesterday, the supreme court would be asked to say: 'It is constitutional and within the power of the general court to instruct the department of education to take the painting by right of eminent domain.' The order also asks whether the picture may be taken for educational purposes and whether its removal is for a public purpose.

Pending the report of the rules committee on the order the senate deferred consideration of the bill.

KU KLUX OFFICIALS AND MEMBERS INDICTED

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 8.—Three high officials and 34 alleged members of the Ku Klux Klan were indicted by the Los Angeles county grand jury yesterday on five counts of felony charges in connection with a raid at Inglewood, near here on April 22 last. The Klan officers were William S. Coburn, grand goblin of the Pacific domain and supreme attorney of the order; G. W. Price, king klan for the state of California; and N. A. Baker, klan leader and organizer for the county of Los Angeles, and under arrest here while Coburn and Price are understood to be in the east.

GUILTY OF BUCKETING

American Cotton Exchange Convicted by Supreme Court Jury

NEW YORK, June 8.—The American Cotton Exchange was convicted of a charge of bucketing orders by a supreme court jury late yesterday. The jurors deliberated just one hour. Sentences will be pronounced today.

Justice Marcus announced. Afterward directors of the organization who have been indicted on charges growing out of the alleged bucketing practices, will be arraigned for trial. Six are under indictment, including the vice-president of the exchange, Randolph Rose, Sr., and the secretary, G. W. Pratt. The four other defendants are A. T. Jennings, Martin Gouko, Edwin L. Patton and Raymond Palmer. There are two indictments, one of them under which the exchange yesterday was convicted, which charges the six directors with having "crossed sales by making contracts on the basis of the market quotation without intending to buy any cotton."

The other indictment was returned against Patton and Jennings, accusing them of "permitting and inducing the bucketing of orders in that on October 3, 1921, they made a contract between themselves to purchase 350 bales of cotton at the market quotation without any intention of making a purchase or delivery."

The grand jury indictments were an outgrowth of District Attorney Barton's investigation into bucket shop operations in the financial district. The American cotton exchange was originally known as the American Cotton and Grain Exchange. It was organized by Joseph C. Cooper, a southern promoter, who is said now to have a claim of $300,000 against the exchange.

Why Castoria?

YEARS ago Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup were the remedies in common use for Infants and Children; Castor Oil so nauseating as to be almost impossible and the others all containing Opium in one form or another, but so disguised as to make them pleasant to the taste, yet really to stupify the child and give the appearance of relief from pain.

It required years of research to find a purely vegetable combination that would take the place of these disagreeable, unpleasant and vicious remedies that from habit had become almost universal. This was the inception of, and the reason for, the introduction of Fletcher's Castoria, and for over 30 years it has proven its worth, received the praise of Physicians everywhere and become a household word among mothers.

A remedy ESPECIALLY prepared for Infants and Children and no mother would think of giving to her baby a remedy that she would use for herself, without consulting a physician.

Have You Tried It?

Everybody has read the above headline; how many believe it? Have you a little one in the home, and has that dear little mite when its stomach was not just right felt the comforts that come with the use of Fletcher's Castoria? You have heard the cry of pain. Have you heard them cry for Fletcher's Castoria? Try it.

Just help baby out of its trouble tomorrow with a taste of Castoria. Watch the difference in the tone of the cry, the look in the eye, the wiggle in the tiny fingers. The transformation is complete—from pain to pleasure. Try it.

You'll find a wonderful lot of information about Baby in the booklet that is wrapped around every bottle of Fletcher's Castoria.

Princess Marie and King Alexander to Be Married Tomorrow

BEIGRADE, June 7. (By the Associated Press.)—Princess Marie of Rumania, was making the final preparations today for her marriage tomorrow to King Alexander of Jugoslavia.

Among the most notable presents made to the bride are a tiara and necklace of diamonds and emeralds from King Alexander. These pieces of jewelry are heirlooms from Empress Marie of Russia, grandmother of the present queen of Rumania. King Alexander discovered them for sale and made the purchase.

King Ferdinand and Queen Marie of Rumania, gave as their joint present a magnificent string of pearls, and Queen Marie likewise presented a golden tea service inherited from her mother.

From members of the royal family and the aristocracy of Rumania came rare Rumanian embroideries, sapphires, pendants and amber necklaces.

Mr. N. Morris, American minister to Sweden, presented a silver tea set.

Every country in Central Europe is represented in the list of donors. One province in Jugoslavia presented the bride with 100 horses and there are numerous gifts from Jugoslav peasants of embroideries and pieces of pottery.

N. E. TEL. & TEL. CO. TO ISSUE NEW BONDS

AUGUSTA, Me., June 7.—The New England Telephone and Telegraph Co. today was authorized by the public utilities commission to issue $2,778,751 in bonds.

Chairman Charles E. Guernsey of Portland, dissented from that portion of the decision of the majority of the commission which authorized the issue of bonds, because of his belief that the commission is without jurisdiction in respect to such bonds.

Chairman Guernsey said these bonds are to be executed and delivered outside of the state of Maine by a New York corporation which has no franchise in a corporation granted by the legislature of Maine. The bonds are to be a part of the issue of first mortgage, 30-year five per cent gold bonds of a series of the aggregate principal amount of $35,000,000. They are to be issued and sold at not more than 94 1/2 per cent of the par value and accrued interest.

WOMEN AMBASSADORS A POSSIBILITY IN 10 YEARS

BRADFORD, June 7.—"It is now freely predicted in the national capital that inside of six years our government will be appointing young women of the right kind of training as consuls, vice-consuls and consular secretaries," said John Barrett, former director-general of the Pan-American union in a commencement address at Bradford academy today.

Mr. Barrett further said: "It is also claimed by those of judgment in foreign affairs, that in 10 years we will have women ministers and possibly women ambassadors."

He also suggested the possibility that within eight years yet a fourth of the members of the national house would be women.

BOSAK'S HORKE VINO

Remarkable Discovery Attributed to Bosak's Horke VINO

Daniel Corba Thought Consumptive Now Feeling Fine

Mr. Daniel Corba, Cantalia, O., writes: "It wasn't for your remedy I would not have a husband today. Every day I was getting thinner every day. He could not eat anything, and his feet were always sore. Every day he was coughing and he was full of dust from bricks, for he worked in a brick factory. Every time he would go to do something he had to sit down and take a rest. Doctors' medicines did not help him. I then ordered six bottles of Bosak's Horke VINO. After taking the first two bottles his appetite was better and his feet did not hurt him. He continued taking it and in feeling fine. I would not be without it for one day. I recommend your Bosak's Horke VINO to every family, as the best remedy."

The genuine Bosak's Horke VINO is for sale at Campbell's drug store, 253 Central street, the Berkman Drug Co., 415 Middlesex street, and all good druggists. THE BOSAK MFG. CO., SCRANTON, PA.

TWO FIREMEN INJURED

Dentist Taken Down Ladder When Fire Caused $35,000 Damage to Worcester Block

WORCESTER, June 7.—Two firemen were hurt and Dr. Frederick Brown, a dentist, was taken down a ladder by firemen from the third floor when flames originating from an elevator shaft, did $35,000 damage to the Commercial block on Front street, early this morning. While this fire was in progress, a still alarm was given for a smudge fire in the cellar of a restaurant, and three firemen were overcome by charcoal fumes. One of the firemen injured at the Commercial block fire was treated at City hospital.

Deputy Chief McCarthy, who investigated the fire, says the blaze was caused by rats and matches in a storeroom in the rear of the Hogan jewelry store. The building is owned by S. Z. Poll, theatre owner.

NATION-WIDE MOVEMENT TO BOOM HENRY FORD

DETROIT, June 7. (By the Associated Press.)—Plans for a nationwide movement to bring about the candidacy of Henry Ford for president in 1924, were mapped at a meeting of the Ford Club, held last night at a permanent organization meeting of the Henry Ford For President club.

Similar clubs will be formed in each congressional district of the United States, it was decided, in order to perfect more closely knit organization. This method, it was pointed out, would allow Mr. Ford's strength in each district and ensure him of the proper congressional support should his ticket be returned the winner.

The club decided against adopting a platform, preferring to leave Mr. Ford free to work out his own ideas should he consent to enter the presidential race and to set forth his own principles upon which he would go before the people.

The Rev. Dr. Wm. Dave, pastor of the Dearborn Methodist Episcopal church, was elected president of the club. In addressing the gathering, he declared Mr. Ford was "the best known citizen of the world today" and was well fitted to head the government and make the nation in launching reforms he declared were necessary.

"Every few centuries," Dr. Dave continued, "a man appears on the scene of the world, and such a crisis confronts the world today. Perhaps Mr. Ford has appeared for just such an hour as this. The country needs to start anew under the sort of leadership of which he is capable. He has many critics, but natural leaders often are called fools and fanatics. Christ was similarly criticized."

V. P. COOLIDGE SPEAKS

Delivered Commencement Address at American University Today

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The world needs education in order that there may be a better estimation of true values. Vice President Coolidge declared today in a commencement address at American university. If world problems are to be solved, he added, it will be through greater application, more education and through a more complete reliance upon moral forces.

Question and redemption he declared, are the two great standards by which men measure progress and which are the measure of the dominion of man over himself and nature.

"The old world motive for creation," he continued, "the motive of selfishness of military aggrandizement, of imperialism and of slavery, the motive which finally gained the ascendancy over the one-time devotion to moral principles, which characterized the early rise of Greece and Rome was lost. It was lost because it became a perverted motive. It destroyed itself. A reawakened world rededicated itself to what was sound and true and good. In the old motive, strengthened and purified by Christian ideals, it was the general acceptance of modern life of this new motive which gave it direction and strength and an increasing creative power."

"It was under its inspiration that despotism and slavery have steadily been diminished, and self-government and freedom have steadily been increased. It has been the directing force which has provided the material development of the modern world, established the groundwork of enlightened institutions and given a humanity the moral character which has been the sustaining power of them all. The supremacy of this motive has marked the great world decisions of recent times."

RIDING "BIKES" ON SIDEWALKS

Practice of Riding Bicycles
in Violation of Ordinance
Must Stop

Judge Enright Says Pedestrians Must Be Protected Against Sidewalk Riders

"Every person who is brought in here for violation of the city ordinance by riding bicycles on sidewalks and other places where they are not supposed to will be fined by this court," said Judge Thomas J. Enright this morning after Stanley Maslanka had pleaded guilty to an offense of this kind and had been fined $5.

The women and children of this city must be protected against this danger which menaces life and limb," said the court. "I have sat on my piazza, which overlooks the North common, and seen these young fellows riding their bicycles in restricted areas on the common to endanger the life and limb of women, out-wheeling baby carriages are not safe, when conditions of this kind are allowed to exist. I have seen women narrowly escape being knocked down."

BOYS IN BLOODY BATTLE ON SOUTH COMMON

Youthful Joseph Costa, admitted in district court this morning that he took part in a bloody fight on the South common last night which attracted a crowd of several hundred people. He was charged with disturbing the peace by fighting on the South common and fined $5.

According to Officer John J. Mahan, who arrested Costa, he was present at the fight when several women rushed up to him and told him "murder was being done at the South common." Rushing to the scene Officer Mahan said that he saw a crowd of several hundred people, shouting with glee and cheering two youths who were battling in a small circle. Mahan forced his way through the crowd and grabbed Costa. He also got a grip on the other boy's shirt, but the shirt ripped and the boy escaped through the crowd.

NEW MEMBERS INITIATED

Div. 1, A. O. H., Members
Hold Smoker—County
President Initiates Members

The members of Division 1, A. O. H., and their friends gathered in the A. O. H. hall last night, where a very enjoyable smoker was held. Six new members were initiated into the division by County President Linnehan, and arrangements made for the meeting of the county board, which will be held at the Working Boys' Home in Newton Highlands on Sunday, June 25. It is expected that a large delegation will attend in view of the fact that the superior of the home, Brother Fabian, is a former Lowell boy. Entertainment will be furnished by the local division, and a musical program by Major Daly's band will be carried out.

JURY RETURNS SEALED VERDICT

A sealed verdict in the sum of $1000 was returned this morning by the jury in the case of Edward H. Barlow of Westford vs. Austin B. Fletcher of sum of $5000, at the civil session of the superior court. The plaintiff in this case sought to recover damages for alleged personal injuries, which he claimed he received while riding a bicycle in North Chelmsford, June 6, 1921, when he was struck by a automobile owned by the defendant.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE FOR FUNDS

The Salvation Army drive for home service funds has been somewhat protracted, but up to the present time nearly $5000 has been collected. During the week, several large donations have been received from firms and individuals, and among them are the following: Abbott Worsted Co., $125; Hayes, $125; Abbott Worsted Co., $125; J. C. AFTER SCHOOL CLASSES

Demonstration in High School
Hall by Piano and Violin
Classes

At the demonstration in high school hall yesterday afternoon by the after school piano and violin classes of the public schools, hundreds of parents, teachers and friends were present to applaud the efforts of the children who participated. Perhaps the best received number on the program was that of little Miss Irene Plue of the Bartlett school, who rendered "Home, Sweet Home," in a prettily toned soprano voice, to the accompaniment of a number of her fellow pupils. She received the heaviest applause of the program.

The efforts of the other children were equally praiseworthy, however, and all received unstinted appreciation.

Yesterday's demonstration had been planned for several months, and both teachers and pupils have worked hard for its success. Through the cooperation of the school authorities, the teachers and faculty of the State Normal school and the officers of the community service the pupils have been able to study music in their spare moments. Those who deserve particular commendation are Miss Gertrude F. O'Brien, who has been in charge of the piano classes, and Miss Jessie Hagar, who did the whole work for the violin classes.

The program was preceded by a short talk by Superintendent Moley, who congratulated all who were concerned in the success of the movement for their work. Among those present were Clarence M. Weed of the Normal school and Frederick O. Blunt, director of music in the public schools, whose two assistants, Misses O'Brien and Hagar, were great factors in the program's success.

MATRIMONIAL

A very pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon when Miss Eva F. Harrington and Mr. William Rippelle were united in marriage. At St. Patrick's parochial residence by Rev. Joseph Curtin. The bride was attired in a striking gown of georgette crepe over white satin and carried bridal roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Madelyn M. Casey, wore white georgette with pink and carried pink roses. The groom, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. The bride's gift to the bridesmaid was a beautiful cameo ring, while the groom presented the best man with a pair of gold cuff links. Following the ceremony, the bride and groom repaired to the home of the bride's aunt, 1401 Middlesex street, where a reception and entertainment took place. Guests were present from Boston, Andover, Salem and Dover, N. H. After an extensive tour of New Hampshire and Maine, the couple will be at home to their friends at 17 Fifth street, after Aug. 1.

MUNICIPAL BATH HOUSE OPENS

Doors of Bath House of Merrimack River Thrown Open Today

House Will be Open Daily
Including Sunday, from 11
A. M. to 9 P. M.

The municipal bath house on the Merrimack river opened its doors at 11 o'clock today for the summer season, which will continue well into the fall, or until such a time as the weather loses its summer-like attributes.

Just to try the water and the nature of the sand bottom John V. Kennard, superintendent of parks, took the first "dip" and pronounced it fine.

In opening the bath house today the local park department has stolen a march upon the Metropolitan house around Boston that do not contemplate opening until the 15th of the month. The weather locally has been too hot to warrant it and the forecaster does not promise much relief from the present torrid wave until the last of the week.

The bath house will be adequately manned this year by male and female attendants. James Lishy and Louis Turner will be the guards of duty either on the beach or in the house while two women will look after things on the other side of the building. Patrolman John McMahon has been detailed from the police department for duty at the pool at all times.

The house will be open daily, including Sunday, from 11 a. m. to 9 p. m. As was the case last year a polling booth will be erected at one end of the main building for the convenience of smaller children, who may use it for dressing without charge.

The charge for a suit, towel and locker will remain the same, 25 cents. There will be no time limit set upon the individual use of a suit for the present, at least, but should it be found that some persons are taking advantage of this, strict regulation will be put in effect, definitely limiting the length of time a suit may be rented.

being Rev. Fr. Shea. The bride wore gray canton crepe with hat to match and carried white carnations. She was attended by Miss Mary Corby who was attired in brown canton crepe with picture hat to match and carried pink carnations. The best man was Mr. Daniel Corby. After the ceremony the couple left on a honeymoon trip and after June 19 they will be at home to their friends in this city.

Irish Irregulars Driven Out Of Belleek After Battle With Big British Force

BELFAST, June 8.—(By the Associated Press.)—Belleek was occupied today by British troops which advanced this morning to take the salient from the Irish irregular forces holding it.

The Fort overlooking Belleek was first captured by the British troops and the town was then taken possession of by the military.

An engagement between the Irish irregular forces in the Belleek district and the British troops which advanced this morning in the area began at 1 o'clock this afternoon. At that hour signals were sent up indicating that the British troops were being fired on.

ANOTHER CLUE IN PETERS MURDER

Tends to Substantiate Story That Peters Met Death in Ward's Home

Unsealed and Unstamped Letter Found in Auto Turned Over to Authorities

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 8.—Another clue tending to substantiate the story of James J. Cunningham, race track "detective," that Walter S. Ward shot and killed Clarence Peters, former sailor, at the Ward home in New Rochelle, on the night of May 15, bobbed up today.

The new clue was in the form of a letter, unsealed and unstamped, which Benjamin Kendall, a White Plains garage employee, turned over to the authorities with the explanation that he found it in the coupe of J. Franklin Burke of Scarsdale, left with him Monday night to be washed. The letter addressed to Mrs. Charles Dubois of Atlantic Highlands, N. J., read in part, according to Kendall:

"Fran was there when it happened and left at 10.30. The glass that they found in the driveway was not from Ward's car at all. It came from mine. Wait didn't arrive until 9.30, although Eeryl was waiting."

Ward has maintained that the killing occurred near Kensico reservoir, where Peters' body was found. He also told of a pistol battle there with "Charles Ross" and a man known to him only as "Jack," who, he said, attacked him after he had slain Peters when the latter menaced him with a pistol in an effort to extort blackmail.

Local Justice Declares Short Skirts and Negligence of Parents Assist In Corrupting Morals

Mayor George H. Brown today approved the transfer of Lieut. Alexander Duncan from the position of investigator of claims, in the office of the city solicitor to regular duty in the police department.

Lieut. Duncan has made verbal request upon Superintendent Thomas R. Atkinson for such a transfer and the latter submitted the request in writing to the mayor. The approval is embodied in a letter addressed to the superintendent today.

Just how soon the transfer will become effective is not definitely known, but it is not thought that it will occur until after July 1. The vacancy will be filled on appointment of Solicitor Edward J. Tierney, subject to the mayor's approval.

Mr. Tierney said today that he has not given the matter any great amount of thought, but will make an appointment when the time comes. He expressed a desire to obtain a man who has had some experience in the matter of settling claims, and prefers an insurance adjuster if it is possible to obtain one.

Asked as to whether or not he would appoint Edward Mulry to the position, he replied that Mr. Mulry's name has not been suggested to him.

Although no definite word has come from the head of the police department, it is believed that Lieutenant Duncan will be promoted to a captain and take over the duties of the night desk. Capt. David Petrie, now night captain, presumably will go to the head of the criminal investigation bureau, the place held by Mr. Atkinson at the time of his election to the superintendency.

Effort to Present Measure to Senate Blocked by Sen. Williams

Chairman McCumber to Make Another Attempt to Get Bill to Senate Calendar

WASHINGTON, June 8.—An effort to present the soldiers' bonus bill to the senate today was blocked by Senator Williams, democrat, Mississippi.

Chairman McCumber of the finance committee, gave notice that he would make another effort later in the day to get the measure to the senate calendar.

Chairman McCumber's Report

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The soldiers' bonus bill was formally presented today in the senate by Chairman McCumber of the finance committee, with an accompanying report placing the probable cost of the federal government at $3,845,659,481, spread over a period of 43 years from next Jan. 1. This is approximately $250,000,000 less than the estimate under the House bill, which was $4,098,719,360 payable over 20 years.

The Senate bill estimate was prepared by treasury experts and is based on the theory that 75 per cent of the 4,438,198 veterans who would be

CAVE-IN ON CENTRAL BRIDGE

What is Called "First Failure" of Reconstructed Bridge Occurred Last Night

Piece of Roadway Gives Way Under Weight of Heavy Load

Prof. Moore, Consulting Engineer, Views Bridge But Makes No Comment

What is termed the "first failure" of the reconstructed Central bridge occurred some time last night when a piece of the roadway about two feet square caved in under the weight of some heavy load, presumably a motor truck.

The break is between the two sets of street railway tracks about 150 feet from the downtown end of the bridge. The concrete roadway at that location is five inches in thickness, although in most other parts of the bridge it is six inches. While the hole is not dangerous, it is viewed with no little concern, for it may presage future future breaks.

Professor Louis Moore, consulting engineer, was in Lowell early today and with Engineer Arthur Bartlett viewed the break. He did not wish to make any comment upon it at that time.

City Engineer Stephen Kearney said that to him it meant the first failure of the bridge. He did not care to state what he believed to have been the cause.

"It might be faulty workmanship or a poor mixture in that spot," said the engineer. "I am not prepared to say." Undoubtedly the matter will come up this afternoon before the board of public service at its meeting at 4 o'clock. It is believed that sooner or later the city will be obliged to put a tar coating over the entire roadway such as was laid over the Moody street bridge. This would tend to do away with a great deal of vibration.

HEARING TONIGHT OF VITAL IMPORTANCE

Tonight at city hall there will be a hearing on proposed changes in automobile parking regulations in Central, Merrimack and Prescott streets. The hearing is of vital importance to drivers of cars and merchants as well.

One proposed change would allow parking on the westerly side of Central street, now restricted territory.

For the past several months, in accordance with the no-parking signs placed in the area that extends from Merrimack street to Hurd street, Traffic Supervisor Edward Connors has worked incessantly in an effort to keep both sides of Central street open at all times. Today the aspect of the street shows the result of his most excellent work.

Unfortunately Lowell is not blessed with wide streets and unless narrow streets are carefully restricted as to parking, a danger to the public safety immediately exists. To allow parking on the westerly side of Central street not only would undo all the fine work that has been accomplished, but cars parked there would constitute an absolute menace.

Where would fire apparatus go after turning from Market street into Central if the west side were jammed with parked machines, several electric cars were outward bound and the east side of the street was filled with incoming electric and automobiles moving toward Merrimack square? That is a most probable condition and one that should be instantly appreciated and thoroughly discussed before any such proposed change is sanctioned.

It is to be hoped that someone in authority will request Traffic Supervisor Connors to attend tonight's meeting, as he, more than any other man, is thoroughly conversant with the city's traffic problems downtown.

SAYS HE WILL STAMP OUT VICE

Girls Too Willing to Visit Secluded Places With Strange Men

Judge Enright Says Defendants in Immoral Cases Will Get Maximum Sentence

Declaring that short skirts, negligence of parents and the willingness of young girls to visit dark and secluded spots with young men they had never seen before was in a great measure responsible for many of the cases dealing with morals brought before his court, Judge Thomas J. Enright today told The Sun that he was going to stamp out vice in his district or know the reason why.

"I am going to give these offenders the limit," said the judge. "There are all together too many of these kind of cases coming before my court. Something has got to be done to save the youth of this generation."

"There is a great deal of blame placed on the men in the case. It seems that he is always declared at fault. Of course he is generally the one who becomes the aggressor, but then, too, our young girls, by their actions and dress, have a great deal to be blamed for. I honestly think that half of these cases are the result of the short skirts being worn by the girls nowadays. They expose themselves indecently and, in a measure, lead on young men."

"Then, too, parents are not as strict as they should be. A great many of them do not know where their children are half of the time or how they seek their pleasure. If parents would insist that their daughters dress more modestly and, in a measure, lead on young men."

MILTON OFFICER SLAIN BY AUTO THIEVES

MILTON, June 8.—The killing of Patrolman Emory Farrington, apparently by automobile thieves, early today, became known with the finding of his body near the Green street entrance to the Blue Hill Reservation. He had been shot, probably some distance away, and the body dragged to a place beside the road. An abandoned automobile found in the vicinity was thought to be connected with the crime.

The automobile was later found to belong to Morris Rosenberg of Lawrence, and it was learned that it was stolen about 7.30 o'clock last night from the corner of Huntington and Massachusetts avenues, Boston.

The police said the abandoned automobile had been driven off the road into the Blue Hill reservation and that while the thieves were stripping it of its valuable parts, Farrington approached to learn what was going on. It is believed he was shot from behind by a guard left to protect the thieves. The murderers got away in another car.

GRADUATION EXERCISES AT TEXTILE SCHOOL

Commencement exercises, a report of which was given in The Sun yesterday, including names of graduates, theses, awards, etc., were held at the Lowell Textile school yesterday afternoon, with Payson Smith, LL.D., state commissioner of education, as orator of the day. Dr. Smith spoke on the general purpose of education and its worth to the individual and the nation. The exercises marked the 15th anniversary of the school. The exercises did not start until 2:30 o'clock and as the addresses by President James and Payson Smith, LL.D., commissioner of education, were not included in yesterday's report and are given here, in part.

The program began with an orchestral selection, after which President Charles H. James, before introducing the principal speaker, spoke at some length on the history of the school and the men to whom all credit for its success is due.

He stated that the school was opened on Jan. 21, 1897, in the Parker block in Middle street by Governor Roger Wolcott. It then traced the growth of the school, with buildings and land constantly added to the new location on Moody street, up to the present time when the class of '22, with 24 degree men and 18 others receiving diplomas in cotton and wool manufacture, was about to be graduated. This was the largest class in the history of the school.

Next came a special tribute to James T. Smith, a former member of trustees, now 85 years of age, who was unable to be present at the exercises. Mr. Smith, said President James, commenced working out the problem of building the present Textile school at the age of 60. When his history is written, it will be the history of the Lowell Textile school, said Mr. James.

Next of the old trustees to receive tribute was the late A. G. Cummock, who from the inception of the school until his death was connected with the board. Mr. James said that he was another example of an old man who is always young. Among those in the public eye, who were also mentioned by the president as having been interested in the school's progress were Hon. Robert E. Luce, Senator David I. Walsh and Vice President Calvin Coolidge. He read an extract from the close president's report of 1921, which stated that he was unable to be present and conveying a message of congratulation and best wishes to the graduates.

Commending the staff of instructors at the school, the president mentioned the fact that Professor A. Olney was celebrating his 15th anniversary with the school. The alumni also include many men of prominence and seven of them are at present among the 15 members of the board of trustees.

Commissioner of Education

President James then introduced the principal speaker, Payson Smith, LL.D., commissioner of education.

After expressing his appreciation of the invitation to address the students, he was about to leave the hall of learning for the broad field of practical occupation, congratulating them upon their successful completion of their various courses. Dr. Smith began to speak upon the broad general values of education, applied in the right direction. He spoke of the general misapprehension in regard to industries, telling of a Lowell boy who said the principal industry of this city was the manufacture of textiles and the corresponding answer of a Lynn boy to the same question, the latter saying boots and shoes. Dr. Smith felt it was his duty to set right all who considered these industries greatest. In his mind, the principal industry of our state is not the manufacture of either boots and shoes, or even agriculture, but education as represented by the Textile school. That he said, is the industry in which the people of Massachusetts have had the quality of faith which has led them to make enormous investments. He said that growth or development is the primary aim of education, that we may do all we can to assist the boy and girl to grow to their own stature. He took issue with Mr. Edison in the latter's contention that men with means of information were necessary. Although this possession is a valuable one, Dr. Smith thought what we needed much more were men and women of integrity, who will exemplify in their own lives those things in

DEBILITY FROM SHOCK

A nervous breakdown may be caused by grief shock to the system. In the case of Mrs. Mary E. Church of No. 41, Brownell street, Providence, R. I., both of these causes contributed. Before she had recovered from the shock of a sudden death in the family, she destroyed her home and she suffered for several weeks from nervous debility as a result of the strain.

"I was nervous all the time," she says, "and my stomach was weak. I would have gas attacks that would scare me, they would take my breath away. My heart would fairly jump. I had crying spells and I rarely got a good night's sleep. My appetite was poor and my strength left me."

"Nothing helped me until I read Dr. Williams' Pink Pills which I read about in a newspaper. First I noticed that I was not so nervous, then my appetite came back. As I continued to take the pills my strength returned and I was able to do my work again. I have great faith in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and can truthfully say that they have been wonderful in building up my health."

unity, which we must have in the mass. Good citizens, said the speaker, was the only way in which he knew of getting better citizenship, and insisted that we "will not get the right type of citizenship except by the proper education of every individual unit. He expressed a wish to say this to each of the young men about to graduate, and make them realize that it is still possible for a man to stand up and say 'I will be mounted as a citizen, I need be on the side which I believe to be the right side.'"

Another aspect of education seemed very important, according to the speaker. That is the education result which aims to carry over into each generation all that we have been able to get out of the experience and the study of generations that have gone before. That is the education found in such a technical school as the Lowell Textile.

Although this technical education is somewhat recent, said the speaker, its importance cannot be over-emphasized, for the good of the commonwealth. He spoke of the poverty of this state regarding precious ore, gold and other metals, vast tracts of timber or other valuable assets. But for years the pulley of Massachusetts has been to invest in what it considers most valuable of all possessions; the human resources, developed in its boys and girls. The industries of its state can go on vigorously only through a program for the development of education. When he pleads for money for schools, Dr. Smith said he was pleading for a continuance of the state policy, which is the investment of our dollars where they will do the greatest good in men and women.

In losing the commissioner said that if he were Briggs, the cartoonist, he would like to make a cartoon of what the boy of 18 thinks about when his father says, "My boy, when I was young." He expressed confidence that the day was better than any that has gone before, and the day that is brightening in the east is going to be a better one than that. He also believes that "the young people of today are just as fine and clean and noble as any young men and women have been; all that they need is the opportunity, and that is what we are trying to give them; a final word. "You are charged today with a high responsibility for service. We wish for your success and Godspeed in every worthy endeavor."

After the presentation of awards, the diplomas and degrees were given the graduates by President James. At this time the president seized upon the opportunity to speak to Francis Purnell, a student from the Philippines, on the future relations between this nation and his own people, believing that he, the sole representative of the islands in the 1922 class, would realize his obligation to both countries and faithfully represent the spirit of America.

STRIKERS POLICING OWN LINES IN MANCHESTER

MANCHESTER, N. H., June 8.—A crowd of 1000 people gathered about the Coolidge mill last night was thrown into the wildest excitement when Lydia Pelkow, 36, of 17 Bath st., was arrested for striking a woman and a worker who had just left the mill and then showering her with the contents of a box of snuff.

Street Fall to the Floor

The arrest of the Pelkow woman, the only detention by the police for the day in connection with the strike, came at a dramatic moment. Two young women, garbed in black, had just left the main gate of the mill at closing time and were proceeding towards the centre of the French section while the great crowd roared and yelled.

Just then the woman dressed in black and the woman who had just left the mill and then showering her with the contents of a box of snuff.

In a moment she was surrounded by police and was hurriedly placed in a passing automobile, in which she was conveyed to the police station and locked on the charge of assault on a citizen.

Crowds About the Mill

The crowd last night about the mill was by far the largest that has yet gathered there. It was made up of people of all races and ages, gaily dressed.

UMPIRE MAHONEY ATTACKED BY FANS

THREE RIVERS, Que., June 8.—Umpire Mahoney of the Eastern Canada Baseball league was reported in a critical condition today as the result of a beating said to have been administered yesterday by a crowd of fans. The fans engaged at one of Mahoney's decisions, left the ball park, awaited him at his hotel and assaulted him.

Episcopal church at 3:30 o'clock, following a private service at the home, Rev. Dr. Edward S. Travers, rector of the church, will officiate at both services.

A detachment of United States marines has stood guard at the death room in the Moore home since their arrival from Washington under orders from Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt. They are watching over a dead comrade, for such she was.

Police Own Lines

Yesterday, following the riotous scenes of Tuesday night, the board of strategy of the strikers, the four members of which were freed in $1000 bail each after having been placed under arrest as they entered the police station Tuesday evening, determined to cooperate with the police in every manner possible. They were granted permission to po-

SURE RELIEF FOR INDIGESTION

By official warrant during the world war, when she held the rating of gunnery sergeant. They will be the bodyguard on the march to the church and thence to the cemetery. There the survivors of the 10th Field Artillery will escort the cortege from the gates to the vault where Mrs. Moore's body will find a resting place. A mausoleum can be erected. A firing squad from the American Legion whose ranks the distinguished woman graced by her membership will render the farewell salute.

Although a request that no floral tributes be sent to the home had been made, hundreds of wreaths from personal friends of life, were received. One of these was from the White House. It was placed on the foot of the couch on which Mrs. Moore's body lies.

RECKLESS AUTO DRIVERS

Campaign for Greater Safety
on Highways — Lowell
Operators Lose Licenses

(Special to The Sun)

BOSTON, June 8.—Following up his campaign to put an end to the record previous months of June have made of being the most dangerous in the year on the highways, Frank A. Goodwin, registrar of motor vehicles, today addressed a letter to each police chief in the commonwealth, seeking their co-operation in eliminating reckless automobile operators.

"Only a small proportion of motorists are reckless," he writes. "But if they are made to know that they will be taken from the road if they operate in a manner dangerous to the public, we will soon have safe highways. Operating at a reckless speed, cutting in in heavy traffic, and passing interfering streets without slowing down, are the principal causes of bad accidents. Operators of this type should be taken from the road, and I shall be pleased to accept any recommendation from you."

"A short suspension of a license works wonders. If, for local reasons, you do not want the responsibility, get in touch with one of our inspectors. If you have any suggestions to make, I shall be pleased to accept them."

With the pleasant weather and the resulting increase in motor vehicle traffic, there has come increasing activity in Mr. Goodwin's office with respect to revocation and suspension of licenses. In his latest list are included the names of the following residents of Lowell and vicinity:

Herbert N. Klanters, 407 Princeton street, Lowell, operator's license and motorcycle registration certificate revoked; convicted in Lowell court May 25 on charge of operating while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, and paid a fine of $50.

William B. Wright, 110 Belmont street, Lowell, chauffeur's license suspended for twenty days; operated in an improper manner in Lowell, April 25.

Hurry Eliacopoulos, 450 Market street, Lowell, chauffeur's license and automobile registration certificate revoked; convicted in Lowell court May 15 on charge of operating while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, and was fined $75.

Carl Finberg, 164 Howard street, Lowell, operator's license suspended; operated in an improper manner in Lawrence May 1.

John H. Finnesan, 500 Goshorn street, Lowell, chauffeur's license revoked; convicted in Lawrence court May 3 on charge of operating while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, and paid a fine of $25.

Allan D. Lalime, 79 Andrew street, Lowell, operator's license suspended for 15 days; operated in an improper manner in Littleton May 14.

Alex Kojins, 7 Little street, Lowell, truck registration certificate revoked; the machine is improperly equipped as to number plates.

Manuel C. Picasso, 214 West London street, Lowell, operator's license revoked; convicted in court at Nashua, N. H., May 1 on charge of operating while under the influence of liquor, and was fined $20.

Michael Paterno, 95 Adams street, Lowell, unlicensed, right to operate suspended; convicted in New Bedford court May 1 on charge of operating while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, and was fined $10; he appealed.

Joseph O. Drapcau, 36 Fourth street, Lowell, operator's license revoked; convicted in Lowell court May 16 on charge of operating while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, and was fined $100.

Napoleon Cabana, 31 Smith st., Lowell, operator's license suspended; convicted in court at Nashua, N. H., May 8, on charge of operating while under the influence of liquor, and was fined $100 and sentenced to sixty days' imprisonment (suspended).

Anastase Beaudry, 240 Alkon ave., Lowell, chauffeur's license suspended; convicted in court at Nashua, N. H.,

Long Shots and Short Remarks by President

CHICAGO, June 8.—(By the Associated Press) Long shots and short remarks are the characteristics of President Harding on the golf course, according to a report brought from Florida by Charles A. White, who watched the president play while returning from a tour of the golf links in the Panama Canal zone.

Near the end of the round, during which the president had put some long but erratic shots in places that were not intended for perfect shots, Mr. Harding hit a fine long drive straight down the course. The rest of the four some voices their commendation of the shot in chorus. The president without a smile and with resigned accent said: "A blind boy will find an acorn once in a while."

WANT CITY TO BUY
FIRST STREET LAND

Residents of the Centralville section of the city have circulated a petition asking the city government and park commission to interest themselves in a proposal to purchase the first street buildings on the southerly side of First street for an extension of Varnum park from Bridge street to the McKenna garage.

At the present time bids are being called for to have the buildings on that side of the street moved back to allow for the necessary widening in connection with the new boulevard, but the residents of the neighborhood feel that now is the proper time to agitate a parkway there and say that it would not cost any more to take the buildings outright and to raise them than it will to move them back.

GIRL DROWNS AFTER RESCUING COMPANION

WATERVILLE, Me., June 8.—Rachel Lowe, 15-year-old junior at Lawrence high school in Fairfield, drowned yesterday afternoon in the rescue of her companion, Arto McKinnon, a schoolmate, as the two were swimming in the Kennebec river at Fairfield. Another girl, warned them of the strong current, and seeing their determination to swim, went to get a boat, telling them to wait until she returned. Miss McKinnon, a weak swimmer, did not wait. She got into the full current, which overpowered her. Miss Lowe came to her aid and helped her to the boat. While Miss McKinnon was getting into it, Miss Lowe was swept away and sank some 12 feet from the craft. The two girls had played "hooky" from school.

CHELSEA CREEK FIGHT

More Important Than Bunker Hill or Lexington and Concord, Says Judge Cutler

REVERE, June 8.—Judge Samuel R. Cutler of the Chelsea district court, speaking at the banquet of Co. D, 15th Regiment, M.N.G., at city hall, last evening, asserted that the Battle of Chelsea Creek was of more importance, because of its consequences, than either the Battle of Bunker Hill or the Battles of Lexington and Concord.

"It was the Battle of Chelsea Creek that destroyed the sea-coast base of supplies for the British army besieging Boston, and it was their failure to secure food that caused them to evacuate Boston and sail away to Halifax the following year on March 17, 1776," asserted the judge.

Judge Cutler, who is a close student of history and who says he has read everything that has ever been written relative to the Battle of Chelsea Creek, asserted that the importance of this engagement, which he terms the first defeat of the British naval forces in Revolutionary war, has been lost sight of because it occurred on May 27, 1776, and was sandwiched in between the more spectacular battles of Lexington and Concord and Bunker Hill.

Judge Cutler recalled the incidents of the Battle of Chelsea Creek as follows: "The British livestock and supplies for their army were on Noddle Island and Hog Island. These supplies were ferried across to the mainland. The only other source of supply was through Roxbury Neck, which was watched by the Continental Troops. The Colonials attacked the depots on Noddle and Hog Islands, burned barns and drove off cattle and sheep. Admiral Graves was sent with a schooner and a sloop and several smaller ships and drove off the raiders. Later Gen. Stark, then Colonel Star and Gen. Putnam, with 800 troops from Cambridge, marched through what is now Revere and, with some small cannon, bombarded the ships in Chelsea Creek. The schooner captured several of the guns.

"The Continental Troops then fortified the hill where the U. S. Naval hospital now stands and the other hills in Chelsea and Revere and kept possession of Hog Island and Noddle Island, making the section useless as a base of supplies; it was this that caused the British to ultimately abandon the siege of Boston, because they were without food.

"The great importance of this battle is lost sight of by historians in general, because it was only a skirmish compared with Bunker Hill, and because of its chronological position, but in my opinion it was a most important engagement because of its results."

DOUBLE SET ON LARGEST LINER

The new steamship Majestic, world's largest liner, has one of the most modern radio rooms in existence. The equipment includes a double outfit for radiophone and telegraph transmission. Radio Operator Tampion is shown above sending a code message. At his left is the "QW" panel for radio-telephony. At his right, the "quenched spark set" for radio-telephony.

Schooner Olympic With Crew of Five Lost

BEAUMONT, Tex., June 8.—The schooner Olympic and its crew of five men have been lost in the Gulf, according to word received here. The ship left Santo Domingo for Beaumont nine days ago. Captain Rodeletta was in charge.

Swarms of Locusts Close Aurora Schools

AURORA, Ill., June 8.—Aurora schools were dismissed when swarms of locusts descended on the city yesterday. The locusts made so much noise that students would not study.

Eight U. S. Sailors Believed Drowned

VLADIVOSTOK, June 8.—(By the Associated Press)—Eight enlisted men from the United States gunboat New Orleans, are believed to have been drowned in a sailing mishap at Amurday, Siberia. There has been no trace of the men since Sunday. Those missing are: Copper-smith Allen, Carpenter's Mate William Golf, Coxswain Harry Swanson, Boatwain's Mate Ferdinand Scheschi, Gunner's Mate Frank Silva, Seamen Leon Nodd, Robert Free and ——— Drown.

LET YOUR OAR BE AERIAL 'MAST'

When you go boating, take your radio along. Let your aerial extend down to the set from one end of the boat, set up as the mast. For ground, drop the ground wire over the boat so it will trail along in the water. The picture shows how easily this can be done.

RADIO PRIMER

Autodyne—The "best" method of radio receiving, formed by the difference in frequency of the incoming undamped wave and the oscillations of the receiving circuit. The difference causes a regular succession of "beats," in the reception of CW waves, by which signals are strengthened and static subdued somewhat.

WILL BROADCAST WEDDING

OAKLAND, Calif., June 8.—Miss Vivian Kidd and Leland H. Hodgson will broadcast their wedding ceremony next Saturday night. The wedding march and every detail of the event will be recorded for the radio-phones and no strangers will be barred.

FARMERS LISTENED IN

President K. L. Butterfield of Massachusetts Agricultural College Uses Radiophone

AMHERST, June 8.—President K. L. Butterfield of M.A.C. discussed "The Farmers' Opportunity" by radiophone from Springfield Tuesday night, and the farmers who listened in heard him explain the three reasons why the American farmer faces the greatest opportunity of his career with the return of normal business conditions.

"The reasons for this great opportunity," President Butterfield said, "are first, the proportion between the farmers and consumers is constantly growing less. Second, the United States has an agricultural education system unequalled in the world. Third, sound farmers' organizations are making constructive progress in solving vital economic problems of the farmer."

"The great need has been said and written during the past 10 or 15 years about the depletion of rural population, the return to the farm, etc. As a matter of fact, this increase of urban population is a perfectly normal process. The American farmers are increasingly more competent to produce a certain number of units of product per farm worker, and consequently a smaller percentage of the American people need to farm in order to supply the city consumers. In the future, things, which were formerly toward a better market for the farmer's product. That is the first element in the farmers' opportunity, and it is in the main favorable to the farmers."

"The second element in the farmers' opportunity in the United States is the far more advanced educational system. There is nothing like it in the world. With an experiment station in every state in the Union, the American farmer has at his disposal literally thousands of trained experts. During the past generation great advances in farm practice have been made as a result of this investigational work. But far greater results will come in the next generation. No country has been so generous in this respect as America."

"The system of agricultural colleges one by one, is unequalled outside of the United States. Regular courses of college grade and shorter courses of a few years or of even a few months or weeks are taken by tens of thousands of students every year. This system of secondary schools of agriculture, more recently developed for the purpose of teaching agriculture to boys of high school age, gives opportunity to other tens of thousands. Even in European countries that have well organized and prosperous agriculture, not very many college graduates go into farming; and in America hundreds of these graduates of full four-year courses in agriculture go to farming, to say nothing of those who take shorter courses and the high school work."

"The third factor in the American farmers' opportunity is organization. No one in his senses in these days decries organization. It is the order of the day. It is the way things are done."

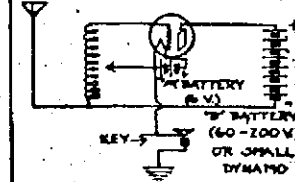

"Now, the farmers have had their organizations for 50 years, as is evidenced by the continued prosperity and prestige of the grange. But with the advent of the Farm Bureau federation, two years ago, there came into being what for the farmer is at least a perhaps the strongest organization the farmers have had. It has been well led, abundantly financed, and thus far has had the support of the farmers. Again, the idea of collective buying and particularly of collective selling among farmers, had rather a slow growth in the United States. But recently, and particularly since the war, it has come forward with tremendous strides, so that today there are thousands of these agricultural co-operative societies, and it will not be long before a very large proportion of the marketing of farm products of various kinds will be done co-operatively. The farmer has his problems and he will always have them. Farming is not an easy job, but it has a strong call for men who like the open, who like to be reasonably independent, and for such men one can fairly say that they have a better opportunity in agriculture than at any other time in our history."

STAGE FRIGHT COMES IN RADIO BROADCASTING

By PAUL F. GODLEY
America's Foremost Radio Authority
The biggest surprise that awaits the performer before the radiophone is stage fright. Even the most experienced stage artists have fallen victims to this affliction. And yet, the most fascinating thing in connection with radio—and I have run the gamut of them all—is the opportunity to address thousands of unseen listeners.

Next to this comes the fascination of using the Morse code and operating your own telegraph transmitter. Just think of being able to reach out through the air and getting in touch with innumerable friends throughout the country, continent and even across the ocean!

Radio Wonders
Do you know that if you are the owner of a vacuum tube receiver you have right in your hands the necessary equipment to enable you to do just this? Do you know that one of the small vacuum tubes which is used in connection with your receiver will enable you to throw into the air enough energy to cover distances of several hundreds of miles under favorable circumstances?

SIMPLE TRANSMITTER CIRCUIT

An amateur in Babylon, B. I., using but four of these little vacuum lamps was able to get his tiny signals to me as I listened on the coast of Scotland last December.

During the war the operators, on board nearly all the naval vessels used their vacuum tube receivers as transmitters for carrying on personal conversations with vessels of the fleet within a range of a few miles. This became so common that orders had

Radio Broadcasts

Below is given this afternoon and evening radio broadcasts from KDKA, Pittsburgh; WJZ, Newark; K.T.V., Chicago; WGT, Schenectady; N.Y. WZZ, Springfield, Mass. and WOL, Medford Hills.

STATION KDKA, PITTSBURGH
7 p. m.—Talk on "Swimming," "Lawlessness and Crime—Suggested Remedies."
7:30 p. m.—Pittsburgh Ladies' quartet in vocal selections.
8:15 p. m.—Arlington time signals.
Time—Eastern standard.

STATION WOL, MEDFORD HILLS
7:30 p. m.—The Parent-Teacher Movement in Massachusetts, by Mrs. Edward C. Mason, President Massachusetts Parent-Teachers' association.

7:45 p. m.—Address by Philip V. Ward of the Springfield board of health; address by Prof. John Phelan of the State Normal school.
Finally to be issued by the powers that be is stopped. It frequently interfered with other duties.

Simple Sending Set
The attached diagram is a "hookup" of a simple radio set for transmitting messages by telegraph. When adjusted so as to produce oscillations in the circuit this arrangement will deliver to the antenna sufficient energy to cover a distance of 20 to 100 miles. It should be borne in mind that one must know the code well enough to be able to send and receive at least 12 words a minute before he will be allowed to operate a transmitting station.

This is the speed which must be passed before the department of commerce will issue the qualifications for a station. Station calls will then be assigned, and the successful amateur will be at liberty to play the great radio games as some 25,000 others are playing it all over the country.

Department of Rural Sociology, Massachusetts Agricultural college.
8 p. m.—Baseball results; program of dance selections by the following artists: C. Graveling, piano; P. Higgins, saxophone and clarinet; L. Kanny, traps, and L. Stannard, violin.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

THE STRAND
Two motion pictures of worth, Viola Dana in "Glass Houses," and William Farnum in "The Lady from Longacre," will make a strong and lasting impression on picture patrons at The Strand during the week-end. The Viola Dana screen story has interesting characterizations and an amusing story of a young bride who suffers from the misbeliefs of her husband, who believes her a crook. It's a great story and best told on the screen. William Russell again reflects his exceptional powers as a film star in "The Lady from Longacre," a strong, melodramatic creation in which he plays with remarkable skill the role of Sir Anthony, the English nobleman, who likes to be called Tony. He's a fighter and indicates his aggressiveness on several occasions. The comedy and weekly will add materially to the value of the program.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
Bebe Daniels in "A Game Chicken," and Mabel Normand in Mack Sennett's latest comedy, "Oh, Mabel, Behave!" are the feature attractions of the current program at the Merrimack Square theatre. Coming Monday, "Across the Continent," starring Wallace Reid.

21 AMERICANS TO BE PRESENTED AT COURT

LONDON, June 8.—(By Associated Press)—Twenty-one American women and girls will be presented to King George and Queen Mary by Mrs. George Harvey, wife of the American ambassador, this evening at the first of three court functions to be held this season at Buckingham palace. The event will be distinguished by the return of all the pre-war pomp associated with such occasions. There will be nearly 150 diplomatic and official presentations in addition to a part of the season's debutantes, who thus will enter society formally. From the palace has gone forth the edict for the return to trains and feathers, which were discarded after the war in conformity with the court economy ruling. How the three feathers now required are to be fastened in the collars is causing concern to many of the younger women who followed dunn fashion's edict a year or so ago and bobbed their tresses.

The Bond street hairdressers have come to the rescue of those who had little to which the feathers might be attached by contriving bandeaux which will hold the decorations securely.

Dancing instructors recently have been busy coaching those who are to be presented in the curtises, they are to make.

The diplomatic corps customarily is bidden to the first court each season, so that this evening's function will see a splendid array of court dress and elegant gowns in the brilliant palace ball room where the monarchs will receive.

The Americans to be presented include Mrs. Gould, Mrs. Hussey, Mrs. Tower, Mrs. Hammer and Mrs. Cobb, wives of attaches of the American embassy, and Miss Beal, daughter of Boylston Beal, special attache. They will be introduced in the "diplomatic category," among which are listed the following "distinguished visitors": Mrs. John D. Prince, wife of the American minister to Denmark; Mrs. Albert Parker, Niebock, wife of the former American naval attache in London; Mrs. Charles H. Sherill, wife of the ex-minister to Argentina, and Mrs. Frederick P. A. Pearson, wife of the former second secretary of embassy in London.

The following will be presented in the "General Circle": Mrs. Junius S. Morgan, Mrs. James S. Larkin, Mrs. John E. Thurston, Mrs. Thaddeus A. Thompson, Mrs. Edson Bradley and Misses Marjorie Glasgow, Sophie L. Mott, Adelle C. Chapin, Violet Henry, Louise Thompson and Fannie Coleman.

SAYS WELDONA STOPPED PAIN OF RHEUMATISM

Knee Joints Were Sore and Stiff

Among the hundreds who have recommended Weldon's none is more enthusiastic over their recovery than Mrs. E. Gerard, who resides at 101 Elm st., Charlestown, Mass. Mrs. Gerard said:

"I suffered from rheumatism of the knee joints so that it was impossible for me to go up or down stairs in the usual way. I would have to go up sideways. The stiffness of my knees was very marked when I would sit for any time and attempt to get up. The pain would often shoot from my hip to my knees and I would have to be very careful because the pain would catch me like a knife stab. I had tried many remedies for rheumatism, but nothing seemed to help me until I secured Weldon's. After taking Weldon's the pain and stiffness gradually left me and now I can go up or downstairs without any trouble whatever. I am only too glad to recommend Weldon's to others who may suffer as I did."

Weldon's is a scientific preparation for rheumatic conditions and is full of results. One trial proves it. Send to Weldon's Co., 132 Boylston st., Boston, Mass., for free book, "Germs of Rheumatism." Get Weldon's from A. W. Dows and all reliable druggists—Adv.

Says He Will Stamp Out Vice

setly and use a little more common sense in the company they keep there would be less of these scandalous cases coming into court.
"Take the case of young girls who accept the invitation of men to go to lonely and secluded parts of the city. These girls may not have a wrong thought in the world but they are putting themselves in danger by their very acts. If young girls would flatly and emphatically refuse invitations of this sort, we would have less trouble here."
"I have been making an effort in the past to stamp out these cases, and correct the morals of certain of our youth. I am going to punish these offenders to the limit of my powers from this time out. They need not expect any leniency in any court in the future. This thing has reached a point where something drastic must be done."

In connection with these cases it might be said that local officers, connected with the vice squad, are working in co-operation with police of surrounding towns to stamp out vice. Officer Cooney and other members have been on duty at several of the summer resorts which have dance halls, and have been making much headway in cleaning up this evil. The officers report that they have come across cases in several instances of late which have been brought into court and that there are a number of suspicious people under observation at the present time. Some of these people, both girls and men, are suspected of violating moral laws and the officers are just waiting their opportunity to bring them into court. They have been assured by Judge Enright that severe sentences will be meted out.

Four young people were brought before the court this morning, two of them charged with immoral offenses. A third was charged with assault and battery upon a young girl, and another was the result of a party given in a lonely spot near Mountain Brook. The two couples were picked up by Officers Cooney and Cooney of the local police, who worked in conjunction with an officer from the Tyngsboro force. Leo F. Allen was charged with carnal abuse of a female child, while Hector Vivier, another member of the party, was charged with assault and battery. Allen was held in $500 until June 15, and Vivier, who pleaded guilty to the charge, had his case continued to tomorrow for investigation. He was also held in $500.

MISS CATHERINE HUGHES

(By N.E.A. Service)

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The first official wedding of the Harding administration will take place in the Bethlehem chapel of Washington cathedral on the afternoon of June 10, when Miss Catherine Hughes, daughter of Secretary of State and Mrs. Charles Evans Hughes, will become the bride of Chauncey Lockhart Wadell of New York.

The ceremony, which will be performed in the presence of President and Mrs. Harding and high officials of the diplomatic corps, will be followed by a reception at the Pan-American building, where Washington society

CELEBRATE RETURN BY MAKING LIQUOR RAID

Federal Prohibition Enforcement Agents Harry Sheldon and J. Walter Bowers have returned to this city after an absence of several weeks, doing duty in other sections of the district, and will be stationed here for some time.

The officers celebrated their return here last night by raiding two unoccupied tenements in Worthen street and seizing a 50-gallon still, 11 mash barrels, six of which were full, five gallons of wine and much moonshine-making apparatus, including two gas stoves, a condenser and a number of jugs and bottles.

The find was made in two second and third stories. The second story contained the apparatus, while the mash was located in the third story tenement. It is the belief that the plant has been in operation for about two months as the officers were tipped off as to its location some time ago, but until last night were unable to locate it. The warmth of the mash indicated that the still had been in operation only recently.

No arrest has been made in connection with the case as yet, but one is expected to take place within a few days, as the owner of the place is known by the police. In addition to Sheldon and Bowers, Sergt. Winn and Officer Moore of the liquor squad and William Murphy, who patrols the beat, made up the raiding party.

AFTER PHILIPPINE INDEPENDENCE

Senator Pedro Guevarra of the upper house of the Philippine island congress is acting chairman of the mission now in this country to ask President Harding and the congress of the United States for immediate and complete Philippine independence.

"We are grateful," says Senator Guevarra, "for what this country has done for us, and we come as friends, and in perfect good will, to remind you that when the organic act of the

Philippines was passed, almost unanimously six years ago, we were promised independence as soon as we had demonstrated our ability to maintain a stable government.

"We think we have done so, and we are here to ask that this pledge be fulfilled."

The mission includes six Philippine senators and nine representatives, among them President Quezon of the senate and Speaker Osmena of the house, and the secretary of the interior, and an advisory group consisting of three members of the Philippine university faculty, an ex-mayor of Manila, the insular collector of internal revenue, the director of public lands and several officials of the Philippine National bank.

Easy For Thin People to Put On Flesh and Gain Weight

In one month's time EVANS' TRIPLE PHOSPHATES puts on several pounds of solid red blooded flesh and changes your weak, run-down, nervous tired body into a strong, vigorous, robust one or money back.

Of course medical men are surprised and many are still unbelievers, but the fact is evident to every up-to-date pharmacist that Evans' Triple Phosphates will produce flesh without violent methods, face creams, daily massage or beauty torture.

In order to assimilate the nourishing food thin people daily take into the body, and turn it into healthy, red blood corpuscles, the nerves that control the process of digestion and assimilation must be put in first-class shape, and until that is done you might just as well quit trying to put on flesh that will turn the food you eat into healthy, stay-there flesh, and it can only be done in one way—by securing faulty, nervous digestion. One month's treatment is guaranteed to increase your weight at least several pounds, and in ten days make you feel like a new being, full of ambition, vigor and a desire to accomplish things." Fred Howard and all good druggists have agreed to supply Evans' Triple Phosphates and guarantee it to do just what is claimed for it, or money refunded.

Even though Evans' Triple Phosphates works wonders in all cases of nervous digestion and blood troubles, don't take it unless you really desire to put on flesh and gain weight.—Adv.

Delays Soldiers' Bonus Bill

eligible for compensation, would elect the adjusted service certificate option; 23 1/2 per cent farm, home and land settlement aid, and 3 1/2 per cent vocational training aid. Should all of the veterans select the certificate plan the total cost would be $4,486,545,978.

Financing the Legislation

With reference to financing the legislation, Chairman McCumber's report said it was hoped that the reduction in governmental expenditures plus the payment of interest on the refunded foreign obligations would be sufficient to obviate the imposition of additional taxation.

"If it does become necessary to impose additional taxes," the report continued, "it is believed we can better determine such burdens for the future at a later date when the future condition of the treasury will be more accurately established."

As to the refunded foreign obligations the hope was expressed that these soon would be obtained and "that it will be possible for the foreign governments to provide for the immediate payment of interest thereon, so that such interest can be used toward defraying the expenses authorized under this act."

To Reduce Cash Payments

Senator McCumber explained that an attempt had been made to reduce to a minimum actual cash payments under the bill during the next three years while the treasury is engaged in refunding the nearly seven billions of dollars of maturing government obligations. The estimated cost of the bonus for those three years was $242,000,000.

After its presentation to the senate, the bonus bill went to the calendar, where it will remain until there is an agreement to call it up. Senator McCumber and some other proponents desire early action but several republican leaders are opposed to side-tracking the tariff bill as they expect the fight over the bonus to consume at least a month and perhaps six weeks.

Five Plans to Select From

The most important change from the original senate measure is the elimination of the cash bonus and reclamation features. As now drafted the legislation would give each veteran the right to select any one of the following plans:

Adjusted service pay, but only if his adjusted service credit did not exceed $50.

Adjusted service certificate with bank and government loan provisions.

Vocational training aid.

Farm and home aid.

Land settlement aid.

The estimated cost for each of these plans is $16,000,000 for the cash payment; $3,864,809.81 for the adjusted service certificate; $412,425,000 for farm, home and land settlement aid, and $52,326,000 for vocational training. The expenses under vocational training, and the cash bonus would end in 1925. Under this estimate, and those for farm, home and land settlement aid in 1929. Expenses under the certificate plan would continue to 1928, with a total of $655,991,670 to 1943, when the certificates would begin to fall due.

$125 a Day For Foreign Service

Explaining the bill, Chairman McCumber said in his report that the amount of the adjusted service credit would be at the rate of $1 a day for domestic service and $1.25 for foreign service, less than $40 bonus paid when the veterans were discharged. In no event, however, could the total exceed $500 for domestic service and $625 for both domestic and foreign service.

The adjusted service certificate, payable after 20 years from the date of issue or sooner, upon death would have a face value of 3.015 times the total amount of the adjusted service credit. Until Jan. 1, 1926, banks would be authorized to loan an amount equal to 50 per cent of the adjusted service credit plus interest at 4 1/2 per cent compounded annually from the date of certificate. After Jan. 1, 1926, the government would make loans on the certificates in varying amounts according to the time negotiated.

Land Settlement Provision

As a land settlement provision in place of the reclamation, veterans would be given preference in making entry on any public or Indian lands opened to entry. To pay for these lands, they would be entitled to a sum equal to the adjusted credit increased by 25 per cent.

Mrs. Sherman Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lake Michigan.—"About one year ago I suffered with irregularities and a weak nervous system and at times was obliged to stay off my feet. I doctored with our family physician and he finally said he could not understand my case, so I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After I had taken the first bottle I could see that I was getting better. I took several bottles of the Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and I am entirely cured of my ailments. You may publish this letter if you wish." Mrs. MARY SHERMAN, Route 2, Lake, Mich.

There is one fact women should consider and that is this. Women suffer from irregularities and various forms of weakness. They try this and that doctor, as well as different medicines. Finally they take Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound, and Mrs. Sherman's experience is simply another case showing the merit of this well-known medicine.

If your family physician fails to help you and the same old troubles persist, why isn't it reasonable to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

Fagged Out?

That Tired Feeling Overcome In One Week

If your nerves are all unstrung and your vitality is low, and you are "always tired," it is more than likely that your system lacks vitamins, that life giving element in food which science has recently shown to be so important to robust health and throbbing vigor.

Busy men and busy women require special nerve strength, as the nerves and then the glands are the first to suffer when our foods are low in vitamin content.

Eat the right food; and because most of our food today, in our artificial living, is low in vitamin content, it is highly advisable to add the vitamin extract from yeast—Vegex.

Vegex is that extract, highly palatable, delicious and aromatic, tasting like an exceptionally excellent meat broth, although pure vegetable. Besides being served as a drink, Vegex can be used with gravies, also with butter as a spread on bread.

Buy a jar of Vegex at 30c, 55c or $1.00 and if the family does not thoroughly like it as a food, and if you do not find that it has all the tonic and toning up the system, take the partly used jar back to your dealer, and he will refund in full all the money you paid for it. But, be sure to try it. It may mean a great deal to you in health, longer life for you and better growth for your children. Call on your grocer or your drug dealer and ask for Vegex. If he has not yet received his stock send us his name and we will send you a generous sample free and prepaid. Vitamin Food Co., Gotham National Bank Bldg., New York City.

Kidney and Bladder Troubles HAVE TO GO

Clocked Up Kidney Deposits Are Dissolved and the Toxins (Poisons) Completely Driven Out. Druggists Told to Guarantee It in Every Instance

"Your very life," says Dr. Carey, "depends upon the perfect functioning and health of your kidneys, so whatever you do, don't neglect them." Dr. Carey's famous Prescription, No. 777 known as Marshroot, is not recommended for everything, but we cannot too strongly urge its use if you suffer from annoying bladder troubles, frequent passing of water night and day, with smarting or irritation, brick dust sediment or highly colored urine, bloating, irritability with loss of back-ache, rheumatism or any other tendency to Bright's disease, Diabetes or Gravel, for Kidney disease is its worst form may be stealing upon you.

Don't wait until tomorrow to begin the use of this wonderful prescription, now obtainable in both liquid and tablet form, if you have any of the above symptoms. Kidney and bladder troubles don't "go away." They will keep upon you always, stealthily and with unrelenting certainty.

Never mind the fallacy of the fact if you ever suspect that you are subjected to kidney disease, don't lose a single day. For Fred Howard, 187 Central St., A. W. Dower drug store and every good druggist have been authorized to retail this famous medicine on the first two bottles to all who state they have received no benefit. —Adv.

ALL UP FOR THE BIG SHOW

Joy in Kidland When Sells-Floto Circus Comes to Lowell

Sells-Floto circus now combined with Buffalo Bill's Wild West show, is coming to Lowell for matinee and evening shows on Saturday, June 10, not only bigger, but better than last season. Many new acts have been added and the entire Chicago Coliseum performance will be given in every city that the show plays.

Sells-Floto never cut one act out of the show at any time. Many people wonder if the smaller places do really get the city show. That can be answered with one word.

"Positively!" Three rings and three stages will be filled with feature acts from the moment the show starts to the time when the Congress of Rough Riders dash madly around the great hippodrome track in thrilling and exciting races.

The five herds of elephants, some of them imported from India for the Chicago engagement, the 60-cage zoo, the clowns, fifty-seven of them, the spangled folk, the stately ladies, the hooting, tooting, calliope, the white dappled horses and the many wonders that are only Sells-Floto's, will all be here in plenty of time for the street parade.

And there will be "Poodles" Hanneford, the greatest clown rider of all time and the highest paid circus performer in the world, and the Hanneford family, the Hodgkins, the Hobsons, the Nelsons, the Hammonds, the Arays, the Spaniards, the thunderbolts, and scores of others equally famous.

And everywhere Sells-Floto go this season, four great troupes of Chinese circus stars will perform the most brilliant aerial and acrobatic feats ever attempted. These brilliant performers were brought direct from Peking to the Chicago Coliseum and positively "stopped the show."

Old timers and performers alike gazed with wonder and awe, at the weird and wonderful exploits, these marvelous Chinamen did.

Many of these feats are performed for the first time outside of China.

Permitted Dance Which She Attended, to Be Held in Schoolhouse

LEMING, Kas., June 8. (By the Associated Press).—Because she permitted a dance to be held in the schoolhouse and herself attended it, Mrs. Clara White, the "school marm" of this village of 32 inhabitants has had her teaching certificate revoked.

Miss Lorraine Wooster, state superintendent of education, held that she had broken Kansas laws. Mrs. White wrote her that the dance was without any objectionable features, and that, in a community 30 miles from a railroad she felt it was a proper use for the schoolhouse after teaching hours.

Miss Wooster, an inveterate foe of tobacco, took a different view, asserting that dancing was particularly objectionable in a school teacher.

G. O. P. CONVENTION AT BOSTON, SEPT 23

BOSTON, June 8.—The republicans of Massachusetts will hold their state convention in Boston on Saturday, Sept. 23. The total number of delegates will be 2875, about 476 more than were entitled to seats two years ago.

The delegates to the convention will be chosen according to the following plan: Each city or town will be entitled to one delegate for the first 135 voters cast for the republican candidate for governor in 1920 and another delegate for every additional block of 250 votes. Two years ago the corresponding figures were 75 and 150.

The members of the state committee at their meeting yesterday set out to select five women members in place of five who had resigned, and did once fill the vacancies, but after a long discussion the vote was reconsidered and the matter was laid over to the next meeting.

William S. Felton of Salem, chairman of the executive committee, presided at yesterday's meeting in the absence of Chairman Foss.

LABOR UNIONS SUABLE

The decision of the Supreme court in the case of the United Mine Workers, which the court sets the United Mine Workers free from the charges preferred, it steps aside to deliver an oblique dictum that is of much more importance than the decision of the case under adjudication.

In effect the court says, that had the United Mine Workers ordered and directed the strike in its unlawful features, which violated the anti-trust law, prohibiting restraint of trade, the organization would have been suable under the antitrust, and would have been liable in such suit for damages collectible from its funds.

This opinion is of great legal, national and industrial importance as being the first intimation from the highest court in the land, that a labor union not incorporated can be sued for damages as indicated. For many years, manufacturers who have had conflicts with labor unions, favored legislation to compel them to incorporate so as to be legally responsible in a suit at law for any charge brought against them. The labor leaders had successfully fought this movement and now they are utterly amazed to find the supreme court issuing an opinion on the subject to the effect that the unions can be sued under the anti-trust law without incorporation. This opinion, if made general and if it becomes the accepted rule in such cases, will have a far-reaching effect. Strikes will be legal as usual, but for any overt act that can be construed as effecting restraint of trade, the striking unions can be sued as if they were incorporated and liable under this particular statute, why not under others? Thus the question broadens as it is followed to its ultimate result.

This is an opinion that many will denounce as equivalent to legislation; and the charge has already been strongly laid at the door of the supreme court that it is usurping the legislative function in pinching upon certain phases of the constitution an interpretation that is not warranted by a fair construction of the text. If, as alleged, labor unions become permanently responsible and suable as if they were incorporated bodies, this opinion will prove to be a serious blow in the freedom of action which these organizations have hitherto enjoyed. The opinion is sure to draw the fire of Mr. Gompers and others; but that will not affect the situation in the slightest degree. It seems to have dawned upon the supreme court that it is not right to hold one party to a conflict legally immune, while the other is in every way responsible under all state and federal statutes. The question has many phases and while this new attitude will not generally affect labor unions, it will seriously embarrass such bodies by holding them responsible for the acts of their individual members.

NEW HOUSING SURVEY

The mayors of Massachusetts cities have received a letter from Eugene C. Hultman, chairman of the commission on necessities of life, asking for important information that may lead to a state-wide readjustment of the rent situation before next winter, if all goes well. While some of Mr. Hultman's price recommendations on other commodities have failed to be promptly followed, perhaps he can find a solution for less costly dwelling accommodations.

The chairman, in his letter, announces that he has received many inquiries in regard to new housing activities in urban communities and the probability of rental charges being lowered as a result of the increase in the supply of dwellings. He requests information as to the number of new dwelling permits that have been issued this year as compared with the number of new dwellings erected last year; and also the number of families accommodated by the new construction of last year, together with the estimated number that will be housed by the dwellings erected this year.

Lowell members of the Massachusetts Real Estate Exchange have also received letters from Mr. Hultman, asking them to report, if possible, regarding the amount of new housing in Lowell and vicinity and also asking for any comments that they may care to make concerning present or future rental charges.

The activities in the building line are increasing rapidly all over the commonwealth. Many contractors have work laid out for many months to come, and the boom in May was due to a reduction in the price of certain needed grades of plain lumber. Unfortunately, such reductions are neither general nor permanent; and they are not met by any material lowering in the wages of the building crafts. Mr. Hultman's reports, if they are received promptly from the different municipalities of the commonwealth, ought to make decidedly interesting reading.

THE "SYNAGOGUE"

Much of the time of the legislature this year has been devoted to a discussion of the Sargent bill, the purpose of which is to remove from the Boston public library a painting by Sargent entitled "The Synagogue."

The painting, however meritorious from the viewpoint of art, is highly objectionable to the Jews; and influential members of this race have put all their force into the movement to have the bill passed and the painting removed to a museum by right of eminent domain.

It seems that the trustees of the Boston public library many years ago entered into a contract with Sargent, the famous painter, to execute a study to be hung in the library. He was to receive a certain sum in payment for his services and the contract stipulated that the picture would remain permanently in the library. It is very difficult to break such a contract.

Members of the legislature have opposed the measure on the ground of constitutionality. It is somewhat like our agreement to take care of trust funds. We can't get rid of them even if we want to. It is questionable whether the legislature can give us authority to turn them back to the donors or to the beneficiaries. Not only Boston, but other municipalities as well, have had a valuable object lesson in the binding qualities of a contract such as that by which the "Synagogue" was hung in the Boston public library. It is as binding as the restrictions imposed in the deed of sale of a piece of real estate.

THE PINCHOT METHOD

Since Gifford Pinchot tipped over the republican apple cart in Pennsylvania, the leaders are claiming that it takes an immense amount of money to enable a candidate to communicate with all the voters in a large constituency. They offer this by way of apology for the acknowledged expenditure of $23,000 for the primary alone. His campaign committee reports an expenditure of over $17,000, in which Pinchot contributed $33,000. In the presidential election of 1920, there were 1,834,050 votes cast for president in Pennsylvania, so that if Mr. Pinchot had spent money in no other way than by sending a postal card to each voter, the total expense would have been slightly over $18,340, or about one-sixth of the total reported.

One account of Mr. Pinchot's expenditures alleges that considerably over one half the total was spent for legitimate election purposes. It does not intimate for what or how the remainder was expended; but the usual way is to hand it out to political workers to be used where it will do the most good.

Anyhow, Pinchot's expenses fall considerably short of Newberry's total for securing a seat in the senate from Michigan, and if Newberry were absolved from charges of the excessive use of money, surely there can be no ground for criticizing Pinchot.

LILLIAN RUSSELL

Poor "fairy, fairy Lillian" Russell is dead. As a gifted operatic singer and actress, she often appeared before Lowell audiences at the Opera house and always played to a full house, for she was a general favorite in Lowell, as all over the land, on account of her sweet and girlish and winsome personality. There must have been considerable mental worry, if not long, continued heartaches, attached to her two unhappy marriages which were followed by a third that seemed to be sought as a hoped for refuge in her declining years, and that such it proved to be there is no reason to doubt. Those who have often sat under the spell of her charm and her entrancing singing will regret her passing and particularly so for the reason that nowadays such actresses, if any there be, are rarely seen except in the movies, and their voices are heard chiefly through the medium of the Victrola. She stood unrivaled in her day and in her line of operatic work. She was a real artist who worked hard and earnestly for the distinction and popularity that were deservedly hers.

PRICES ADVANCE

Statistical authorities that for many months past have been noting the declining tendencies of business and the depressed markets are now outspoken in reference to the advancing prices not only in this country but in all the leading countries of the world. While manufacturers and their former employees wrangle over the rate of wages fixed early in the year, the price of manufactured products has advanced and the wage schedules framed six months ago would not bear the same relation to prices today. Where a 20 per cent cut was justifiable ten, 10 per cent might be more equitable now.

CHILD LABOR

If we can't have uniform hours of labor throughout the United States, we may at least have the constitution so amended as to prohibit child labor uniformly throughout the land. For this purpose Congressman Rogers has introduced a bill in congress. It seems useless to attempt further legislation under the constitution as two measures for this purpose have already failed to stand the test. Better an amendment to put an end to child slavery than to have the question in continual controversy between the North and the South.

THE TAX RATE

We learn from official sources at city hall that there will probably be no increase in the tax rate this year. If the expenditures increase, there must be an increase in the tax rate also or in the valuation of property, which would mean the same thing—unless the city finds some new source of revenue which at present is not in sight.

Now into any negotiations with the United States relative to the St. Lawrence river project it will have to be abandoned until such time as Canada changes her mind, if she ever does.

All That He Got

"I trust, Mr. Blackstone, that you do not play cards for money," the minister remarked during the course of an informal chat in the vestry of the First Baptist church. Blackstone truthfully replied, "The rest of the boys do, but I seem to play for experience!"—New York Sun.

Never Could Find Out

Two husbands, both of whom had had wordy arguments with their wives, were comparing notes at the club. "Women are the limit," growled the first one. "We husbands never know anything at all, and our wives always know everything." "Well, there's one thing my wife admits she doesn't know," said the second man. "What's that?" "Why she married me."—Stray Stories.

A Thought

You will find it less easy to uproot faults than to choke them by gaining virtues. Do not think of your own faults; still less of others' faults; in every person who comes near to you look for what is good and strong; honor that; rejoice in it; and as you can, try to imitate it; and your faults will drop off like dead leaves when their time comes.—John Ruskin.

Today's Word

Today's word is perennial. It is pronounced per-en-ee-ah, with accent on the second syllable. It means—lasting or continuing through the years, perpetual. It comes from Latin "Per," through, and "annus," year. It is used like this: "Perennial enforcement of law." "Perennial have some hope of minimizing liquor smuggling into the country but that the supply of domestic moonshine promises to be perennial!"

Reined For Life

Booth Tarkington is said to be an admirer of the gentler qualities of the colored people. The following story at least bears out the assumption. "They are a delightful race," he is quoted as saying. "I know a minister who once married a young colored couple. 'How much Ah owes you, rev-und, yo' bidderdom asked after the ceremony.' 'O,' said the minister, 'pay me whatever it is worth to you.' The young dandy looked his dusky bride over from head to foot with a gleam in his eye. Turning to the minister, he said, 'You've ruined me for life, rev-und, yo' shoo! hush!'"

Sarcastic Visitor

Every speaker at the dinner had advertised the town, which was inland some 800 miles from the coast. The speakers all said that had the city been on the coast it would have been the world's first city. "The visiting speaker is quoted as saying, 'Gentlemen,' he said, 'I am impressed with your city as much as you are, and I love it. I can suggest a way in which you can get your wish. I'll leave forward and he added: 'This is what you should do: Obtain a large pipe, run it from the center of your city to the ocean, and if you can suck as hard as you can blow the ocean will soon be in your city.'"

Who Owns the River?

The river belongs to the nation. The love, they say, to the state. The government runs navigation. The commonwealth, though, pays the freight.

Now, here is the problem that's heavy. Please, which is the right or the wrong?

When the water runs over the levee, To whom does the river belong?

It's the government's river in summer. When the water is low, it's a hummer.

And starts o'er the levee to flow; When the state must dig down in its bill And push back the old Mississippi Away from the farm and the mill.

I know very little of lawing; I've done little study of courts, I've done little feeling and hawing; Through various opinions, reports; Why need there be anything more said When the river starts leaves to climb?

If the government owns the foresaid It must own it all of the time.

If the bull you are leading should bel- low And jump over somebody's fence, There isn't much doubt you're the fellow.

Expected to bear the expense, If it follows a Sunday school teacher And chases the maid up a tree, You're the owner the same of the creature.

Undoubtedly all will agree.

If some time should somebody's chick- ens Get into your garden and dig And pull up the plants like the chickens, Or somebody's bull pup or pig, The owner thereof cannot blame you, On you or some party remote, The owner thereof can't disclaim it, The chick or the pup or the goat.

If it's your Mississippi in dry time, If it's yours, Uncle Sam, when it's wet, If it's your Mississippi in dry time, In flood time it's your river yet.

There's no other way you can make it, And so, when I give the alarm, Come get your darned river and take it Away from my timber and farm! —Douglas Malloch, in American Lumberman.

AT DRUGGISTS

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

With the advent of hot weather the rush of boys to Silver Lake has begun and any person going along Rogers street in the afternoon and early evening can see a lot of young people waiting for a chance to jump on trucks passing toward the lake. It is remarkable that boys can secure transportation in this way in either direction with very little delay. When asked where they are going they simply say they are going to "ride out to Silver Lake and they ride usually on the first truck that comes along. Occasionally they meet some good-natured driver who readily responds to the appeal for a "lift" down to the lake, but usually the formality of making any such request is dispensed with and the boys jump on wherever they see an opportunity. There is a change at Silver Lake beach as the campers along the east side have protested against the continual nuisance of bathers in that vicinity. As a result those who want to go swimming in the lake have to go to the further end, where the water is deeper and the bathing very even and reported by those who know it is holey and springy. There have been some narrow escapes from drowning in the lake and the place now assigned to the bathers is quite dangerous for those who are not expert swimmers. Now that our municipal bath house has been opened for the season, boys who want to go swimming should go there as it is much safer and also much nearer than the Silver Lake swimming hole.

A correspondent asks me for the words of the song by Paul Barnes entitled "Goodbye, Dolly Gray," which was so popular with the boys who started for the war in 1917. It was the battle chant of our soldiers and sailors in the war against Spain in 1898. The author died about a month ago in the insane ward of a New York hospital. He had written many songs and at one time was accounted rich as the result of the income from his compositions, but the failure of a musical house reduced him to poverty. He died from paralysis after a long period of mental decay. The song is as follows:

GOOD-BYE, DOLLY GRAY

I have come to say goodbye, Dolly Gray.

It's not to ask me why, Dolly Gray, There's a murmur in the air, You can hear it everywhere— It is time to do and dare, Dolly Gray. It's not the tramp of feet, Dolly Gray, Sounding through the village street, Dolly Gray.

"The wife of Johnnie soldiers true, In their uniforms of blue, I must say goodbye to you, Dolly Gray."

Goodbye, Dolly Gray, I must leave you, Though it breaks my heart to go. Something tells me I am needed At the front to fight the foe. And I can no longer stay, Hark! I hear the bugle calling— Good-bye, Dolly Gray.

EIGHTH WIFE OF ST. CLAIR MEETS FIRST IN COURT

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 8.—Ann Attridge, of New York, the alleged first wife of Johnnie St. Clair, and Martha Maude Hayes of Albany, his alleged eighth and last wife, met for the first time, here yesterday morning when they were introduced by Chief of Police William J. Sheedy, on their arrival to testify before the grand jury against St. Clair, who is accused of bigamy. Both smiled when the chief brought them together, but made no remarks. They shook hands and later left the courthouse to go and have lunch together.

UPKEEP OF 'SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' LOT

The matter of who shall do the actual work of keeping up the upkeep of the soldiers and sailors' lot at the Edison cemetery was discussed at the regular monthly meeting of the cemetery commission, Frank B. Flanders, caretaker of the lot, was present at the meeting and said that he had hired a workman to do the work because he believed he could get it done more cheaply.

Finally it was decided to take the opinion that the work should be done by employees of the cemetery and Chairman Rigby pointed out that what outside help is being engaged at a rate of $1.50 and $5 a day the regular employees of the department are being paid $4 a day. He said that he did not believe that was fair.

Finally it was decided to take the matter under advisement. Monthly bills totalling $705.83 were approved.

PRES. HASTINGS OFF FOR RARITAN, N. J.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—President Harding accompanied by Mrs. Harding and a small party of friends, left Washington shortly after 9 o'clock today for New Jersey where tomorrow he will deliver two addresses. The president will go to Raritan, N. J., the home of Senator Frelinghuysen. Speaking first at the unveiling of the Princeton battle monument, commemorating Washington's victory over the British and Hessian forces, after his crossing of the Delaware, the president later plans to make an address at Princeton university exercises at which the university will confer upon him a doctor's degree. He will return to Washington Friday evening.

SOVIETS VIOLATE TOMBS OF CZARS AND CZARINA

PARIS, June 8.—(By the Associated Press) The Russian Bolsheviks, leaving no stone unturned in their work of ferreting out church-treasures for confiscation, have violated the tombs of the czars and czarinas in St. Peter and St. Paul's cathedral, Petrograd, says LeJournal, quoting private advices.

The tomb of the czarina Anna Ivanovna, which is made of silver, was removed bodily and the coffin of Catherine the Great was broken open and a necklace and rings of great value were taken. The Bolsheviks are said to have pried the lid from Peter the Great's coffin, but, finding the body marvellously preserved, were ashamed and dared not strip it of its jewels.

The despatch adds that news of the sacking of the tombs spread rapidly among the Russian people, who are extremely indignant.

He thought of Canada, Mexico,
Java, India, Borneo,
But the trains were watched, and the ships were, too,
And "What," said John, "am I gonna do?"
The cops are swarming upon my trail Intent on putting me into jail,
"I must act quick or I'll surely be a Prisoner!"—then came a Great Idea,
And John McGurgle, just overnight,
Vanished tee-totally out of sight!
Detectives sought him with dogged vim
But never a trace did they find of him,
And years went flitting, and decades passed Till John McGurgle showed up at last,
Safe from the law's harsh condemnations
Because of the statute of limitations.
"Where were you hidden?" reporters queried.
"Where was the secret spot you tarried?"
"I sought," said John, and he laughed in mirth,
"The least conspicuous spot on earth,
And the perfect haven to which I won
Was the Capitol building at Washington,
Where I hid for years—'twas a simple plan—
Disguised, of course, as a Congressman!"

SEN. REED STRICKEN WHILE SPEAKING

CARUTHERSVILLE, Mo., June 8.—James A. Reed, United States senator, appeared strengthened early today after having been forced last night to cancel his speech here because of sudden illness. Senator Reed's illness, physicians declared, was due to acute indigestion. He had hardly begun his speech when he was attacked by severe pains.

MODEL YACHTS IN INTERNATIONAL RACES

NEW YORK, June 8.—The first of a series of international races between model yachts, representing England and America, were to be held today off Bayside, L. I.

The entries were the Endeavor, designed and built by W. J. Daniels of London, and the Polkadot, Yankee miniature craft designed and built by E. A. Bull of Brooklyn. Both builders will guide their model yachts today.

Races will be held daily, wind and weather permitting, until one craft has won three out of five. A cup for the contest has been donated by the magazine Yachting.

WAR HERO SEEKS WIFE AND BABIES

Cherokee Indian Ace, Officially Credited With 14 German Planes, in Poverty Returns Home After 15-Mile Hike on Foot to Find Wife and Babies Gone

By MARIAN HALE
OKMULGEE, Okla., June 8 (By the Associated Press).—Broken in health, Captain William Sunset, Cherokee Indian ace of the Lafayette escadrille and globe-trotting adventurer, started out today on a quest for his wife and his two babies, wrested from him by poverty.

Captain Sunset came back to the land of his youth at the end of the world war, showered with high military decorations. He lived here with his bride, an Alsatian, whose life he saved overseas.

Last Sunday, after trudging 15 miles seeking a job, the war hero returned to his home to find his wife and babies gone.

Sunset learned from friends that his wife had purchased a ticket for Pittsburgh, Pa. So he sold his little store of goods and with a purse made up by friends, set out on his quest.

Sunset says he has 14 German planes credited to him, officially while in French service. In addition to that, he claims 17 unofficially. He has been wounded dozens of times and shot down five times. Sunset saw service in three units, the Foreign Legion, the Lafayette Escadrille and the United States army. He entered the army after a daring escape from Germany in a borrowed German plane.

Pimples, blackheads and boils—fresh yeast rids you of them

It is well known that pimples and blackheads (acne) and boils are often caused by errors of diet.

Fleischmann's Yeast is now being recommended for these embarrassing and painful skin troubles because fresh yeast corrects the errors of diet which cause them.

The surgeon of one important New York hospital states: "I have used yeast extensively and found it invaluable in curing boils." When 17 cases of pimples were treated with Fleischmann's Yeast at hospitals in New York and Philadelphia the results were remarkable. A typical case was a young man who had suffered from pimples for three years. He ate three cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast daily. In five weeks the eruption had cleared completely.

If you are troubled with pimples or boils, begin at once to correct them by eating 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's fresh yeast daily before or between meals. Buy Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer for Fleischmann's Yeast.

Summer Fur Mystery Is Solved! They Wear 'Em to Hide Lines in Neck

By MARIAN HALE
"Furs are worn in midsummer purely for personal adornment. This is unnatural, wrong and should be stopped," says Dr. Henry Fairchild Osborne of the Museum of Natural History, New York.

"The fact is causing the best mammalian life to disappear. Legitimate use of furs for protection from cold has passed. Furs are a fashion now, just as feathers 30 years ago."

One of the most enthusiastic supporters of Dr. Osborne's beliefs is Minnie Madden Fiske.

Mrs. Fiske never wears furs, on the stage or off.

"They are not necessary," she contends. "In the coldest parts of Canada I have always been able to keep warm in sweaters, cloth and jersey garments."

The summer fur is one of the feminine inconsistencies that always baffled the masculine mind.

Men associate fur with warmth, and imagine a woman wears a fur to keep warm. Of course, she doesn't. Not even in the winter.

As the furrier explained: "The line of madame's neck—it is very bad."

And madame knows. She knows she has to be more beautifully built than most of us if she can permit her neck to emerge boldly and fearlessly from her coat collar or the low-cut line of her frock.

She needs something to soften the line and make a frame for her face. The fur does that.

Then, too, the shoulders have a way of being uneven or poorly matched, or too broad or too narrow. A well manipulated fur conceals this.

More than anything else, a woman can invest in furs look their value.

If a woman is wearing a chin-strap or sable cloak, every other woman who sees her knows several thousand dollars were expended on her. For a sable neckpiece, composed of two skins, sometimes a woman pays more than $2000. For her silver fox she may have spent any amount up to $1200.

A good natural blue fox fur costs from $150 to $300.

But the money shows. It shows more than it possibly could in diamonds, pearls or lace. A woman's fur is a better indication of her husband's financial rating than his bank statement.

And they are conscious that line every woman fears!

Negotiations Continue

LONDON, June 8.—(By the Associated Press) The Irish negotiations are proceeding satisfactorily. It is officially stated, and a full conference of the treaty negotiators probably will be held tomorrow when Prime Minister Lloyd George is expected to return from his holiday trip to Wales.

It is understood that the experts dealing with the question of the Irish constitution will have a further meeting today.

It is understood that the communications brought from Dublin by Arthur Griffith, the Dail president, while being in the main reassuring to the cabinet members, do not fully settle the difficulty over the constitution for the Irish Free State, as drafted.

It is stated in some quarters that the Irish still are insistent upon concessions outside the terms of the treaty. There is a rumor in certain quarters that Michael Collins is veering continually toward the views of Eamon de Valera, and it is hinted he may even abandon the treaty, of which he was one of the signers, but the story comes from a biased source.

Embargo Lifted

LONDON, June 8.—The northern government has ordered the withdrawal of the embargo on the exportation of food and merchandise to County Donegal which lasted only one day. The Irish republican army as a measure of retaliation forbade the sending of goods from Donegal into County Londonderry, which is consequently suffering from a lack of agricultural supplies. The republicans also threatened to prevent any trading with Londonderry merchants.

Liverpool Regiment Arrives

LONDON, June 8.—(By the Associated Press) Six hundred men of the Liverpool regiment arrived here last night, taking up quarters on the Donegal side of the river Foyle. The Londonderry military barracks are on the county Londonderry side of the Foyle, so that there are now large concentrations on both banks.

An Exchange Telegraph statement on the concentration says: "Several thousand rebels are reported to be concentrated at County Londonderry, and will be sent to the north with the forces in the northern area." Derry, Donegal border are expected to be concentrating Donegal rebels. It is believed that the rebels are in a state of confusion.

Tire Competition — Good, Bad and Indifferent

THE average American was raised on the idea that the more people who competed for his trade the better off he was.

Like many good ideas, it has several sides.

They all show themselves clearly in the tire business.

There are tires which prefer to compete largely on a price basis. Believing that the public is more interested in the dollars and cents they pay than in the worth of what they get.

On the other hand, U. S. Royal Cords believe differently.

And car-owners who use Royal Cords have a plus feeling which they get both from actual experience, and because they realize the integrity of the manufacturer.

People don't think of Royal Cords as high-priced tires. They think of them as better tires.

Prices on United States Passenger Car Tires and Tubes, effective May 8th, are not subject to war-tax, the war-tax having been included.

DOUBLE SHOOTING

Girl Dying After Being Shot in Atlantic City Hotel—Assailant Shot Himself

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 8.—Miss Lois Gibson is dying in the city hospital after being shot today in a hotel room by Benjamin Ball, who then turned the pistol on himself. He is also in the hospital but will recover.

No motive for the shooting has been learned. The girl, who was semi-conscious when found, declared that Ball shot her without warning. They had not quarreled, she said, according to the police.

TO RESTORE HARMONY IN BUILDING TRADES

CINCINNATI, June 8.—(By the Associated Press)—Decision whether harmony shall be restored to the Building Trades department of the American Federation of Labor by the reaffirmation of the carpenters' union hinged today on conferences of federation officials with leaders of the carpenters' union.

It was not expected that a final settlement would be ready until tomorrow. Only a brief session was planned for today. The carpenters withdrew from the department last year because of a dispute with sheet metal workers as to who was entitled to install metal doors and room trimmings.

Cotton Exchange Fined $5000

NEW YORK, June 8.—Justice Marcus of the supreme court imposed a $5000 fine on the American Cotton exchange, convicted yesterday of permitting its members to bucket the orders of customers. This was the maximum penalty. Judge Marcus reserved decision on a motion for a certificate of reasonable doubt. Later Justice Marcus denied the application for a certificate of reasonable doubt. He also denied a motion for a stay of the payment of the fine, ruling that it must be paid at once.

Third Floor of State House Hall of Fame

BOSTON, June 8.—A Hall of Fame to occupy the entire corridor of the third floor of the state house is proposed by the special commission appointed to provide for a suitable memorial to Massachusetts chaplains who died in the World war. The commission which reported today, says the plan has been agreed to by the legislative committee on state house, the art commission and various representatives of organizations of World war veterans. It was announced that a commission for a tablet in rhinoceros, to be placed in the state house, had been awarded to Basha Puff, a Boston sculptress.

Lawyer Promoting Merger, in Contempt

NEW YORK, June 8.—Thomas L. Chadbourne, the lawyer who promoted the Republic-Midvale-Inland Steel merger, today was adjudged in contempt by the Lockwood legislative committee, when he refused to turn over experts' reports on the seven companies originally intended to be brought into the consolidation. Chadbourne expressed a willingness to give the committee the valuations of three companies now in the proposed merger, but positively refused to give up reports on the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., the Briar Hill Steel Co., the Lackawanna Steel Co., and the Steel & Tube Co. of America, which were included in the seven companies when the consolidation first was undertaken.

FIGHT FOREST FIRES FROM AIRPLANES

QUEBEC, June 8.—Three hundred men, directed by airplanes, today fought the large forest fires at St. Michel des Saints, neither country, in the vicinity of Lac Char, Lac Chénoue, and the headwaters of the Vermillion river.

The provincial government yesterday passed an emergency order closing the forests to everyone without a permit.

Do You Think It Hot?

course, it was much hotter than that in many parts of the city, but these figures are based on the readings taken several times each day to arrive at the minimum, maximum and mean temperature for each month.

Beginning on June 2, 1919, and continuing for seven days, the city was under the spell of a heat wave that perhaps has been forgotten in the sticky atmosphere of the present, when one is prone to think that it is "the hottest ever." For those seven days in June, 1919, just three years ago, and embracing dates corresponding to the present, the maximum temperatures were as follows: 86, 87, 88, 89, 91, 88, 86. On the day following, which would be the ninth, the temperature dropped like a rocket to 55, due to showers and climbed back the next day into the seventies.

Aside from June, 1919, however, one may pour over the records for many years back before finding another early June that had weather as hot as this city is experiencing at present. In 1913, on June 7, the thermometer touched 83, while on June 7 and 8 in 1914, it registered just 80. This noon, the Locks and Canals reading was 86, but rose two or three degrees two hours later. Yesterday the maximum reading taken was 88. Last year on corresponding dates the temperature reached 75 and 73, while two years ago, the maximum was 64 on both days.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Heavy selling of Mexican government bonds based on rumors of a disagreement between the international bankers and representatives of the Mexican republic today in conference here, was the outstanding feature of today's trading on the stock exchange. Before noon, Mexican 4 per cent. lost 3 1/2 points and the two issues of five per cent. were lower by 3 1/2 and 4 1/2 points.

ROYAL WEDDING TODAY

Elaborate Precautions to Guard King Alexander and Princess Marie at Belgrade

BELGRADE, June 8.—Elaborate precautions were taken to guard King Alexander and Princess Marie of Rumania during their wedding festivities today. The entire route of the bridal party from the palace to the cathedral was lined with double rows of soldiers and gendarmes with loaded rifles and fixed bayonets. Their orders were to shoot immediately, if it was understood, if they noticed any suspicious movement among the spectators.

The royal wedding has caused all Yugoslavia to go marriage-mad. All the eligible swains and maidens of the picturesque peasant country seem to want to get married this week, and the churches are flooded with applications for marriage licenses.

DISTINGUISHED COLLEGES

Sec. Weeks Designates Norwich University and University of Vermont

BOSTON, June 8.—A telegram from the secretary of war to Major General Charles H. Edwards, commander of the First Corps Area, received today names Norwich university at Northfield, Vt., and the University of Vermont at Burlington as distinguished colleges.

The classification is based on the war department's annual inspection of educational institutions offering courses in military training.

TO FLY FROM MUNICH TO CHICAGO IN 24 HOURS

GENEVA, June 8.—America will be able to read all the principal European newspapers within three days of their publication and letters will take six days for transit between Argentina and Europe, instead of 29, when the allies raise their ban on the manufacture of aircraft in Germany. This is the promise attributed to Herr Borri, director of the Zeppelin works at Friedrichshafen, Germany.

He plans to launch an airship with a capacity of 100,000 cubic metres, equipped with engines developing 3000 horsepower and capable of flying from Munich to Chicago in 24 hours.

ORDER STUDENTS TO R. O. T. CAMPS

BOSTON, June 8.—Orders were prepared today at the headquarters of the First Corps Area at the Army Base, South Boston, directing 300 students in the military departments of 11 New England universities to proceed on June 15 to the summer camps of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. The camps which will be open from June 15 to July 27, will be situated as follows:

Ordnance, Aberdeen. Proving Grounds, Maryland; Field Artillery, Edgewood Arsenal, Maryland; Signal Corps, Camp Alfred, New Jersey; Air Service, Mitchell field, Long Island; Infantry and cavalry, Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass.; Coast Artillery, Fortress Monroe, Virginia.

Continued

One shot went through the window of his coupe, he said.

Cunningham, held as a material witness, maintained the shooting took place at Ward's home, and the authorities have inclined to this belief.

Kendall declared today that Mrs. Burke called for the coupe last Tuesday, she inquired anxiously after the letter.

Mr. Burke who is connected with a New York woolen company, said the letter had no bearing on the Ward case, and that neither he nor his wife had attended a card party at the Ward home on the night of the killing.

Referring to the statement concerning the broken glass in the letter, he admitted the glass in his car had been broken accidentally in starting the machine.

Mrs. Alfred H. Hook, who lives across the street from the Ward home, said she was called to the door by a woman who she said was "Frank" by her close friends, admitted to newspapermen today that she was at the Ward card party on the night of the Peters shooting. She said Mrs. Burke was there also.

"Was there any shooting in the Ward home?" she was asked.

"Positively none, there was no disturbance of any kind," she said.

"Why was the information that the glass in Mrs. Burke's car had been broken not made public when the subject of broken glass played such an important part in the Ward case?" was asked.

Mrs. Hook said she could not remember how many persons attended the card party at the Ward home. She declared emphatically she had not seen Peters about the place, and that there had been no disturbance there.

Had Narrow Escape

ploye of the mill, that the young man was rescued.

It seems that at about 12:30 o'clock while bathing in that part of the brook known as "mill pond," Small was suddenly seized with cramps. He struggled in the water a few minutes, but was unable to make any progress in his attempts to reach shore. Suddenly he was seen to disappear and it was at that time that Roche, without divesting himself of his clothes, dived into the brook and, after swimming a distance of about 350 yards, made a series of dives and finally located and recovered the unconscious form of Small.

Roche then swam to shore and with the assistance of others succeeded in bringing Small back to consciousness. In the meantime Dr. Jewett of Dracut had been summoned, but when he arrived he found there was nothing for him to do as Roche had applied first aid in a very effective manner. Small was later taken to his home.

Witnesses of the accident were loud in their praise of Roche and they were unanimous in saying that were it not for his prompt action, Small would have drowned.

SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE

General Secretary Submits Interesting Budget to the Board of Directors

A minimum budget, showing that $19.00 a week is the least amount of money on which a family can live, and then only by the strictest economy without the sacrifice of health, decency or self-respect, was submitted to the board of directors of the Lowell Social Service League yesterday afternoon, by the general secretary. The budget was worked out according to present day prices in Lowell, by a home economist engaged for this purpose, and will be used as a basis of treatment in family work.
The budget item for June contains
the following amounts: Food, $9.50;
shelter—four rooms with toilet, $2.00;
clothing, $2.00; fuel, heat and light,
$1.50; sundries, $2.00; total $19.00.

The report states that families
known to the league find it difficult to pay for the winter's fuel supply in a lump sum. In order to encourage thrift and make it possible for more families to meet this program during the coming winter, the league has made special arrangements with local coal dealers. Families wishing to place an order with the league may make weekly small payments during the summer months.

health camp for children which he is undertaking to establish, and pledged its co-operation should the camp materialize.

Emphasis is placed on the fact that the scale of living as outlined in the budget is not presented by the league
as the scale on which a family should live, but a scale on which, it need be,
a family can live.

A food allowance for one week at the given sum of $9.50 gives the quantities of various foods which may be bought, and a week's menus follow. All are based on a man and wife and three children under 14.
The food requirements of each member of the family in calories, and the cost of calories per 100 is given.

At the close of the report it is clearly stated that no allowance has been made for amusements, no consideration given to the matter of sev-ing and that the sundries amounting to $2.00 include medical care, transportation, higher life and necessities.

DISTRICT COURT

George Brown, who keeps a store
at the corner of Cabot and Merrimack streets, was fined $10 in district court
today for violating the Sunday laws
by selling potato chips and other edibles. Brown's license expired a short time ago and its renewal was held up by the license commission pending
an investigation of conditions at his store. He was finally allowed a license
and possession one at the present time.
When questioned by the officer on the
beat at the time of the alleged violation, Brown is reported to have talked back to the officer in a belligerent manner. After Brown had paid his fine, the

him to obey the law. "You are no better or nor worse than anyone else and
you treat the officers with the respect
that they are entitled to, for no friends
or anyone else, will save you if you are brought in here again," said the court.

A number of cases listed for trial
were continued. Joseph A. Maynard, charged with concealing mortgaged
property had his case continued again,
this time to June 15. Louis Joseph and Frank Granow, charged with illegal keeping had their cases continued to June 20 and June 15, respectively.
Frank P. Brown pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness and was sentenced to two months to the house of correction. Sentence was suspended for one year. Officers testified that Brown has been in the habit of carrying quite a bit of booze with him and that yesterday he was found offering a drink to a man and woman. He denied the charges, and said that he carried the liquor for his own consumption
only.

Bernard J. Haney, pleaded guilty to drunkenness and was sentenced to the state farm at Bridgewater. Sentence was suspended for one year.

Lawyer Joseph Donahue, counsel for the plaintiff in the case of George Silwell vs. Joseph Albert, which was tried before Justice Flannery at the jurywaived session of the superior court
in this city a couple of weeks ago,
was notified this morning that an award of $100 had been made to his client. The case was an action of tort
by which the plaintiff sought to recover damages for personal injuries as a result of being struck by an automobile owned by the defendant, while riding his bicycle in Central street.

JUSTICE OF PEACE

BOSTON, June 8.—Miss Clara Louise
Power, assistant registrar of probate,
Suffolk county probate court, yesterday became the first woman to be appointed a justice of the peace in Massachusetts. Until the full operation of the law giving women equal rights
with men in holding public office no woman had been allowed to act as a justice of the peace, although a large number have been made notaries public. Miss Power was administered the oath in the executive chamber at the state house yesterday noon.

Miss Power is one of the pioneer
women lawyers of the state. She was the first Massachusetts woman admitted to practice before the United States supreme court and the first Massachusetts woman to be appointed a

FUNDS FOR THE TEXTILE STRIKERS

The committee in charge of the
"Dollar" day drive for the benefit of the local textile strikers are getting along fine with their work and it is expected they will bring the fund raising campaign to an end tomorrow.
Donations are coming in steadily and
the committee feels very much elated
over the reception given its members
by the business men of the city.

There is no further development in the strike. Pickets are on duty at the Hamilton gates morning, noon and night and they report that the number of operatives employed in the plant is decreasing gradually. This was pay day for the members of the Weavers' union, who are on strike
and during the forenoon hours the treasurer of the strike committee, Mrs.
Annie Reagan was kept busy distributing checks.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

The Knights of Columbus Twilight League team will make a determined effort to break into the big column tonight when it lines up against the Highland Daylights on the South common.

The Knights got away to a bad start this season, but on last Tuesday night put up a regular big league exhibition only to be outplayed by the league-leading Centralville. Manager Day turned in one of the best pitched games of the season, holding the opposing team to two hits. His team played a better ball and outdid the Centralville more than two to one, yet the "breaks" of the game went the other way.

It is expected that Twigs will be on the mound for the "Ceseys" tonight, while Manager Lord has a wide list to select from for his twirler.

After tonight's game a boxing card, headed by a "natural fight" will be staged at the Crescent rink by the Moody A. C. It is one of the best-looking cards of the season and has undoubtedly a large number of sport followers will follow the crowd to the scene of hostilities.

Phinney Boyle of the Acre and Young George Gardner of the upper Gorham street district are the principals in the main event of ten rounds. It will mark the coming of age for the pair and if it is anywhere near as good as their first encounter, it will be well worth going a long way to see.

As Gardner won the other tilt his supporters feel very confident he will repeat Boyle's feat, however some of whom still claim Phinney had the edge on his rival three weeks ago, predict a triumph for the Acre favorite.

Gardner has done his training in Boston, under the watchful eye of his manager, Jackie Williams. He has boxed with many high class boxers at Hayes' gymnasium and reports state he is in great condition. He took on several pounds since the last bout and will enter the ring a little heavier than before.

Boyle worked out at the Y.M.C.A. and also engaged in considerable road work. He has boxed with Jimmy Demas and Billy Murphy and his manager says he is in fine fettle and at his best fighting weight.

At 7:40 last evening, with the Broadway club and Highland-Daylight ball team on the field after seven innings of classy baseball, and with at least 20 minutes of good light left, Umpire Bird suddenly arrived on the scene, called the game, much to the dislike of the many hundreds of Twilight League fans who filled the bleachers, hit alone, and outdid on the South common playground. The game, therefore, will have to be re-played at some future date.

Both teams were in fine fettle, and the pitchers received about the best support from the fielders that could be imagined, and although a few hits filtered through, along with a smart allowance of bases on balls, the base-runners were held so close to their stations that base-stealing was impossible, and after a few tries was abandoned altogether.

In the first inning, with the Highland-Daylight winning the toss for position, Gath threw to the pitcher for the Broadways. The ball he could do was a fly to right, but Gleason, the next man, hit to the center territory and poked on first. The ball was not kicked closely enough to his perch, however, for he was picked off by Mulno's quick throw to Greenlade. Keyes struck out.

In the Highland-Daylight section, Freeman leaned on a plate-outter for a lousy triple to left. Williams hit to right field and Freeman scored when Keyes muffed the ball. Freeman reached first and advanced Williams on a bunt which the third baseman could not grab off in time to throw him out, but a moment later when Freeman drove a liner into Reynolds' hands, he was caught off second, the second victim of a quickly and neatly executed double play with Gath as party of the second part.

With the score 1 to 0 in the Daylights' favor, the Broadways fought hard until the fourth when they broke it up. Gath took first on a bunt on balls. Gleason went him along with a bunt and short distance in front of the plate and Keyes walked the ball into deep left for two bases. Gath scoring. Klutka reached first when Freeman muffed an easy grounder, letting it run over his head, and when Reynolds walked for the second time the bases were full and it looked dark for Mulno. Fumble Freeman stepped into the breach, however, the old reliable taking a hot line off Matthews' bat and tagging third, which Keyes beat left for home on a division. celebrated its debut by defeating the Lions last night by the score of 4 to 1.

Tonight's games are as follows: Libbons vs. Highlands at Washington park; Tyler A.C. vs. Belmonts on the South common; Philadelphia vs. Lincoln A.C. on the South common; and Buckhorn vs. Willie Stars on the North common.

The Tigers will play the Pawtucket Blues in a first division game tonight. The Tigers continue to lead this division, winning six consecutive games, defeating the Unity last night by the score of 2 to 1. The latter team will play the strong North End team tonight at Washington park.

"Fighting" George Parker of the C.A. is scheduled to meet Jimmy Demas of the Mirathon club in the semi-final put in a very strenuous week in Lakewood training for the camp. He is a member of the Lafayette team and made this place his headquarters during his training. He is in good condition and confident of victory.

Martha Flaherty, Jr. and Tommy Lane of Lawrence are to meet in one preliminary with Benney O'Neill and Johnny Hobert appearing in the other.

"Deak" Dodge, president of the Twilight League, called The Sun first before press time today and announced that the report of his boxing card, arranged for tonight being called off, is absolutely without foundation. He also said that while Jimmy Demas injured his hand in training yesterday, the mishap is not serious and that he will be on hand this evening.

The Edison school team, coached by Jack Condon, has captured the honors in Division A of the grammar-school league, while the Green and Pawtucket teams are the leaders in Division B. The winners in the latter division will later play the Edsons for the school championship. The Edsons have won all of their five games. The team lost recently to the Moreys, but this was an exhibition contest. In the regular league game with the Morey team, the Edsons won 15 to 2.

The Twilight League scheduled for next week was announced today. On Monday night the Broadways and the Centralville will play their game scheduled for Memorial day, but cancelled at the request of the managers. It was first announced that the Daylights and Centralvilles would open next week's activities, but as postponed games take precedence over regularly scheduled contests, when Monday night is open, the Broadways and Centralville will have hand Daylights and the Y.M.C.A. will come together. While some dissatisfaction has been expressed over the schedule, the league president states that in due time all teams will play an equal number of games with the other teams.

His first season, with the Seals' did not indicate big league possibilities. He hit .25 and stole 11 bases.

"He can't hit and he's awfully slow," they said.

But he didn't weaken. He kept on trying. During the last two years he has wallowed out more runs than any other player with the Seals.

Then he commenced to get the attention of the "higher ups."

When Jim O'Connell, his "pal," was purchased by McGraw for $75,000, it was predicted that Billy would be next.

But Kamm had hoped it would be by McGraw, so that he could play with Jimmy. However, he's quite elated just the same.

He'll join the Sox next season.

BY GENE COHN
SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—He bought $100,000 plus two players, an approximate figure of $125,000 and the greatest sum to be paid since Babe Ruth was sold.

And yet it was but four years ago that Billy Kamm left the Golden Gate recreation park "stand lots" to go into the minor leagues.

In 1918 a lean, gangling youngster signed, with frightened restraint, a contract to play with the Sacramento Coast league team. He had been rejected as having "recruit" possibilities and was being closely watched. Three weeks later he had been released only to join, in 1919, the Seals team in three short years he had developed into a "big league beauty."

He's still beautiful and blazes at the drop of a hat, but he is declared by experts to be the coming third baseman of the majors.

Danny Long, former manager of the Seals, who put through the deal, declares he cannot remember having seen a player with so many qualifications. He'll make the biggest record of any man that ever hailed from the west side of the Rockies, Long predicts.

Nine Home Runs Made in Yesterday's Major League Games.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Home run bats that have been in temporary retirement in the major league races appeared today to be ready for another slugging skirmish. Nine circuit clowns played a prominent part in six of the eight games yesterday, although the principal siege guns—Willie Hornsby, Miller and Ruth—failed to figure.

Hitchcock, Plutney and Gooch of Pittsburgh, put enough wallops on the park to beat the Phillies, with Morrisson hurling shuttle ball, and keep the Pirates on the heels of the Giants, who retired their sixth successive victory and third in as many days from St. Louis.

The Yankees bunched their hits to better advantage and made it two in row, 9 to 7, from the White Sox. Joe Bush chalked up his seventh straight win and Louie Gehrig collected two hits and walked twice. Falk made his seventh home run.

St. Louis lost some ground in the race by losing to Boston 7-2, home runs by McInnis and Menosky featuring the game.

However, the Nationals gave Washington a 5-3 victory, the Clevelanders overcame the Athletics scattered the Athletics nine hits the Tigers bunched their half dozen and won, 5 to 2.

The second of the series of Sunday games at spalling park arranged by the champion Centralville of the Twilight League will take place next Sunday afternoon, when the strong representation representing Mt. Pleasant Council, K. of C. of Boston, will appear as the home team.

A feature in connection with the game will be the appearance at first base for the visitors of Pat McCarthy, New England light heavyweight boxer, who has succeeded in disposing of all his opponents in this section. McCarthy was defeated some time ago by Tom Gilmore of St. Paul.

McCarthy is a contender for the title of the world's light heavyweight champion, but this is the only defeat on his record, so far as is known. Ray Foy's outstanding local popularity is an undoubted contender for the honors in that city, as the Centralvilles are in Lowell.

LOWELL HIGH DEFEATED

Nashua High Defeated Lowell High Players at Nashua, Yesterday

The Lowell high school baseball team was beaten by Nashua high at Nashua yesterday, 2 to 1. It was a battle of pitchers between Phil Payton of Lowell and Morrisson of Nashua. Payton allowed only three hits each. For six frames Payton held Nashua hitless, but a home run smash by Moran in the seventh gave the up-river team the edge.

How to Play Baseball

Parkins, Star Catcher, Tells How He Has Succeeded

RALPH PERKINS

BY RALPH PERKINS

Proper handling of the ball is a catcher's greatest asset. I believe I am conservative when I say that 75 per cent. of a catcher's value to his club depends on the actual receiving of the ball. A catcher who is constantly dropping pitched balls is bound to upset his pitcher, also the rest of his ball club.

Trying to handle the ball before it reaches the catcher is what causes most of the backstops a lot of trouble. It results in what is known by ball-players as "fighting the ball."

When a catcher fights the ball he is constantly courting injury. Wait until the ball reaches you is one of the most important bits of advice I could offer to ambitious catchers.

I always prefer to catch the ball directly in front of me. By so doing you are never off balance, always in a position to throw.

A strong throwing arm is much to be desired but not actually necessary in order to be a great catcher.

The accurate thrower is the successful catcher in the long run. Accuracy is far more essential than speed. It is very advisable to practice getting the ball away as quickly as possible. A fraction of a second lost in making the throw often spoils the play.

A pitcher can be of great assistance to the catcher, likewise the catcher to the pitcher.

The pitcher must hold the runners on laxity on the part of the pitcher in watching runners makes all kinds of trouble for the catcher, also, the rest of the team.

Talk to your pitcher constantly. Keep offering words of encouragement. Never bowl the pitcher out on the field. Always wait until you reach the bench to argue out your disputes.

Watch the Ball
When a runner reaches first, watch him closely. Most runners have some peculiarity they resort to when about to go down. When you learn their mannerisms it is easy to call for a pitchout and break up the steal or hit-and-run play.

Keep your eye on the batter. It is often possible to learn their sign for the hit-and-run play. That is the time to call for a pitchout and break it up.

Tomorrow the playing of first base, once considered a soft job, but now a most difficult one, is taken up.

TOO MUCH PUBLICITY
MAKES PECK "GOAT"

Roger Peckinpaugh, star shortstop of the Washington team, has been having the worst spring of his career.

Peckinpaugh himself finds it impossible of explanation.

Often some recruit is spoiled by too much publicity. The case of Peckinpaugh may be one of those unusual ones in baseball where a veteran is the victim of too much press agenting.

Peckinpaugh is rather inclined to that line of reasoning. In discussing his case he says:

"When I was secured by the Washington club many of the experts were kind enough to say that my addition to the team practically assured the pennant."

Reputed Too Much
That line of gossip was much published in Washington. It was said that with me at short Washington had the best infield in the American league, if not both leagues.

Such kind words were all very lovely, but it seems there has been a reaction. The fans, having been fed on the pennant-winning talk, failed to take very kindly to the tail-end stuff that our club began pulling with the opening of the season.

"Since I was the player advertised as the one individual who made certain the pennant for Washington the fans naturally started to pick me to pieces. My failure to get away to a good start has given them my sympathy as to me as a target for their jibes."

Became the Goat
"One player seldom makes any ball club. It was rather unfortunate for me that I was advertised as the man Washington needed to make certain a pennant in 1922. Our failure to show has made me the goat."

"No ball club can win without consistent pitching. Thus far we haven't had that brand. Once our pitchers had that brand, once our pitchers hit their stride we are going to make all kinds of trouble."

C. M. A. C. WILL PLAY THE LAWRENCE K. OF C.

The C.M.A.C. baseball team will play its first game of the season on the Lowell Textile school campus in Pawtucketville Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, when it will cross bats with the strong K. of C. aggregation of Lawrence. It will be remembered that the down-river club defeated the Centralvilles of this city in a fast game at Spaulding park last Sunday. It is expected that Saturday afternoon's game will be a most interesting one and that both teams will have a great number of rooters present.

The C.M.A.C. team is being managed by William Marcotte and its players are as follows: Para, Hubert, Duke Conborn, White, Freeman, Pop Williams, Joe Farrell, Gleason, Tommy Breen, Freddie Crowe, Hobson, Berrier, Goyette, Treville and William Marcotte. Manager Marcotte stated today that he expects a game in the near future with the Tigers of Boston. Another wedding out game in the C.M.A.C. Twilight league will be played on the Textile school campus tomorrow evening. Manager Marcotte of the league will be on hand and he will give a few interesting pointers to the players. Manager Marcotte stated that the league was formed for the purpose of training young members of the club who have baseball aspirations and he expects still before the season is over there will be some pretty lively playing. The league is composed of four teams and games will be played every Monday and Thursday evenings during the summer months. The league committee is composed as follows: William Marcotte, chairman; Joseph Bergeron, secretary; Raoul Pelletier, Leo Chiquara, Lucien Geoffroy, D. Pare, Leo St. Jean.

LOWELL DRIVING CLUB
Inspired by its success of May 30, the Lowell Driving club will stage another race meeting on July 4. At the present time $1500 is the sum decided upon for the purses.

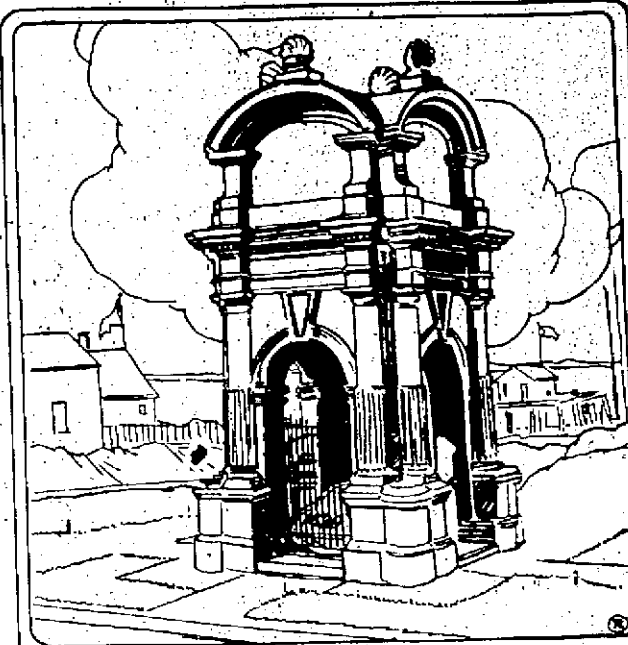

PLAYED TIE GAME
In the opening game of the Stony Brook Valley Twilight league, played in Chelmsford Tuesday night, the Billerica and Chelmsford A. A. teams played a 9 all tie.

Mr. King C. Gillette, Gillette Safety Razor Co.,
Boston, Mass.

My dear Mr. Gillette:

I have used your razor for so many years with such satisfaction that I did not know it was possible to improve upon it until I tried your new improved Gillette, and I want to congratulate you upon the improvement for it surely makes shaving a pleasure.

I don't know whether it is the additional weight or the different arrangement but, with a factory saws the old razor—I should say razors for I own several of them of different models—the new one is so superior that I would not part with it, unless I knew where to get another exactly like it.

With appreciation, I beg to remain

Very truly yours,

LODGE ADDRESSES JEWS ULSTER SPECIALS HOLD UP CARDINAL LOGUE

Says National Home in Palestine Means Extension of Religious Freedom

BOSTON, June 8.—An extension of the religious freedom "so vital to the peace of the world," will result from the establishment of a national home for the Jews in Palestine, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge said last night in an address at a reception tendered him by Jewish residents of Boston. The reception was in recognition of the senator's introduction of the resolution unanimously passed by the senate to the effect that this country foster such a national home.

"The days of religious intolerance," said Senator Lodge, "have gone by among all the most highly civilized nations of the western world. Religious freedom is one of the cornerstones of the constitutional government of the United States. Complete religious tolerance is an American doctrine, and I think all Americans would deplore any attempt to bring race or religion in any manner into our political life."

"The United States has no direct interest in Palestine of a material kind, but its people have an Christian the profoundest feeling of veneration for the country, which enshrines the holy places. This recognition of sympathy with the desires of the Jewish people neither threatens nor invades any rights of other people."

He said that the rule of the Turk had been "a curse to every land it touched" and that the possession of Palestine by the Turks had been "one of the great blot on the face of civilization."

"The rescue of Palestine by Great Britain and the allies," he continued, "removed this stigma from the western nations. This result I am sure has been not only a joy to all those who think of the Holy Land with devout reverence, but will be a service to all mankind."

"If the government be properly administered, it must carry with it an extension of the principles of religious freedom so vital to the peace of the world in teaching men to hate oppression and persecution born of religious differences."

"ADAM AND EVE" TO BE ARRESTED

AUGUSTA, Me., June 8.—Game Commissioner Parsons will proceed against Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sutter, who are doing the "Adam and Eve" stunt around Howe Brook in Aroostook county.

Various complaints have come to the departments that Mr. and Mrs. Sutter are violating the law. And pictures were shown of them in the act of carving deer and partridge killed out of season in their possession.

The wardens sent to bring Mr. and Mrs. Sutter out of the woods and have them arraigned before a trial justice are Howard Wood of Patten, chief game warden for northern Penobscot and southern Aroostook counties, and F. E. Jorgenson of Ashland, chief warden for central Aroostook county.

"The fish and game laws were placed on the statute books to be enforced," says Commissioner Parsons. "I see no reason why these people, who call themselves 'Adam and Eve' should be permitted to go into the woods and break our laws, any more than other persons."

The Value of your food—

There is only one test by which economy in food may be measured

To be economical, an article of food must have high food value, nourishment, be readily assimilated and still remain reasonable in price. For a cheap food which fails to nourish or causes indigestion, you exchange your health and personal comfort—too high a price to pay for any food.

Bread-and-Milk is the perfect, balanced food providing every particle of nourishment and food-value that the body needs for satisfaction and health.

A pound loaf of Bread contains the same food value as one and a half pounds of round steak, one and three-quarter pounds of chicken, one and a half pounds of mutton, three quarts of oysters or a dozen and a half of eggs.

Milk supplies all the nutrients to the diet—fats, carbohydrates and protein—and is capable alone of sustaining life for a comparatively long period.

This is Bread-and-Milk week! Don't let it pass without proving the value of more Bread-and-Milk on your table.

QUESTION LEGALITY OF SEIZING THE "SYNAGOG"

BOSTON, June 8.—An order asking the supreme judicial court of Massachusetts to pass upon the constitutionality of a bill, which before the state senate for removal of John Singer Sargent's painting "The Synagogue" from the Boston public library "for educational purposes" was introduced in the senate yesterday and referred to the committee on rules.

On Monday the house passed the bill, which would authorize the state to take the painting by eminent domain and remove it to an educational institution for study as a work of art. Demands for the removal of the picture have been based on the charge that it constitutes a reflection on the Jewish religion.

"By the order brought in yesterday, the supreme court would be asked to say, 'It is constitutional and within the power of the general court to instruct the department of education to take the painting by right of eminent domain.'"

The order also asks whether the picture may be taken for educational purposes and whether its removal is for a public purpose.

Why Castoria?

YEARS ago Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup were the remedies in common use for Infants and Children; Castor Oil so nauseating as to be almost impossible and the others all containing Opium in one form or another, but so disguised as to make them pleasant to the taste, yet really to stupefy the child and give the appearance of relief from pain.

It required years of research to find a purely vegetable combination that would take the place of these disagreeable, unpleasant and vicious remedies that from habit had become almost universal. This was the inception of, and the reason for, the introduction of Fletcher's Castoria, and for over 30 years it has proven its worth, received the praise of Physicians everywhere and become a household word among mothers.

A remedy ESPECIALLY prepared for Infants and Children and no mother would think of giving to her baby a remedy that she would use for herself, without consulting a physician.

KU KLUX OFFICIALS AND MEMBERS INDICTED

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 8.—Three high officials and 31 alleged members of the Ku Klux Klan were indicted by the Los Angeles county grand jury yesterday on five counts of felony charges in connection with a raid at Inglewood, near here on April 22 last.

The Klan officers were William S. Cohurn, grand goblin of the Pacific domain and supreme attorney of the order; G. W. Price, king klan for the state of California; and N. A. Barker, klansman or organizer for the county of Los Angeles, is under arrest here while Cohurn and Price are understood to be in the east.

ASSOCIATED HARVARD CLUBS MEETING

Replies are coming in promptly to the final call of the Harvard club committee, which is arranging to entertain 300 Harvard men at the 21st annual meeting of the Associated Harvard clubs to be held at Boston and Cambridge June 16 and 17.

The committee hoped that everybody will come to all the meetings, luncheons and dinners, but it asks that special care be taken by graduates in indicating the number of meals at which they will be guests. It is especially important in preparing to feed 3000 men, more or less, to know as nearly as practicable how many men will be at a given meal, not only because reasonable economy is a virtue in a time of high prices, but also because it is essential to have enough food for everybody. Four such meals will be served—luncheon at Memorial hall on June 16, dinner at Symphony hall on June 16, and luncheon and dinner at Nantasket on June 17.

No admission is charged for his lectures or for the addresses of any of the other six speakers who make up the combination. Everybody is invited.

COURT ORDER PREVENTS STRIKE PICKETING

MANCHESTER, N. H., June 8.—A temporary injunction restraining officers and members of textile unions on strike here since Feb. 13, from picketing or otherwise interfering with the operation of the Ameskeag Manufacturing Co.'s mill in this city, or with their employees, was granted by Judge William H. Sawyer in superior court here today. Service of the papers started at noon.

The injunction names President Thos. McMahon of the United Textile Workers of America, Vice President James Barr, Sarah Conboy, Secretary-Treasurer John L. Barry, president of the New Hampshire branch of the American Federation of Labor, and all officers and members of local textile unions or their affiliated organizations.

It was the outstanding feature in the textile strike situation in New Hampshire. All was quiet, when the local mill opened today. In police court a woman, arrested during disorders last night, was charged with assault and sentenced to 30 days in the house of correction.

The injunction detains all persons from combining and conspiring to interfere with the operation of the plaintiff's business and with its employees or those desiring to become employees.

The injunction specifically restrains "patrolling, parading, picketing or loitering about the mills, or the approaches thereto."

The court decreed that the injunction remain in force until the close of the next term of superior court, unless continued or ended by the court. The court meets early in September.

JURORS GO TO MAT WITH STATE OF ILLINOIS

WAUKEGAN, Ill., June 8.—(By the Associated Press) The jurors in the trial of Gov. Len Small, in whom the long imprisonment has developed prima donna temperaments, went to the mat with the state of Illinois today for the third time. This time they objected to an execution.

The jurors have a third floor bedroom in the court house and yesterday morning were aroused by a din of carpenter's tools and other activity overhead. The noise continued all day, even penetrating the court room and sometimes making witnesses' answers inaudible.

An investigation last night disclosed that a gallows was being constructed on the top floor where the sky over a policeman will be hanging from the rafters. After a restless night, the jurors today requested the state to have the hanging elsewhere.

TIME FOR ACTION SAYS LETTER TO R. R. MEN

CINCINNATI, June 8.—Some union leaders today expressed the belief that although there were grounds for a strike in the railroad industry, it would not be sanctioned unless the 16 brotherhoods and organizations presented a united front.

"Doubt was expressed that the four transportation brotherhoods would join in such a movement. In view of the fact that their members' wages had not been cut by the railroad labor board."

Significance, however, was accorded a letter sent to all locals following release of the ballots by the executive council of the Federated Shop Crafters, in which it was declared:

"This is a time for action, and not for talk and unnecessary delay."

LOWELL MAN LEASES HOTEL IN DOVER, N. H.

(Special to The Sun) DOVER, N. H., June 8.—Mr. Eneas A. O'Malley, who for the past four years has been assistant manager of the New American hotel, Lowell, Mass., has just finished a business deal with Thomas R. Diab, the proprietor of the American house of this city.

Mr. O'Malley has taken out a 15-year sub-lease, which is conditional on an account of circumstances which may arise when Mr. Diab's lease runs out in 10 years.

The American house is one of the best in the city and will be conducted on the American plan with a first class dining-room and restaurant.

Both Mr. and Mrs. O'Malley are natives of Lowell.

PONZI TRUSTEES SUP ALLEN

BOSTON, June 8.—The trustees in bankruptcy of Charles Ponzi brought four suits today in superior court against Bank Commissioner Joseph C. Allen today to recover more than $1,000,000 received by the Hunover Trust Co. from Ponzi.

One of the suits involves the sum of $1,000,000 which it is claimed Ponzi deposited about two weeks before his business crashed and for which he received a certificate of deposit.

FREIGHT HANDLER INJURED

Andrew Toomey, 37, a wooden at employed as a freight handler by the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad at the Maple street freight house, fell between two cars and was struck by a crate while at his work this forenoon. The ambulance removed him to St. John's hospital, where it was found that he was suffering from a fracture of the spine and internal injuries. His condition is not considered serious.

BONUS BILL INDORSED

LEWISTON, Me., June 8.—Resolutions adopted by the Maine State Federation of Labor here today, indorsed the bonus bill before congress; opposed the transmission of hydro-electric power beyond the confines of the state; asked for the law of kindergarten, and the encouragement of the investment of capital to build up industries within the state.

CARPENTER EXPELLED

ANOTHER KILLING IN IRELAND

BELFAST, June 8.—(By the Associated Press)—Archibald McCann, a County Antrim farmer, was killed and his nephew, John McCann, seriously wounded by armed men, who early today dragged them from their beds and shot them.

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, June 8.—Gains and losses, mainly within narrow limits, attended the dull opening of today's stock market. Traders evidently were disposed to wait on impending developments before extending their operations for the long or short account. Formal announcement of the details of the Republic-Allstate-Inland Steel merger were without pronounced effect, aside from the moderate strength of some of that group. Sellers were neglected, but the street was not inclined to attach much importance to prospects of a railroad strike. Atlas Powder was conspicuous among the specialties, leading four points. Foreign exchange based on advices from Paris regarding the attitude of the reparations commission towards a German loan.

Although call money opened at the unusually low rate of 4 1/2 per cent, dealings diminished steadily during the morning. Instances of the market's speculative character included an extension of the rise in Atlas Powder to 3 1/2 points and an abrupt decline of 1/2 point in Du Pont. Sugar was strong on the further rise in the price of refined product. Independent steels and obscure equipments held or increased early gains. Losses of one to three points were made by Electric Storage Battery, Willys-Overland preferred, Consolidated Gas and American Can. Rails dated Gas and American Can. Rails dated Gas and American Can. Rails dated Gas and American Can.

In general there was a better tone to the active shares after mid-day, but with a market contraction in declines in issues which have recently been responsive to pool operations. Inquiry for the oils and the sugars was supplemented by some demand for Standard Oil, American Writing Paper Co. and Delaware, Lackawanna and Western which improved 1 to 3 points. Precipitous was applied to Associated Oil, Producers and Refiners, California Petroleum, Atlantic Gulf of Eastern Kodak, Piggly Wiggly Stores, Chicago & St. Louis Southwestern which yielded one to two points.

Buying of Mexican oil, cottons, food specialties and utilities at gains of 1 to 2 1/2 points infused some firmness into the later dealings. The closing was steady.

RIDING "BIKES" ON SIDEWALKS

Practice of Riding Bicycles
in Violation of Ordinance
Must Stop

Against Sidewalk Riders

"Every person who is brought in here for violation of the city ordinance by riding bicycles on sidewalks and other places where they are not supposed to be, will be fined by this court," said Judge Thomas J. Enright this morning after Stanley J. Maianka had pleaded guilty to an offense of this kind and had been fined $5.

"The women and children of this city must be protected against the danger which menace life and limb," said the court. "I have seen on my piazza, which overlooks the North common, and seen these young fellows riding their bicycles in restricted areas on the common so as to endanger life and limb. Women, out wheeling baby carriages, are not safe when confronted with this kind of an offense to exist. I have seen women narrowly escape being knocked down.

"Last night a man reported to me that he had seen a woman knocked flat by a rider who got up, laughed, and rode away. Such things should not be tolerated. There are plenty of places where boys can ride bicycles without using the places allotted to pedestrians. People should have a feeling of safety when walking along public thoroughfares. I do not wish to be unfair in the matter but the practice must stop."

Officer John J. Mahan, who patrols the South common bent reports that he has had much trouble with boys who persist in riding upon the sidewalks and on the common in spots where the law forbids. He has brought seven of them into court within the past few days. Six of the cases will come up tomorrow.

In connection with the judge's statement Chief Thomas R. Atkinson said that he had issued orders to all patrolmen to ward people violating this ordinance. Those who violate will be brought into court. The chief says that he is working with the court to stamp out this dangerous practice.

BOYS IN BLOODY BATTLE ON SOUTH COMMON

Youthful Joseph Costa, admitted in district court this morning, that he took part in a bloody fight on the South common last night which resulted in a crowd of several hundred people. He was charged with disturbing the peace by fighting on the South common and fined $5.

According to Officer John J. Mahan, who arrested Costa, he was patrolling his beat when several women rushed up to him and told him "murder was being done on the South common." Rushing to the scene Officer Mahan said that he saw a crowd of several hundred people, shouting with glee and cheering two youths who were battling in a small circle. Mahan forced his way through the crowd and grabbed Costa. He also got a grip on the other boy's shirt, but the shirt ripped and the boy escaped through the crowd.

Mahan claimed the Costa boy was stripped to his undershirt, which was covered with blood, and that the fight had been in progress some minutes. The other boy was wearing a dark colored shirt, also covered with blood. Officer Mahan, and although a search was made for the other boy, the officers were unable to find him. When asked to explain the fight, Costa told the court that the other boy had been wrestling with some companions and had thrown them to the ground. He claimed the boy then grabbed him and tossed him down, whereupon he arose and "socked" him assailing on the jaw. And then the fight began. Officer Mahan testified that the Costa boy had been guilty of fighting on one or two other occasions of the common.

Here Is "Nature's Greatest Food"

What Scientists Say About the Chief Elements of Father
John's Medicine

If you find yourself getting listless, lazy and inactive, do not attribute your condition to the so-called "spring fever." You are really in a run-down condition and are suffering from a lack of proper nourishment. You need a tonic to build up new strength and health and to increase your power of resistance.

You should take just such a tonic as Father John's Medicine. The chief element of Father John's Medicine is commonly called by physicians "nature's greatest food." This element is divided up into the finest of particles which are readily taken up by even the weakest of digestive systems. Father John's Medicine nourishes the body tissue and enriches the blood, so that the people taking it are soon restored to normal health. Start taking Father John's Medicine today.—Adv.

NEW MEMBERS INITIATED

Div. 4, A. O. H., Members
Hold Smoker — County
President Initiates Members

The members of Division 4, A. O. H., and their friends gathered in A. O. H. hall last night where a very enjoyable smoker was held. Six new members were initiated into the division by County President Linnehan, and arrangements made for the meeting of the county board, which will be held at the Working Boys' Home in Newton Highlands on Sunday, June 25. It is expected that a large delegation will attend in view of the fact that the superior of the home, Brother Fabian, is a former Lowell boy. Entertainment will be furnished by the local division, and a musical program by Major Daly's band will be carried out by Dr. Patrick J. Tully, president of Division 4, was in charge of last night's affair, and seated on the platform were County President Linnehan, Division 3, President McEntee, Division 11, and Brothers Fabian and Aquinas of the Working Boys' Home.

After an interesting address by President Linnehan, a social and entertainment was held, in which the following took part: Character song, Charles Gilbride; violin solo, James O'Hara; bagpipes, O'Hara and Callahan; stop dancing, Kenny and Keegan; remarks, Bro. Aquinas, and a boxing exhibition by the Delaney brothers.

Refreshments were served.

JURY RETURNS SEALED VERDICT

A sealed verdict in the sum of $1000 was returned this morning by the jury in the case of Edward H. Barlow vs. Westford vs. Austin B. Fletcher of sum of $5000, at the civil session of the superior court. The plaintiff in this case sought to recover damages for alleged personal injuries, which he claimed he received while riding a bicycle in North Chelmsford, June 6, 1921, when he was struck by an automobile owned by the defendant.

The next case to go on trial was that of the Waterhouse Welding Co. of Boston vs. James Egan, of Lowell. The action of contract by which the plaintiff company seeks to recover the sum of $300. The plaintiff claims that it placed a welding machine on trial at the establishment of the defendant and that the latter failed to return it, and within the time specified in the contract.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE FOR FUNDS

The Salvation Army drive for home service funds has been going on practically, but up to the present time only $5000 has been collected. During the week, several large donations have been received from firms and individuals, and among them are the following: Abbott Worsted Co. of Braintree, $122.29; Abbott Worsted Co. of Braintree, $10.80; Dr. John J. Mahan, $3.14; Sewbury Hospital, $50.69; J. C. Ayer Co., $14.69; Mechanics Savings Bank, $16; Mary C. Abbott, $10; Lowell Oak Light Co., $45; James A. Garfield Relief Corps, $6; Norcross and Livingston, $10; Woolworth Co., $15; employees of Woolworth Co., $8.35; Locks and Canals Co., $18.60. The last amount is in addition to the sum of $4600 received by the army from the Locks and Canals Co. a short time ago.

BURNS CAUSE DEATH OF 4-YEAR-OLD BOY

James Averghinos, aged 4 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Averghinos of 28 Lutzburg street, died this morning at the home of his parents from burns he received a couple of weeks ago, while playing near his home.

The accident occurred on May 27, while the Averghinos boy was playing with companions in his yard. As he could be learned, one of the children applied a match to the boy's clothing. Besides his parents, the boy is survived by a sister.

AFTER SCHOOL CLASSES MUNICIPAL BATH HOUSE OPENS

Demonstration in High School
Hall by Piano and Violin
Classes

At the demonstration in high school hall yesterday afternoon by the after school piano and violin classes of the public schools, hundreds of parents, teachers and friends were present to applaud the efforts of the children who participated. Perhaps the best received number on the program was that of Miss Irene Plue of the Bartlett school, who rendered "Home, Sweet Home," in a prettily toned soprano voice, to the accompaniment of a number of her fellow pupils. She received the heaviest applause of the program.

The efforts of the other children were extremely pleasing, too, however, and all received unstinted appreciation.

Yesterday's demonstration had been planned for several months, and both teachers and pupils have worked hard for its success. Through the cooperation of the school authorities, the teachers and faculty of the State Normal school and the officers of the community service the pupils have been able to study music in their spare moments. Those who deserve particular commendation are Miss Gertrude O'Brien, who has been in charge of the piano classes, and Miss Jessie Hagar, who did the whole work for the violin classes.

The program was preceded by a short talk by Superintendent Molloy, who congratulated all who were connected in the success of the movement for their work. Among those present were Clarence M. Weed of the Normal school and Frederick O. Blunt, director of music in the public schools, whose two assistants, Misses O'Brien and Hagar, were great factors in the program's success.

MATRIMONIAL

A very pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon when Miss Eva F. Harrington and Mr. William Hlopelle were united in marriage at St. Patrick's parochial residence by Rev. Joseph Curtin. The bride was attired in a striking gown of georgette crepe over white satin and carried bridal roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Madelyn M. Casey, wore white georgette with pink and carried pink roses. Peter Hlopelle, brother of the groom, acted as best man. The bride's gift to the bridegroom was a beautiful cameo ring, while the groom presented the best man with a pair of gold cuff links. Following the ceremony, the bride party repaired to the home of the bride's aunt, 1401 Middlesex street, where a reception and entertainment took place. Guests were present from Boston, Andover, Salem and Dover, N. H. After an extensive tour of New Hampshire and Maine, the couple will be at home to their friends at 17 Fifth street, after Aug. 1.

LACHAPPELLE-Sullivan—The wedding of Mr. Emmett Lachapelle and Miss Elizabeth Sullivan took place yesterday afternoon at St. Peter's rectory, the officiating clergyman being Rev. Fr. Shea. The bride wore gray canton crepe with hat to match and carried white carnations. She was attended by Miss Mary Corby, who was attired in brown canton crepe with picture hat to match and carried pink carnations. The best man was Mr. Daniel Corby. After the ceremony this couple left on a honeymoon trip and after June 19 they will be at home to their friends in this city.

MERRIMACK PARK HOUSE OPENS

Doors of Bath House on Merrimack River Thrown
Open Today

House Will be Open Daily
A. M. to 9 P. M.

The municipal bath house on the Merrimack river opened its doors at 11 o'clock today for the summer season, which will continue well into the fall, or until such a time as the weather loses its summer-like attributes.

Just to try the water and the nature of the sandy bottom, John W. Karnaz, superintendent of parks, took the first "dip" and pronounced it fine. In opening the bath house today the local park department has stolen a march upon the Metropolitan house around Boston that do not contemplate opening until the 15th of the month, but the weather locally has been too good to warrant it and the forecast does not promise much relief from the present torrid wave until the last of the week.

The bath house will be adequately manned this year by male and female attendants. James Dison and Louis Merriman will be the guards of duty either on the beach or in the house, while two women will look after things on the other side of the building. Patrolman John McManus has been detailed from the police department to duty at the pool at all times.

The house will be open daily, including Sunday, from 11 a. m. to 9 p. m. As was the case last year a polling booth will be erected at one end of the main building for the convenience of smaller children, who may use for dressing without charge.

The charge for a suit, towel and locker will remain the same, 25 cents. There will be no time limit set upon the individual use of a suit for the present, at least, but should it be found that some persons are taking advantage of this, strict regulation will be put in effect, definitely limiting the length of time a suit may be rented.

Before long the park department will be obliged to purchase 200 more bathing suits, to be bought from the women's prison at Framingham.

being Rev. Fr. Shea. The bride wore gray canton crepe with hat to match and carried white carnations. She was attended by Miss Mary Corby, who was attired in brown canton crepe with picture hat to match and carried pink carnations. The best man was Mr. Daniel Corby. After the ceremony this couple left on a honeymoon trip and after June 19 they will be at home to their friends in this city.
